Arlington Heights 100 Years Old Yesterday

...And No Birthday Cake

Democrats Are Easy Winners

Democrats were swept into all county and state offices Tuesday with the possible exception of state treasurer and superintendent of public instruction.

At press time Wednesday, the races were still close between Republican Warren E. Wright and Democrat David F. Mallett for treasurer, and Democrat Mark A. Peterman and Republican Vernon L. Nickell for superintendent of public instruction.

A landslide appeared in the making for the Blue Ballot amendment to reapportion the state's legislative districts. It rolled up a 10-1 "yes" margin in Cook county with an even larger margin predicted when all the votes are counted. Downstate, where trouble was expected, the amendment was leading by 2 to 1.

A strong Republican vote in the suburban towns did not mean a thing this year. Four and two years ago they carried Republicans into Cook county offices that had not had a Republican tenant for many years.

Noble J. Puffer, Democratic candidate for re-election as county superintendent of schools, led his ticket by a wide margin in Wheeling, Schaumburg, Elk Grove, and Palatine townships.

Puffer led Sen. Paul H. Douglas by 219 votes in Elk Grove, 869 votes in Wheeling, 506 votes in Palatine, and 18 votes in Schaumburg township.

Puffer received 36 per cent of the vote in Wheeling township, and 41 per cent of the vote in his home township, Palatine.

Many of the Republican candidates received more votes than Meek, especially Mrs. Church, and candidates for county commissioner.

Comparison of the vote in 1952 with that of Tuesday shows that while 25% of the registered voters of the northwest towns failed to go to the polls, the total vote Tuesday was within 15% of that of two years ago.

Although the country towns continued to vote substantially Republican, the downstate area, normally GOP, swung to the Democrats with surprising numbers.

Veteran political analyist Charles B. Cleveland said the swing in downstate Illinois was due to a lack of faith in the Republican argument that an economic adjustment was necessary after a war, fear of farmers that lower prices forecast an even greater drop, and the fear of labor that loss of overtime might be followed by layoffs.

The Democrats won back huge hunks of the vote that went to Ike in 1952.

Observers agreed that Meek's big disadvantage was the unfamiliarity of voters with the GOP nominee. He was virtually unknown among many Cook county voters, even among staunch Republicans.

A great many of the Ike voters apparently swung to Douglas because they thought Douglas would support Ike better than Meek, who had campaigned in the Republican primary as a pro-Taft candidate.

Elsewhere in the nation, Democrats took control of the House of Representatives with a probable 14 seat margin. The Senate race was still in doubt Wednesday afternoon with a strong possibility of slim GOP control.

In the races for governorships, the Democrats would probably end up with 27, the Republicans 21.

The New York election was unique in that Averell Harriman, liberal Democrat, was elected to office but failed to take Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr. with him as Lt. Governor. The young FDR went down to defeat before the GOP candidate Jacob Javits.

The Editor's column

By S. R. PADDOCK

A half dozen of our Republican friends asked us Wednesday morning how we felt. We informed them we did not acquire our terrific cold by doing any electioneering.

In spite of our Republican leanings, to which we admitted in last week's column, there are several things to be happy about.

The strong vote given Noble J. Puffer, Democratic candidate for county superintendent of schools, shows that a lot of Republicans agreed with us that Noble is doing a good job.

The Blue Ballot apparently carried which will mean that this area will have an individual voice in the state legislature. When the redistricting goes into effect, this area will have a new senatorship and three seats in the legislature to be split between the Republicans and Democrats.

When that time comes, we hope the two parties will keep their hands off and let the civic groups do the picking.

Where are those fellows who claimed that the majority of residents of Rolling Meadows are Democrats?

We have known all along that there are as many Republicans as Democrats who have need for popular priced homes. Meek was given 506 votes; Douglas 379, which leads us to believe that there as more white collar workers in Rolling Meadows as there are those who "work for a living."

The size of that vote could be a warning to both Arlington Heights and Palatine that a voting giant is in their midst.

Arlington Heights board of education and the complete membership of the lay committee will receive Monday night the recommendation of the subcommittee regarding the expansion needs of the high school and what should be done about it.

We have received no intimations as to the nature of that report, but there can only be one answer—more classrooms as soon as possible. If those classrooms are not ready by next September, Arlington Heights high school will have to go into double sessions. The present enrollment is over 1,500. It is expected to pass 1,900 by January 1956.

The voters of the Arlington Heights high school district should accept the report of the committee as mandatory to provide the bonding power that will build those additional classrooms. rooms.

A judge in Chicago told us the other day that juvenile delinquency can be partly blamed upon the parents' desire for luxuries.

In his opinion, the mother of teenagers should give up any Chicago job, even if it means the loss of a television set or a new auto.

He thinks the children are worth more than all the extras possible when the mother and father are both bringing home the bacon.

In a neighboring city three young men recently got into trouble because both the mother and father of two of the boys were employed; the third boy involved comes from a broken family. Local police tell us that the same condition exists here.

The double school sessions throw a boy or girl on his own for half a day. No wonder he gets into trouble.

There appears to be some secrecy regarding the "radar" towers that are being erected at numerous points in northwest Cook county. As far as Paddock Publications can learn, unofficially, they are being erected by the U. S. Geodetic Survey. They will be used for triangulating distances and determining land elevations and conditions of soil which might have some effect upon the radar screen.

Such a screen is evidently being established as a part of the Niki installation at the former Arlington Airport, which should make this area as safe a place as anywhere in the United States in case of attack.

Although historic documents give the birth of the present Arlington Heights as November 3, 1854, even if nobody has Breakfast Club think we are in error in saying that the village is 100 years old this week. They say the birth did not occur until its incorporation in 1887.

We do not expect to be on hand to cut any 1987 birthday cake. We stand pat on Nov. 3, 1954, even if nobody has provided any 100th anniversary cake to be cut.

A new order of the post office department directs carriers to case circulars with first class mail. Circular or bulk mailing is becoming as heavy as first class mail upon which a higher rate is charged.

Sooner or later, those mail carriers will rebel against the handling of so much "junk" mail. The speed of first class mail is being threatened.

Why worry about the cost of commodities? Wait until the next war comes up. World War I cost 67 billions; World War II 450 billions; the little Korean war cost 150 billion.

Lloyd Burlingham To Speak At Meeting Of Farm Bureau

Lloyd Burlingham, well known news commentator, will be the featured speaker at the 34th annual meeting of the Cook county Farm Bureau, held November 11 at the Arlington Heights township high school.

The meeting will start with a free dinner for the membership beginning at 6:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. It will be necessary to have reservations for the dinner.

Lions Broom Sale To Assist Blind

Lion members will be selling brooms Friday and Saturday of this week. Friday night between 6:00 and 10:30 p.m. they will be sold throughout the business district, as well as from door to door. Those wishing to buy brooms should leave their porch lights on. Saturday morning the sale will continue in the business section only.

There will be three sizes ot brooms available — the general household brooms sold at $1.50, the deluxe at $1.75, and the heavy duty broom at $2.00, as well as two sizes of rubber mats —the medium sold at $2.50, and the large at $3.00. The charge for the whisk brooms will be 75c.

Attorney Walters Discovers Town Plat Filed 100 Years Ago

According to attorney Willard Walters, 519 S. Pine st., Arlington Heights was 100 years old Wednesday, November 3, 1954.

That statement is based on his discovery of the original plat of the town of Dunton. He came across it in a search of real estate records for a pioneer family.

In Way Back When files, Paddock Publications has a copy of that plat dated 1854. It provides for the right of way of the Chicago & North Western railroad. The area comprises 40 acres lying between present Sigwalt st. and Euclid ave. and State rd. and Highland ave., although none of those four streest are named on the plat.

The north and south streets are Vail, Dunton and Prairie (later changed to Evergreen), east and west streets are Robinson (later vacated), Campbell, Miner, Eastman, St. James and Tremont (Fremont). The present Euclid street is simply called the highway.

The first plat of Dunton (Arlington Heights) was made under the direction of the commissioner of highways for the town of Wheeling which was a part of the W. H. Dunton farm. Mr. Dunton arrived in the township in 1836. The first settlers in the township located along Milwaukee ave. about 1833.

The history of Cook county published in 1884, gives this reason for the change of name from Dunton to Arlington Heights. "In 1874, in order to give, if possible a free impetus to its development, a number of citizens conceived the idea of changing its name from plain Dunton to the more high-soundng name of Arlington Heights. The name of the postoffice and railroad station were also changed, but the results were neither so immediate or so immense as had been fondly hoped. The village continued to grow as slowly as before."

The postoffice was established December 8, 1855, which was the same year the First Presbyterian church society was organized.

Prior to the arrival of the railroad in 1854, this area was called West Wheeling.

Junior High To Give Vocal Concert Nov. 10

The vocal department, four groups totaling 200 students, will present a concert at the Arlington Heights Junior high school November 10, at 8 p.m., with Walther M. Liebenow directing.

Frequently one can hear the remarks passed as follows: "My child is unmusical." "My son's voice is changing and he sounds horrible," or "My child just can't sing!"

DURING THE past year various groups from the Junior high have sung for civic groups as well as school programs and assemblies. Performances at Morton Grove Junior high and the Airport school gave the boys and girls an opportunity to share their experiences with others. The Junior Woman's club invited the girls' chorus to sing for their spring program and an enthusiastic greeting was accorded the students at the Old Folks' Home.

Parents, friends and the general public are invited to attend the Wednesday evening performance. Tickets are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children, and may be purchased from any chorus member or at the door. Proceeds will be used for music and equipment in the new Junior high music room.

St. Peter School To Observe 90th Anniversary

St. Peter Lutheran school in Arlington Heights will celebrate its 90th year November 7 to 14.

The congregation and school faculty are planning special events to honor the occasion.

Three anniversary services in the church are slated for November 14 with special music being supplied by the adult and children's choir.

A children's worship service will be offered Wednesday at 9 a.m.

TWO VARIETY programs will be staged Monday and Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the activity building. Old class photographs and snapshots of former faculty members will be on exhibit.

Grades 5 to 8 are in charge of the Monday program, and kindergarten through grade 4 will direct the Wednesday program.

A lecture for parents on visual education will be presented Friday, Nov. 12 at 8 p.m. The Mothers' club is sponsoring the talk to be given by Rev. W. Rehmus of St. Paul Lutheran church, Addison.

Officiating at the special church services November 14 will be Rev. Paul Roeder of Chicago, the grandson of a former St. Peter pastor.

VFW To Sponsor 'Veterans' Day' November 11

A program will be held on "Veterans' Day (formerly Armistice Day) under the direction of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 981, Arlington Heights, to honor those men who gave their lives for their country in World War I and II, and the Korean War.

President Albert W. Goedke has proclaimed November 11 as "Veterans' Day" in Arlington Heights and requests all citizens to join with the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars in appropriate observance. The name Armistice Day has been changed to "Veterans' Day" by an executive order of the President of the United States.

Organizations and individuals planning to participate in the event should meet at the village hall at 10:30 a.m., November 11. The assembled group will then march to the village flag pole, corner of Davis and Dunton, where the service will be held at 11 a.m.

The Post asks all citizens to give one minute of silence at 11 a.m., in respect to those men who gave their lives so that the rest may live. Sgt. Harold Nebel will be in charge of the program.

Still Need $3,000 To Reach Girl Scout Fund Quota

An additional sum of $3,000 is still needed to meet the $10,000 qouta of District IV, Girl Scout Council of Northwest Cook County. Although the fund drive chairman of the October campaigns in Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Palatine, and Prospect Heights report that all returns have not been received, they hope the funds ncessary to reach the $10,000 will be forthcoming within the next week.

Mt. Prospect has tallied only a small part of its quota. John Carnell, chairman, stated that it takes about three weeks to determine the final figure in a direct mail campaign. There will be no house-to-house solicitation in Mt. Prospect. Contributors are re-requested to mail their donations to Girl Scout Council of Northwest Cook County, c/o Mt. Prospect State Bank. They are not to be mailed to Mr. Carnell's residence, as published in last week's newspaper.

Prospect Heights has collected several hundred dollars more than its portion of district quota. W. H. "Billy" Spears is to be congratulated for chairing a most successful campaign. Mr. Spears and his enthusiastic helpers collected $800.

Otto Eilering reports that Palatine will have reached its quota of $1800 by the time this newspaper is read. He expects to go "over the top" if some anticipated contributions are made.

Victor Beisler, chairman of the Arlington Heights drive, indicated that Arlington may not reach its quota. He pointed out that all contributions have not been turned in and he is awaiting replies from industries who were sollicited by mail in the campaign. If these contributions are substantial, Arlington can still make its quota.

All of the chairman agreed that some homes were not reached by the house-to-house canvassers. People who have not been contacted are urged to send a check to one of the parties listed below or call so that someone can collect the contributions. Checks are to be made payable to the Girl Scout Council of Northwest Cook County and sent to the following persons: Victor Beisler, 501 N. State, Arlington Heights; Otto Eilering, 103 S. Linden, Palatine; Mt. Prospect State Bank, Mt. Prospect; and to Mrs. E. W. Oldham, P. O. Box 118, Prospect Heights.

Trailerites Told to Get Out

Eviction notices were mailed Saturday to 150 families residing in apartments and trailers at Arlington airport, Central and Wilkerds.

The 30-day notices expire December 1. This was in accordance with orders of a federal court which decreed that residents move by that date.

Through the efforts of Rep. Marguerite Stitt Church, however, who appealed to the army, they will be allowed to remain until January 1.

One of the hardest hit by the eviction notice is storekeeper William Miller, who took over a general store in the barracks two weeks before the federal court ruled the site must be vacated to make way for a guided missile center.

Although the firm which leased the airport knew on July 27 that the government was taking over, they failed to inform Miller of the scope of the impending action. He and his wife sold their home and invested $3,000 in the business.

"I don't know what we'll do now," he told a Paddock reporter Monday. "As of now, however, we are not planning any legal action to recover money we lost."

The army is erecting a "Nike" guided missile unit at the airport. Construction has begun and is expected to be completed by spring.

"Nike" is the nation's first combat-ready surface-to-air guided missile system to be put in use in the air defense system. It is also the Army's first supersonic guided missile to demonstrate its ability to knock enemy aircraft out of the sky.

The missile, named after the Greek goddess of victory, can outmaneuver bombers, fighters or transport planes and operates regardless of weather conditions and visibility.

The unit at Arlington Heights will be housed in specially designed all-weather van-type trailers. The launching racks are the only thing which will be exposed.

In the event of an air attack in this area, the "Nike" battery will receive an early warning from the radar warning net The bombers will be picked up and tracked electronically. Meanwhile, missiles are readied in vertical position on the launching racks as a running account of the plane's changing position is transmitted.

Within seconds after launching, "Nike" has passed through the sonic barrier and in supersonic flight rides smoothly on its own rocket engine.

When the missile intercepts the enemy bomber, it explodes.

With the location of this unit so near to Arlington Heights, the northwest country towns virtually become the safest communities in the Chicago area.

Personnel at the site will consist of six officers and 88 enlisted personnel, with an average of 35 per cent of the personnel married men. They and their families will probably make their residence in Palatine, Arlington Heights, or Mount Prospect.

From The Police Blotter...

Halloween pranks were at a minimum over the weekend, but one group of teen-age boys found out the hard way it didn't pay to throw eggs at houses in Arlington Heights. Apprehended by Patrolmen Irvin McDougall and Tom Ullock of the Arlington police department, they were made to report at the station Monday afternoon. From there the three lads, with their three little buckets, went to the two homes they peppered with eggs and proceeded to clean off the windows, screens and brick. It was mighty cold and the egg was frozen hard, but they stayed on the job until the owners were satisfied with the clean up job. One lad remarked, "I never want to see an egg again!" when he was finished.

Nick Wichtner escaped serious injuries last week when he was struck by an auto driven by William H. Linnemann, 709 N. Vail, while crossing Northwest hwy., at State rd. Linnemann told police he was driving south on State rd. and stopped for the light. When it changed to green, he started to make a left turn but had to wait for oncoming traffic to clear. He then proceeded to make the turn and struck Wichtner, whom he did not see. Wichtner was taken to Dr. H. O. Meisenheimer, who treated him for a bruised right arm and right knee.

Leslie A. Nicholas Jr., Barrington, also escaped serious injuries, when he fell asleep early Tuesday morning while driving his car west on the Northwest hwy., in Arlington Heights. The car traveled 240 feet after leaving the highway, striking a telephone poll, breaking it off at the bottom. The only known injury was bruises on his legs.

Seventeen traffic cases were heard in court Monday night, with a total of $268 in fines collected. Violations included speeding, reckless driving, unnecessary noise, no driver's license, third lane passing, and driving under the influence of liquor.

American Education Week November 7-13

Arlington Area Educators' Council, made up of 320 teachers and administrators in Wheeling and Elk Grove township, in discussing "American Education Week," stressed the fact this is a good time for parent visitations to classrooms.

It was pointed out that many parents never visit the schools because they never receive an invitation, but "American Education Week," November 7-13, provides all parents with a blanket invitation to schools all over the country.

With more than 20 public and parochial elementary schools in Wheeling and Elk Grove townships feeding into the Arlington high school, one can realize the vast job which is in the hands of these educators and administrators. For a chance to see these men and women in action, parents and friends are urged to visit the schools at least one day during American Education Week. It will give them a first hand opportunity to see the facilities, note some of the problems and see the advantages of modern education.

Announce Officers, Chairmen For 1955 Little League Program

Work on the 1955 baseball season was begun Monday at a board of directors meeting of the Arlington Heights Little League.

Fund raising projects were discussed and plans will be announced in the near future.

Inman continues as president of the league with Joe Miller, vice president; Bill Miller, secretary; Mrs. Glenn Buckley, treasurer; Robert Hutchinson and Robert Spink, assistants to the president.

Committee chairmen are: John Shaw, finance; Bill Spomer, field development; Joe McGrath, team manager procurement; Heinz Lips, equipment; Joe Brodnan, umpires; Bill Heitz, managers laison; Rev. Luther V. Stephan, religious; Robert Skallerup, civic; Dennis Malcomson, educational; Mrs. Robert Hutchinson, public relations; Stu Fitzpatrick, statistics and public address; and Jim Millay Jr., player's agent.

Mrs. Gerald Beckman will serve as president of the Women's auxiliary, assisted by Mrs. Russell Walters, vice president, and Mrs. C. S. Becker, secretary.

Persons interested in working with Little League may contact any of the members for further information.

Such a screen is evidently being established as a part of the Niki installation at the former Arlington Airport, which should make this area as safe a place as anywhere in the United States in case of attack.

Although historic documents give the birth of the present Arlington Heights as November 3, 1854, even if nobody has Breakfast Club think we are in error in saying that the village is 100 years old this week. They say the birth did not occur until its incorporation in 1887.

We do not expect to be on hand to cut any 1987 birthday cake. We stand pat on Nov. 3, 1954, even if nobody has provided any 100th anniversary cake to be cut.

A new order of the post office department directs carriers to case circulars with first class mail. Circular or bulk mailing is becoming as heavy as first class mail upon which a higher rate is charged.

Sooner or later, those mail carriers will rebel against the handling of so much "junk" mail. The speed of first class mail is being threatened.

Why worry about the cost of commodities? Wait until the next war comes up. World War I cost 67 billions; World War II 450 billions; the little Korean war cost 150 billion.

Democrats were swept into all county and state offices Tuesday with the possible exception of state treasurer and superintendent of public instruction.

At press time Wednesday, the races were still close between Republican Warren E. Wright and Democrat David F. Mallett for treasurer, and Democrat Mark A. Peterman and Republican Vernon L. Nickell for superintendent of public instruction.

A landslide appeared in the making for the Blue Ballot amendment to reapportion the state's legislative districts. It rolled up a 10-1 "yes" margin in Cook county with an even larger margin predicted when all the votes are counted. Downstate, where trouble was expected, the amendment was leading by 2 to 1.

A strong Republican vote in the suburban towns did not mean a thing this year. Four and two years ago they carried Republicans into Cook county offices that had not had a Republican tenant for many years.

Noble J. Puffer, Democratic candidate for re-election as county superintendent of schools, led his ticket by a wide margin in Wheeling, Schaumburg, Elk Grove, and Palatine townships.

Puffer led Sen. Paul H. Douglas by 219 votes in Elk Grove, 869 votes in Wheeling, 506 votes in Palatine, and 18 votes in Schaumburg township.

Puffer received 36 per cent of the vote in Wheeling township, and 41 per cent of the vote in his home township, Palatine.

Many of the Republican candidates received more votes than Meek, especially Mrs. Church, and candidates for county commissioner.

Comparison of the vote in 1952 with that of Tuesday shows that while 25% of the registered voters of the northwest towns failed to go to the polls, the total vote Tuesday was within 15% of that of two years ago.

Although the country towns continued to vote substantially Republican, the downstate area, normally GOP, swung to the Democrats with surprising numbers.

Veteran political analyist Charles B. Cleveland said the swing in downstate Illinois was due to a lack of faith in the Republican argument that an economic adjustment was necessary after a war, fear of farmers that lower prices forecast an even greater drop, and the fear of labor that loss of overtime might be followed by layoffs.

The Democrats won back huge hunks of the vote that went to Ike in 1952.

Observers agreed that Meek's big disadvantage was the unfamiliarity of voters with the GOP nominee. He was virtually unknown among many Cook county voters, even among staunch Republicans.

A great many of the Ike voters apparently swung to Douglas because they thought Douglas would support Ike better than Meek, who had campaigned in the Republican primary as a pro-Taft candidate.

Elsewhere in the nation, Democrats took control of the House of Representatives with a probable 14 seat margin. The Senate race was still in doubt Wednesday afternoon with a strong possibility of slim GOP control.

In the races for governorships, the Democrats would probably end up with 27, the Republicans 21.

The New York election was unique in that Averell Harriman, liberal Democrat, was elected to office but failed to take Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr. with him as Lt. Governor. The young FDR went down to defeat before the GOP candidate Jacob Javits.

Lloyd Burlingham To Speak At Meeting Of Farm Bureau

Lloyd Burlingham, well known news commentator, will be the featured speaker at the 34th annual meeting of the Cook county Farm Bureau, held November 11 at the Arlington Heights township high school.

The meeting will start with a free dinner for the membership beginning at 6:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. It will be necessary to have reservations for the dinner.

Lions Broom Sale To Assist Blind

Lion members will be selling brooms Friday and Saturday of this week. Friday night between 6:00 and 10:30 p.m. they will be sold throughout the business district, as well as from door to door. Those wishing to buy brooms should leave their porch lights on. Saturday morning the sale will continue in the business section only.

There will be three sizes of brooms available — the general household brooms sold at $1.50, the deluxe at $1.75, and the heavy duty broom at $2.00, as well as two sizes of rubber mats —the medium sold at $2.50, and the large at $3.00. The charge for the whisk brooms will be 75c.

According to attorney Willard Walters, 519 S. Pine st., Arlington Heights was 100 years old Wednesday, November 3, 1954.

That statement is based on his discovery of the original plat of the town of Dunton. He came across it in a search of real estate records for a pioneer family.

In Way Back When files, Paddock Publications has a copy of that plat dated 1854. It provides for the right of way of the Chicago & North Western railroad. The area comprises 40 acres lying between present Sigwalt st. and Euclid ave. and State rd. and Highland ave., although none of those four streest are named on the plat.

The north and south streets are Vail, Dunton and Prairie (later changed to Evergreen), east and west streets are Robinson (later vacated), Campbell, Miner, Eastman, St. James and Tremont (Fremont). The present Euclid street is simply called the highway.

The first plat of Dunton (Arlington Heights) was made under the direction of the commissioner of highways for the town of Wheeling which was a part of the W. H. Dunton farm. Mr. Dunton arrived in the township in 1836. The first settlers in the township located along Milwaukee ave. about 1833.

The history of Cook county published in 1884, gives this reason for the change of name from Dunton to Arlington Heights. "In 1874, in order to give, if possible a free impetus to its development, a number of citizens conceived the idea of changing its name from plain Dunton to the more high-soundng name of Arlington Heights. The name of the postoffice and railroad station were also changed, but the results were neither so immediate or so immense as had been fondly hoped. The village continued to grow as slowly as before."

The postoffice was established December 8, 1855, which was the same year the First Presbyterian church society was organized.

Prior to the arrival of the railroad in 1854, this area was called West Wheeling.

Junior High To Give Vocal Concert Nov. 10

The vocal department, four groups totaling 200 students, will present a concert at the Arlington Heights Junior high school November 10, at 8 p.m., with Walther M. Liebenow directing.

Frequently one can hear the remarks passed as follows: "My child is unmusical." "My son's voice is changing and he sounds horrible," or "My child just can't sing!"

These remarks are all erroneous according to Mr. Liebenow, who claims each of the 650 students in the Junior high are musical to a degree, for every boy's changing voice can intone good singing at his level, and every child can sing.

DURING THE past year various groups from the Junior high have sung for civic groups as well as school programs and assemblies. Performances at Morton Grove Junior high and the Airport school gave the boys and girls an opportunity to share their experiences with others. The Junior Woman's club invited the girls' chorus to sing for their spring program and an enthusiastic greeting was accorded the students at the Old Folks' Home.

Parents, friends and the general public are invited to attend the Wednesday evening performance. Tickets are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children, and may be purchased from any chorus member or at the door. Proceeds will be used for music and equipment in the new Junior high music room.

St. Peter School To Observe 90th Anniversary

St. Peter Lutheran school in Arlington Heights will celebrate its 90th year November 7 to 14.

The congregation and school faculty are planning special events to honor the occasion.

Three anniversary services in the church are slated for November 14 with special music being supplied by the adult and children's choir.

A children's worship service will be offered Wednesday at 9 a.m.

TWO VARIETY programs will be staged Monday and Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the activity building. Old class photographs and snapshots of former faculty members will be on exhibit.

Grades 5 to 8 are in charge of the Monday program, and kindergarten through grade 4 will direct the Wednesday program.

A lecture for parents on visual education will be presented Friday, Nov. 12 at 8 p.m. The Mothers' club is sponsoring the talk to be given by Rev. W. Rehmus of St. Paul Lutheran church, Addison.

Officiating at the special church services November 14 will be Rev. Paul Roeder of Chicago, the grandson of a former St. Peter pastor.

VFW To Sponsor 'Veterans' Day' November 11

A program will be held on "Veterans' Day (formerly Armistice Day) under the direction of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 981, Arlington Heights, to honor those men who gave their lives for their country in World War I and II, and the Korean War.

President Albert W. Goedke has proclaimed November 11 as "Veterans' Day" in Arlington Heights and requests all citizens to join with the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars in appropriate observance. The name Armistice Day has been changed to "Veterans' Day" by an executive order of the President of the United States.

Organizations and individuals planning to participate in the event should meet at the village hall at 10:30 a.m., November 11. The assembled group will then march to the village flag pole, corner of Davis and Dunton, where the service will be held at 11 a.m.

The Post asks all citizens to give one minute of silence at 11 a.m., in respect to those men who gave their lives so that the rest may live. Sgt. Harold Nebel will be in charge of the program.

Still Need $3,000 To Reach Girl Scout Fund Quota

An additional sum of $3,000 is still needed to meet the $10,000 qouta of District IV, Girl Scout Council of Northwest Cook County. Although the fund drive chairman of the October campaigns in Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Palatine, and Prospect Heights report that all returns have not been received, they hope the funds ncessary to reach the $10,000 will be forthcoming within the next week.

Mt. Prospect has tallied only a small part of its quota. John Carnell, chairman, stated that it takes about three weeks to determine the final figure in a direct mail campaign. There will be no house-to-house solicitation in Mt. Prospect. Contributors are rerequested to mail their donations to Girl Scout Council of Northwest Cook County, c/o Mt. Prospect State Bank. They are not to be mailed to Mr. Carnell's residence, as published in last week's newspaper.

Prospect Heights has collected several hundred dollars more than its portion of district quota. W. H. "Billy" Spears is to be congratulated for chairing a most successful campaign. Mr. Spears and his enthusiastic helpers collected $800.

Otto Eilering reports that Palatine will have reached its quota of $1800 by the time this newspaper is read. He expects to go "over the top" if some anticipated contributions are made.

Victor Beisler, chairman of the Arlington Heights drive, indicated that Arlington may not reach its quota. He pointed out that all contributions have not been turned in and he is awaiting replies from industries who were sollicited by mail in the campaign. If these contributions are substantial, Arlington can still make its quota.

All of the chairman agreed that some homes were not reached by the house-to-house canvassers. People who have not been contacted are urged to send a check to one of the parties listed below or call so that someone can collect the contributions. Checks are to be made payable to the Girl Scout Council of Northwest Cook County and sent to the following persons: Victor Beisler, 501 N. State, Arlington Heights; Otto Eilering, 103 S. Linden, Palatine; Mt. Prospect State Bank, Mt. Prospect; and to Mrs. E. W. Oldham, P. O. Box 118, Prospect Heights.

Trailerites Told to Get Out

Eviction notices were mailed Saturday to 150 families residing in apartments and trailers at Arlington airport, Central and Wilke rds.

The 30-day notices expire December 1. This was in accordance with orders of a federal court which decreed that residents move by that date.

Through the efforts of Rep. Marguerite Stitt Church, however, who appealed to the army, they will be allowed to remain until January 1.

One of the hardest hit by the eviction notice is storekeeper William Miller, who took over a general store in the barracks two weeks before the federal court ruled the site must be vacated to make way for a guided missile center.

Although the firm which leased the airport knew on July 27 that the government was taking over, they failed to inform Miller of the scope of the impending action. He and his wife sold their home and invested $3,000 in the business.

"I don't know what we'll do now," he told a Paddock reporter Monday. "As of now, however, we are not planning any legal action to recover money we lost."

The army is erecting a "Nike" guided missile unit at the airport. Construction has begun and is expected to be completed by spring.

"Nike" is the nation's first combat-ready surface - to - air guided missile system to be put in use in the air defense system. It is also the Army's first supersonic guided missile to demonstrate its ability to knock enemy aircraft out of the sky.

The missile, named after the Greek goddess of victory, can outmaneuver bombers, fighters or transport planes and operates regardless of weather conditions and visibility.

The unit at Arlington Heights will be housed in specially designed all-weather van-type trailers. The launching racks are the only thing which will be exposed.

In the event of an air attack in this area, the "Nike" battery will receive an early warning from the radar warning net The bombers will be picked up and tracked electronically. Meanwhile, missiles are readied in vertical position on the launching racks as a running account of the plane's changing position is transmitted.

Within seconds after launching, "Nike" has passed through the sonic barrier and in supersonic flight rides smoothly on its own rocket engine.

When the missile intercepts the enemy bomber, it explodes.

With the location of this unit so near to Arlington Heights, the northwest country towns virtually become the safest communities in the Chicago area.

Personnel at the site will consist of six officers and 88 enlisted personnel, with an average of 35 per cent of the personnel married men. They and their families will probably make their residence in Palatine, Arlington Heights, or Mount Prospect.

From The Police Blotter...

Halloween pranks were at a minimum over the weekend, but one group of teen-age boys found out the hard way it didn't pay to throw eggs at houses in Arlington Heights. Apprehended by Patrolmen Irvin McDougall and Tom Ullock of the Arlington police department, they were made to report at the station Monday afternoon. From there the three lads, with their three little buckets, went to the two homes they peppered with eggs and proceeded to clean off the windows, screens and brick. It was mighty cold and the egg was frozen hard, but they stayed on the job until the owners were satisfied with the clean up job. One lad remarked, "I never want to see an egg again!" when he was finished.

Nick Wichtner escaped serious injuries last week when he was struck by an auto driven by William H. Linnemann, 709 N. Vail, while crossing Northwest hwy., at State rd. Linnemann told police he was driving south on State rd. and stopped for the light. When it changed to green he started to make a left turn but had to wait for oncoming traffic to clear. He then proceeded to make the turn and struck Wichtner, whom he did not see. Wichtner was taken to Dr. H. O. Meisenheimer, who treated him for a bruised right arm and right knee.

Leslie A. Nicholas Jr., Barrington, also escaped serious injuries, when he fell asleep early Tuesday morning while driving his car west on the Northwest hwy., in Arlington Heights. The car traveled 240 feet after leaving the highway, striking a telephone poll, breaking it off at the bottom. The only known injury was bruises on his legs.

Seventeen traffic cases were heard in court Monday night, with a total of $268 in fines collected. Violations included speeding, reckless driving, unnecessary noise, no driver's license, third lane passing, and driving under the influence of liquor.

American Education Week November 7-13

Arlington Area Educators' Council, made up of 320 teachers and administrators in Wheeling and Elk Grove township, in discussing "American Education Week," stressed the fact this is a good time for parent visitations to classrooms.

It was pointed out that many parents never visit the schools because they never receive an invitation, but "American Education Week," November 7-13, provides all parents with a blanket invitation to schools all over the country.

With more than 20 public and parochial elementary schools in Wheeling and Elk Grove townships feeding into the Arlington high school, one can realize the vast job which is in the hands of these educators and administrators. For a chance to see these men and women in action, parents and friends are urged to visit the schools at least one day during American Education Week. It will give them a first hand opportunity to see the facilities, note some of the problems and see the advantages of modern education.

Halloween Parties

Halloween came to Arlington Heights over the weekend and children and adults alike dressed up to greet the annual event. Among the parties held during the weekend was one given Friday by Ann Carlisle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carlisle, and Karen Vork, daughter of the John Vorks, at the latter's home, 415 Yale. Ten guests, all eighth grade classmates at the junior high, enjoyed the games, dancing and refreshmetns from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Steven Conley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde M. Conley, entertained Thursday with a masquerade from 3 to 5 p.m. at his home, 506 W. Wing st., for a morning kindergarten class of the New South school. His teacher, Miss Mary Coughlin, and 20 friends were present.

Meredith and Alice Grisell, daughters of the Thomas O. Grisells, held a costume Halloween party for neighborhood children Saturday from 7:30 to 9 p.m. t their home. Among their guests were Julie and Johnny Kehe, Kathy and Dick Ligon, Craig Haase, Karen Williams, Jimmy Austin, Nan Geiseke, Joan and George Wilcox, Debbie and Marcie Alden and Terry Larson of Prospect Heights.

Other Masquerade Parties

Dawn Davis, daughter of the W. E. Davises, was hostess to 25 of her school friends at a Halloween party at her home Friday from 7:30 to 11 p.m. Games, dancing and a buffet supper completed the evening's entertainment.

The Walter Hahnfeldts held a Halloween celebration in the rumpus room of their home Saturday from 8 to 12 p.m. for 24 of their friends and their families.

Charlotte Wiggins, daughter of the Harold Wigginses, entertained Friday at 6 p.m. with a Halloween masquerade supper party for six of her neighborhood friends. Among her guests were JoAnn Hood, Leslie Kellogg, Betty Koffler, Marcia Mueller, Carolyn and Sharon Smith.

Junior high youngsters of St. John Episcopal church, Mount Prospect enjoyed a masquerade party Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the church building. Fifty children were invited for an evening of games and refreshments.

Conventions—Meetings

Mrs. Howard Lips, girl scout leader, Mrs. Harvey E. Shumaker, neighborhood chairman, and Mrs. M. Edward Smith, training chairman, attended the 3-day region 7 convention of the girl scouts at the Baptist convention grounds, Green Lake, Wis., Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Seven hundred leaders from the Chicago area and several surrounding states attended the meeting, as well as a number of exchange scouts from foreign countries.

Faith Ladies' annual bazaar will be held November 17 in the parish hall of Faith Lutheran church. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. and all items will go on sale at 1:30 p.m. Among the homemade bazaar items will be bakery goods, baby gifts, Christmas gifts and many others.

Howard Froyd flew to Buena Park, Cal., for a week of business meetings and will return home Saturday.

Moving Into Arlington

Mr. and Mrs. George Peters, formerly of Wilke rd., last week moved into their new home at 1103 Burgoyne rd., Sherwood. Mrs. Peters' mother, Mrs. Edward Franz, formerly of Chicago, who with her daughter is owner of the Terri-Lee specialty shop, will also move into a new home this week at 1111 Burgoyne rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Conner and sons, Terrence and Timmy of Chicago, are also becoming new Arlintgon Heights residents this week, for they will soon be at home at 1117 Burgoyne rd. Mrs. Conner is the sister of Mrs. George Peters.

Visit Out of Town

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peter and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Niemeyer spent last weekend visiting in Milwaukee at the home of Mrs. Peter's cousin and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lichtenberger.

Mrs. Barrett Rogers returned recently from a 10-day trip to Cincinnati to visit at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Rogers and their son, Larry.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Alden were in Milwaukee during the weekend for the wedding Saturday of Miss Gail Anderson and Paul Weinert. While there they were houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Svenson.

Mrs. John G. Thompson returned Thursday from a week's visit in the east, and was a guest of Dr. and Mrs. James Sanford of Bath, N. Y., the Thompsons' former home city. In Boston, Mrs. Thompson visited her husband, whose business connections are now in Massachusetts, and they spent several days hunting a new home.

On her return from Boston, Mrs. Thompson and her son, Barton, left Friday for Columbia, Mo., to visit Barton's sister, Nancy, who is in her senior year at Stephens college.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kurtz and sons, Kerry and Kent, visited Saturday in Davis, Ill., at the home of Mr. Kurtz' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Kurtz.

Miscellaneous Parties

Mrs. Jesse Johnson was surprised by some of her friends Wednesday morning with a birthday "coffee" at her home. A gift was given to Mrs. Johnson by the group.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Willy were guests for dinner Saturday evening at the Downers Grove home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanders.

The Fred R. Martins were hosts Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dalby of Highland, Ind. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dalby were classmates of Fred Martin at the University of Michigan.

Visit in Arlington

Miss Katharine Kealey of the Presbyterian home, Evanston, visited in Arlington Heights for four days last week at the home of Mrs. Irene McNeil. Miss Kealey, before entering the home a year and a half ago, had been a local resident for many years.

Announce Cast For 'The Male Animal' To Be Given November 19-20

Members of the Village Theatre of Arlington Heights have been working hard on their fall show, "The Male Animal," to be given November 19 and 20 at the Junior high school. The production is being sponsored by the Parent-Teachers association and is the main money making project of the year for that organization.

The three act comedy was written by James Thurber and Elliott Nugent. It centers around the life of Professor Tommy Turner in a mid-western university town, who is quietly settled in a nice comfortable teaching job. But this is the week-end of a big football game and Joe Ferguson, who was the greatest football hero the college ever had, comes to town, and of course, sees Ellen, the professor's wife, to whom he used to be sort of unofficially engaged.

In addition to this slight upset in Professor Turner's life, he is brought into an academic controversy when Michael Barnes, a young college intellectual, writes an article for the literary magazine in which he calls the board of trustees "fascists!" Turner, because he wants to read a letter to his composition class written by Vanzetti is about to have to join the ranks of the martyrs who got fired because the trustees are shouting "Red!" so loud they can't hear an idea tinkle. To learn the outcome of this situation plan to see "The Male Animal." Tickets are now on sale by the PTA.

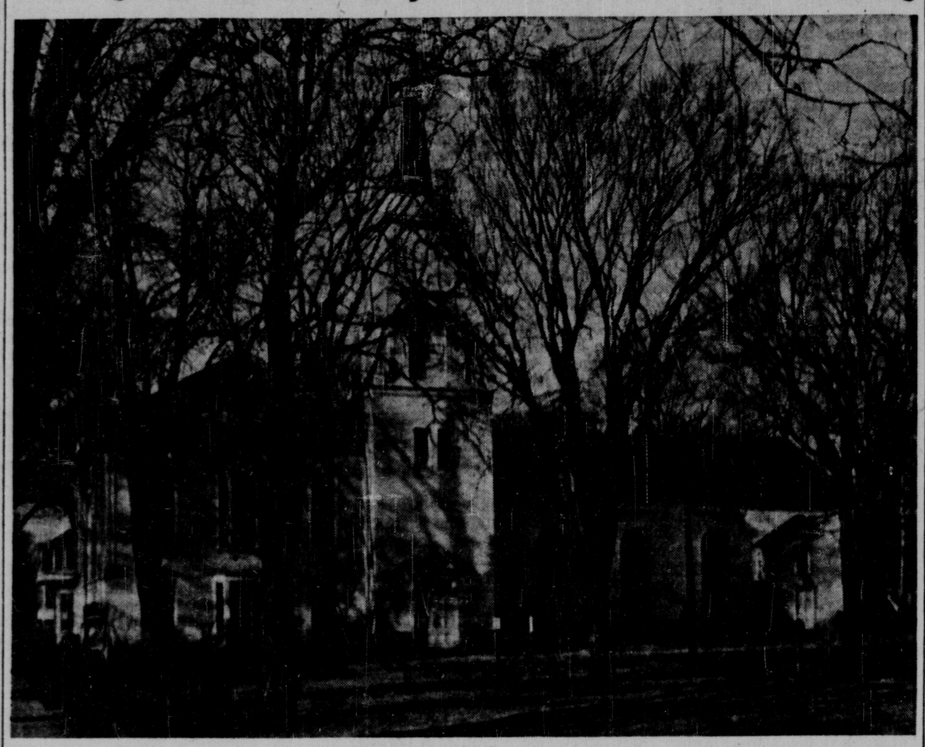
Arlington Heights Evangelical Free Church to Hold Sunday Evening Services in Newly Purchased Methodist Building



Evangelical Free Church, Arlington Heights, will begin holding regular services in their new church, which they have purchased from the Methodists. They will hold services Sunday evenings until the Methodists, who are building a new church are able to move.

The Arlington Heights Evangelical Free Church today announced its purchase of the buildings and property of the First Methodist Church of Arlington Heights for $85,000.

As part of the purchase agreement, and until the Methodist Church is ready for occupancy, the Free Church will have the use of its newly-purchased structure for Sunday evening services and certain week day meetings. However, until full occupancy is possible, Sunday school and morning worship services of the Evangelical Free Church will continue to be held in the North School.

The property, located at Dunton and St. James, consists of the main sanctuary, Christian education building, and parsonage. The sanctuary, built in 1929, seats 350 and is of brick and frame construction. The Christian education building houses a nursery, lounge, Sunday school rooms, kitchen facilities and a combination auditorium and gymnasium. The seven-room parsonage has recently been remodeled and, like the other buildings, is in excellent condition.

Free Church Pastor Charles G. Will, in announcing the purchase, said, "This new plant will greatly increase the effectiveness of our ministry here in Arlington Heights. It will enable us to continue to grow and to proclaim with new vigor the unsearchable riches of Christ."

The property became available for purchase as a result of the recently announced decision of the Methodist church to build a new structure, which will be completed late in 1955.

The Arlington Heights Evangelical Free Church, formed two years ago, has been meeting in the auditorium of the North school, 410 State road. (AP

League Of Women Voters Organized In Arlington

Arlington Heights will have a local League of Women Voters this fall, according to a discussion made at a meeting held in the field house at Recreation Park Wednesday evening of last week.

Mrs. S. Fredric Marks, 520 S. Mitchell, was chosen temporary chairman of the League, and will direct the organizational activities until permanent officers and directors can be selected.

The League of Women Voters is organized on the national, state and local level, with 126,000 members in 959 local Leagues throughout the country. Its purpose is to promote political responsibility by means of informed, active participation in government.

Although it is non-partisan, the League works the year around publishing information on political issues, and helping prepare themselves, and the public, to use their vote effectively. It has educated millions of people in the fundamentals of citizenship and the mechanics of voting.

Following are the temporary officers and committees:

Treasurer: Mrs. C. L. Emerick, Arlington Heights.

Nominating committee: Mrs. Whitney Jensen, Arlington Heights, chairman; Mrs. J. W. Shannon, Mrs. Gerald Chapman, Arlington Heights; Mrs. M. A. Law Jr., Prospect Heights; Mrs. Julian N. Pelletier, Mount Prospect.

Agenda committee: Mrs. W. A. Lewis, Mount Prospect, chairman; Mrs. John R. Hoppe, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mount Prospect.

Membership and publicity commitee: Mrs. Nicholas R. Shuman, Arlington Heights, chairman; Mrs. Richard McClaughry, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Paul Green and Mrs. M. A. Law Jr., both of Prospect Heights.

By-Laws committee: Mrs. Leo Rodell, Arlington Heights, chairman; Mrs. Edwin J. Roble and Mrs. Donald H. Shaw, both of Arlington Heights.

The date of the League's next meeting, later in the month, has not yet been set, but will be announced in the Herald. All women in this area who are interested in joining the League or would like more information may contact Mrs. Marks at Clearbrook 3-3410.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Sharon Smith, who, along with her partner, Lois Coert, took second place honors in the recent window painting contest. The girls' picture appeared on the window of the Lorraine-Anne Shop.

Francine and Joseph, twin daughter and son of the Joe Schnellers, celebrated their Halloween birthday October 30 with a party for playmates. Those who enjoyed the Halloween games and favors were: Barbara and Walter Berglind, Kraig and Kevin Klopfenstein, Billy and Tommy Rush, Diane Fill, Joyce Anderson, Larry Nuernberger, and Paulette Herdigan of Chicago. Sunday the twins' relatives were on hand to help celebrate their fifth birthday.

Neighbors of the Jack Hull family were sorry to see them move last week, but they are only a stone's throw away, so to speak, as their new home is in Mount Prospect.

Halloween Party

Jennifer Snelten of N. Brighton entertained the "Happy Six" club at a Halloween party Friday after school. The girls enjoyed bobbing for apples and other games and refreshments. Mrs. James Smith helped some of her neighbor children warm up Saturday evening by having them in after their round of tricks or treats for hot cocoa and "goodies." The children also enjoyed playing a few games.

Hostess

Otcober 27, Mrs. Leonard Radosti was hostess to members of Circle 6 of the First Presbyterian church. Twenty-four women attended the meeting at which table decorations were carried out in the Halloween motif.

Anniversaries

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. William Kasper, who celebrated their fourteenth wedding anniversary November 2.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burris also received our congratulations as they celebrated their thirteenth wedding anniversary last week.

Last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson entertained a distinct visitor from Santiago, Chili. He is David Atlee Philip, brother-in-law of Mrs. Thompson. Mr. Philip, who has the only American newspaper in Santiago, is on a lecture tour of the United States. The Thompsons entertained him at dinner in the Pump room last Saturday evening.

Before signing off, we would like to remind you folks about the dance at the Sportsman's country club November 13. Not too much time remains for making baby sitting arrangements, so our advice is to do it now. We guarantee a wonderful evening of dancing and fun with your congenial neighbors. Get your tickets now and avoid a last minute disappointment.

St. James Men Prepare For Thanksgiving Party

Men of St. James Holy Name society, Arlington Heights, are staging a Thanksgiving parish party for the benefit of the new school. All members and friends of the parish are invited to be on hand in the school auditorium for dancing, games and entertainment November 20. Refreshments will be served.

Toy Fair To Be Held At Methodist Church

"Come to the Toy Fair" is the invitation extended by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Arlington Heights Methodist church to all those interested in new toys of the entertaining, durable and constructive type.

Tuesday, November 16, from 1:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., in Fellowship hall of the church, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marsh, proprietors of the Village Store, will display a multitude of toys from their store and will be ready to receive orders from interested customers. Profits received from the sale of these toys will benefit the sponsoring organization.

Children accompanied by parents are urged to attend and indicate their choices from the wide assortment especially selected for the toy fair. Demonstrations of the latest in toys for all ages will be at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. on that day. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh can give much information concerning the suitability of the toys for given ages.

Candles for holiday decorations will also be sold.

Among those assisting with the fair will be Mrs. James Bliss, Mrs. Erwin Rahn, Mrs. Francis Palmatier and Mrs. Fred Hohm.

RUTH VAN DEUSEN

A new Baird & Warner real estate office in Arlington Heights has been announced by Stewart B. Matthews, vice president and general sales manager of the century old firm.

Located at 11 S. State rd., Baird & Warner has taken over Ruth C. Van Deusen's real estate office, it being the fifteenth Baird & Warner office now operating in the Chicago metropolitan area, with Mrs. Van Deusen's retention as its district sales manager.

Her initial entry into the business world began with Douglas Aircraft followed by Mrs. Van Deusen becoming an antique dealer in Arlington Heights and her association with Smith & Dawson and H. M. Cornell, realtors, of Prospect Heights and Arlington Heights, respectively. In 1952, Mrs. Van Deusen opened her own real estate office at this location.

The office is further staffed with Harold Culver, and Muriel Maitland, who have been transferred from Baird & Warner's Park Ridge office.

The site of this office is an old landmark, being the former home of Henry Meyer, built in 1891 and was then the largest home in Arlington Heights. It is located one-half block from Northwest Highway and two blocks from the North Western railroad station.

The decor of this office reflects Mrs. Van Deusen's passion for antiques, the setting for the modern furniture being the homey atmosphere of a bygone era—an elegant golf French bevelled mirror, old church pews having their origin in a London cathedral, and quite fittingly with Baird & Warner being at the threshhold of its 100th anniversary, a century-old Ansonia clock.

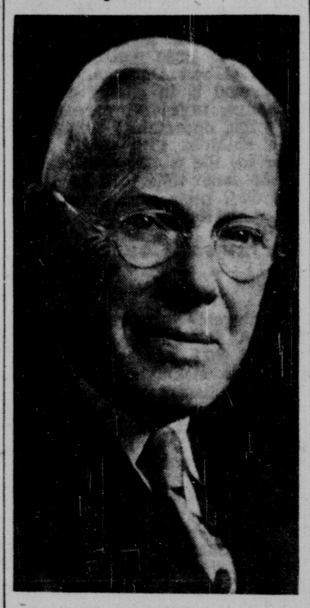
Methodist Church Women To Hear Noted Speaker



The Rev. Edmund D. Soper, D. D.LI.D., former president of Ohio Wesleyan University, former professor at Garrett Bibical seminary and recently a special term missionary to India, will be guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church of Arlington Heights. The luncheon will be held next Tuesday at 12:45 p.m. in Fellowship hall of the church.

Dr. Soper's lecture will deal with the new nationalism in Asia, the menace of Communism, the Christian movement in Asia, Christianity and the religions of the East, the new strategy of missions in Asia and outstanding personalities in the Christian movement in Asia.

A special lecturer at Leonard Theological college, Jubbulpore, India, from 1948 to 1950, Dr. Soper spent the following year as a visiting lecturer in Singapore, Manila and Japan. He travelled widely in India and was pastor of the Kellogg Memorial church in Landour. He is the author of "Religions of Mankind," "Philosophy of the Christian World Mission," "Racism" and "What May I Believe."

Mrs. Don Stockdale, president of the Woman's society and Mrs. James Smith, program chairman, have made arrangements for the meeting. Bluloa circle members and their chairman, Mrs. James Bliss, are planning the luncheon.

THURSDAY, NOV. 4, 1954

'College Night' At Arlington High

More than 80 colleges, universities, trade schools, commercial schools, nursing schools, and professional schools will send representatives to the annual college night at Arlington Heights high school this evening, Thursday.

These representatives will be in the gymnasium and cafeteria at 7 p.m. and will remain until 9 p.m.

Juniors and seniors and their parents are especially urged to consult the representatives of schools in which they are interested. Underclassmen and their parents are also welcome, as they will have an opportunity to set up a proper high school program for entrance into college in 1957 and 1958.

In preparation for this program junior and senior English classes have discussed common problems of college students and of matriculation. The "Cardinal," student newspaper has also published a special college night issue.

Study Group To Hear Foreign Student

MRS. CARL H. EWERT

Mrs. Carl H. Ewert, chairman of the international relations study group, of the Arlington Heights Woman's club, and her committee, have arranged six educational as well as entertaining programs for the season. They have made arrangements with foreign students from Greece, Germany, Honduras, Panama, and Finland to tell of life in their various lands.

The group will meet November 8, at 1 p.m., at the home of Mrs. H. Lee Watson, 603 E. Euclid, for a program on "Germany". Gunther Morgenstern, an exchange student at Northwestern university, will tell the group of life and conditions in Germany.

Mr. Morgenstern, is 31 years old, and has a master's degree in American Civilization and Culture from the University of Erlanger in Bavaria. When he returns to Germany, he will continue toward his Ph. D. in that field. He was a soldier in World War II, and a Russian prisoner after the close of the war. In 1950 his parents fled from East Germany to West Germany. He was also in radio and newspaper work while in Germany. In 1953 he spent two months at Yale university, and is now working on his doctors dissertation in journalism while at Northwestern.

Those planning to attend are asked to telephone the cohostesses Mrs. B. A. Noyes or Mrs. Charles Stadelman. The program will start at 1 p.m. as Mr. Morgenstern must return to Northwestern for class by 3 p.m.

In January, Klaus Timmerman will speak to the group on Greece.

'Combat Communism By Selling Democracy,' Says Former FBI Agent

"We cannot lick Communism by legislation; we must combat the communist ideology by selling Democracy."

This is one of the major ideas presented by Charles Perrin, former FBI agent, in a recent address before the Social Science club of Arlington Heights high school.

In his address, Perrin traced the history and development of the communist party in Russia as well as in America, and told of its present efforts to combat these activities.

About 50 members of the club attended the meeting.

Student Teachers At Arlington High

Arlington Heights township high school is among approximately 140 schools of the state selected as student training centers by the University of Illinois college of education for the current semester.

Under the University's "professional semester" for prospective teachers, the following students are spending six weeks—November 8 to December 17—in full-time teaching: Carol Petefish, E. Hazel Dell; Beatrice Rosenberg, 1834 15th street, Moline and Jane Woelfersheim, 509 W. Healey st., Champaign.

Cooperating teachers under whom the student teachers will work are: Edward Fischer and Hazel Faulkner, art and commerce.

This Week with PTA

Send Your Boots Today

Today and tomorrow are the days set aside for receiving children's outgrown boots, rubbers, ice skates and roller skates for the annual exchange of these items. The footwear will go on sale Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, in the junior high gymnasium, and purchasers are welcome to try on anything they wish to buy to insure themselves a good fit. The 20 per cent of the purchase price which is retained by the PTA will go into the treasury, and the rest of the money received from the sale will be returned to the contributors, between 12 o'clock and 2 p.m. only, at the gymnasium Saturday.

Items offered for sale should be marked with the owner's name and the price desired, and should be brought to the individual schools according to the following schedule: Dryden and North schools, 9 to 9:30 a.m., 1 to 1:30 p.m.; Ridge and New South schools, 8 to 8:30 a.m., 12:30 to 1 p.m.; Junior high, 8 to 8:30 a.m., 12 to 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Albert Dunham, (CL 3-5663) who is in charge of the exchange, urges all parents to seize this opportunity to provide their children with sturdy footwear for the winter months, and at the same time turn good but outgrown boots and skates into profitable items.

Get Your Tickets Early!

No one should miss seeing the Village Theatre production, "The Male Animal," the hilarious yet thoughtful and timely tale of a meek-seeming professor who revolts against what he considers a violation of his academic privileges and liberty. Written by James Thurber and Elliott Nugent, this witty and engaging play, which was such a tremendous success on Broadway, will be presented by the talented members of our own Village Theatre group at 8:30 Friday and Saturday evenings, November 19 and 20, at the junior high school gymnasium. Past performance promises that this will be one of the outstanding events of the year in Arlington Heights. Room mothers will handle ticket sales, but if you have no child of grade school age, call Mrs. Allen Jones at CL 3-1372, and arrange to get yours.

Northwest Council Meets Today

Northwest Suburban Council of PTA meets today from 9:15 a.m. to 2:15 p.m., at the First Congregational church, Graceland and Marion sts., Des Plaines. Addressing the morning session, Mrs. Harold R. Williams, a past president of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, will speak on "PTA Policies, Procedures and Objectives." Speaker for the afternoon will be Mrs. Harold Cole, parent education chairman for District 21, whose subject is "Looking Ahead in Parent Education.

With the years of experience these speakers have had in their fields, it is anticipated that the meeting today will be unusually informative and interesting. Any member of PTA is invited to attend, and is assured of receiving a clear picture of the workings of the organization from two outstanding authorities.

Pre-School Census Set For Week of Nov. 15

The week beginning November 15 has been selected for the house-to-house canvass of homes in the Arlington Heights school district, for the purpose of determining how many children now of pre-school age may be expected to enroll within the next few years. These volunteer members of the PTA will fill out a card for each pre-school child, and note thereon if the child will be attending a parochial school or a public school. The information received on prospective Lutheran and Catholic school enrollment will be made available to their school officials, so that this census will benefit the entire community and facilitate planning the educational needs of the future.

Since a number of persons have expressed interest in a study group for parents of pre-school children, the census will serve as an index to the number of parents who might be interested in such a group, and will also be of great help to members of the Health and Summer Roundup Committee who canvass homes before the opening of the fall term, and distribute information concerning enrollment for children who are about to enter kindergarten.

A representative from each of the four grade schools has been asked to take charge of the canvassing in her area, and to recruit workers for the task. Those in charge of these areas are: Mrs. Robert van Ee, New South school; Mrs. William Ferry, Dryden school; Mrs. Victor Bedingfield, North school; and Mrs. Lyle Ewing Jr., Ridge school.

Christmas Bazaar At Faith Church Nov. 17

Women of Faith Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, will hold their annual Christmas bazaar November 17 at the parish hall, 431 S. State road.

The bazaar will feature items for Christmas shoppers with booths operated by the following: Mrs. Frazier, aprons; Mrs. Manz, bakery; Mrs. Schaeffer, baby booth; Mrs. Michaels, candy; Mrs. Hornbostel, fancy goods; Mrs. Dieball, gifts; Mrs. Schulenburg, adult grab bag; Mrs. W. Granzin, children's grab bag; Mrs. Mueller, rugs and Mrs. Koenig, toys. Mrs. E. Stoebig, chairman of the bazaar, announces that luncheon will be served beginning at 12:30 p.m. and the bazaar at 1:30 p.m.

Donations of handmade fancy goods, gift items, baby clothes or homemade candy and bakery goods will be greatly appreciated. Bakery goods should be brought to the church hall by noon of the day of the sale.

Arlington Heights OES To Elect Officers

Annual election of officers will be held when members of Arlington Heights OES chapter 992 meet November 11.

Last meeting of the chapter was held October 28. Degrees were conferred and annual donations were made to charitable institutions. The worthy grand matron appointed Mrs. Magdalena Nuss on the special eligibility, Albert Roderick, special arrangements and Mrs. Myrtle Frey, youth progress committees of the grand chapter of the OES of Illinois. Congratulations were extended from the chapter.

A Halloween party was enjoyed by members at the close of the meeting. The party was given by the worthy matron, Mrs. Nuss, and worthy patron, Mr. Roderick. Refreshments were served by the committee.

Christmas Bazaar At St. Peter Church Nov. 11

A home-made chop suey luncheon will open the annual Christmas bazaar of the Dorcas aid of St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, November 11. The luncheon and sale will be held in St. Peter activity building. Co-sponsors of the sale will be the Ladies aid of the church.

President of the Dorcas aid, Mrs. Herman Schwolow and Mrs. Albert Kehe, president of the Ladies aid, have planned to supply demands of Christmas shoppers. In charge of the booths are: Mrs. Floyd Burns, handmade rugs; Mrs. Henry Moehling, embroidered pillow cases and fancy linens; Mrs. Ed Grewe, aprons; Mrs. William Behn, handkerchiefs and "knick knacks"; Mrs. Werner Bohelmann, towels; and Mrs. Elroy Winkelmann, bakery goods.

As in the past, the Ladies aid will display handmade quilts. St. Peter ladies meet every two weeks to work on heirloom quilts.

All in the community are invited to attend.

Change Date Of High School Board Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Arlington Heights high school board, which is held the second Monday of each month, will be held Tuesday, November 9, instead, due to another meeting on November 8, when the board will meet with the citizen's lay committee.

The meeting on Tuesday will be held in the library conference room, and will begin at 8 p.m.

Millays Sell Store

Millay's Ice Cream Store, W. Davis, Arlington Heights, has been sold to Paul and Christine Kindler, who took over the store November 1. It will be known as Kindler's Ice Cream Shop.

James Millay and his wife, who have operated the store for eight years, regret having to sell out, but found the seven days a week schedule a little rough going and had to take time out for a rest. They wish to thank all their customers for their past patronage and to tell them that the new owners are looking forward to serving them in the future.

Several Injured In Auto Accidents

Robert Grandt, 18, and Arlyne Grandt, 14, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Grandt, were injured on Wednesday of last week when the car in which they were riding collided with an Omar Bakery Truck on the corner of Hintz and Wolf Roads. Robert was driving his sister to high school when the accident occurred.

Both were taken to the St. Francis hospital where it was found that Arlyne had a fractured jaw and skull fracture and both had deep cuts and bruises about the face and neck. Both Arlyne and Robert have since returned home.

Early Friday morning James Flannery and Carol Quaiver, both of Chicago, received cuts and bruises and were taken to St. Francis hospital after the car in which they were riding struck a tree on Milwaukee ave., Wheeling, across from Borchardt's restaurant. Flannery, who was driving, told Wheeling police that he must have fallen asleep when the accident occurred. The car, which was traveling north, cut across both southbound lanes before striking the tree.

Wheeling Fire department was called out Friday afternoon for a chimney fire in Horatio Gardens. No serious damage was reported.

Apprehend Boys For Breaking Windows

Two teen-age Arlington Hts. boys will appear before Judge Gould this week to answer charges of breaking three plate glass store windows in Mount Prospect with sling-shots.

Local police have asked the stores not to sell the dangerous weapons.

Two of the broken windows were at Busse Motor Sales and the third at Wille's tavern.

A window in the Ben Franklin store was broken when an auto ran over a pop bottle lying in the street and the heavy bottom section flew through the window.

Obituaries

Mrs. Kathleen Grant

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. John M. Grant, 34, nee Kathleen Maxwell, in Tampa, Fla., August 28.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Maxwell, former Palatine residents, Mrs. Grant attended Wittenberg school and was a dance pupil of Peggy Page. She danced professionally for eight years in Chicago night clubs including the Chez Paree where she was one of the famous Chez Paree Adorables, the Boulevard room of the Stevens hotel, the State-Lake theatre and the Oriental theatre. She married Johnny Grant who later joined the navy, then the air force and who is now stationed at MacDill air force base, Tampa.

Besides her husband and her parents, Mrs. Grant is survived by two children, Kathy, 8, and Michael, 8 months.

Mrs. Caroline Wolf

Funeral services for Mrs. Caroline Wolf, late resident of 124 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, were held October 31 at St. Peter Evangilcal Lutheran church with Rev. L. V. Stephan officiating.

Mrs. Wolf died October 28 at St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, at the age of 76. She is survived by four children, Arthur, Bernice, Mrs. Esther Bozee and Mrs. Ruth Buchholz, six grandchildren, two brothers, William and Edward Hinz, three sisters, Emma and Alma Hinz and Mrs. Laura Heidorn, two brothers-in-law, Louis and William Wolf and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Hattie Niebuhr. Her husband, John, and one son preceded her in death.

Mrs. Wolf was born in 1878 in Wheeling township, moving to Arlington Heights shortly after her marriage in 1910.

Interment was in Memory Gardens cemetery. Black's Memorial home was in charge of funeral arrangements.

George F. Metzger

Funeral services for George F. Metzger were held November 2 at 3 p.m. at Oehler chapel in Des Plaines with reader Forest Struble officiating.

Mr. Metzger died suddenly October 30 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lorraine Dobbratz, Edward rd., Mount Prospect.

Mr. Metzger was born March 22, 1897 in Des Plaines and was an employee of Lord and Burnham. In 1921 he married Ellen H. Kilbinger who survives him. Besides Mrs. Dobbratz, he is survived by two other daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Lapotka of Kenosha, Wis., and Mrs. Joyce Czerwinski of Des Plaines, a grandson, a brother, Charles, of Chicago and a sister, Mrs. Minnie Lafayette, also of Chicago.

Interment, Ridgewood cemetery.

Paul Rateike

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Immanuel Lutheran church, Palatine, for Paul Rateike of Roselle rd., Palatine, who died Sunday from a heart attack. Interment was in St. John cemetery, West Northfield.

Deceased leaves his wife, two sons, George, who resided at home, and Paul of Palatine; four daughters, Mrs. Elmer Schuler, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Walter Schuler, Park Ridge; Mrs. Harold Benherdt, Roselle; Mrs. Norman Pfortmiller, Roselle; 24 grandchildren; a brother, Ferdinand, Mount Prospect; four sisters, Mrs. William Mulso, Mount Prospect; Mrs. Rudolph Dams, Olympia, Wash.; Mrs. Rudolph Kruse, Mount Prospect, and Mrs. William Koeppen, Wheeling.

Mr. Rateike was born Feb. 17, 1885, in Wheeling township. He married Miss Anna Koeppen Oct. 21, 1911. He had been engaged in farming all of his life. He moved to Palatine township in 1939.

When it comes to Protection ...it pays to have the BEST

Adequate rain gear can keep you from getting soaked — but it's no good unless you have it with you when the heavens open.

Dependable insurance is like that, too. It's one thing you can't get when you need it most. After an accident or loss has occurred, it's too late to buy better insurance if the policy you have proves unsatisfactory.

So don't gamble with "cheap" insurance. Buy only the BEST — and buy it today.

This Week with PTA

Send Your Boots Today

Today and tomorrow are the days set aside for receiving children's outgrown boots, rubbers, ice skates and roller skates for the annual exchange of these items. The footwear will go on sale Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, in the junior high gymnasium, and purchasers are welcome to try on anything they wish to buy to insure themselves a good fit. The 20 per cent of the purchase price which is retained by the PTA will go into the treasury, and the rest of the money received from the sale will be returned to the contributors, between 12 o'clock and 2 p.m. only, at the gymnasium Saturday.

Items offered for sale should be marked with the owner's name and the price desired, and should be brought to the individual schools according to the following schedule: Dryden and North schools, 9 to 9:30 a.m., 1 to 1:30 p.m.; Ridge and New South schools, 8 to 8:30 a.m., 12:30 to 1 p.m.; Junior high, 8 to 8:30 a.m., 12 to 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Albert Dunham, (CL 3-5663) who is in charge of the exchange, urges all parents to seize this opportunity to provide their children with sturdy footwear for the winter months, and at the same time turn good but outgrown boots and skates into profitable items.

Get Your Tickets Early!

No one should miss seeing the Village Theatre production, "The Male Animal," the hilarious yet thoughtful and timely tale of a meek-seeming professor who revolts against what he considers a violation of his academic privileges and liberty. Written by James Thurber and Elliott Nugent, this witty and engaging play, which was such a tremendous success on Broadway, will be presented by the talented members of our own Village Theatre group at 8:30 Friday and Saturday evenings, November 19 and 20, at the junior high school gymnasium. Past performance promises that this will be one of the outstanding events of the year in Arlington Heights. Room mothers will handle ticket sales, but if you have no child of grade school age, call Mrs. Allen Jones at CL 3-1372, and arrange to get yours.

Mrs. Kathleen Grant

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. John M. Grant, 34, nee Kathleen Maxwell, in Tampa, Fla., August 28.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Maxwell, former Palatine residents, Mrs. Grant attended Wittenberg school and was a dance pupil of Peggy Page. She danced professionally for eight years in Chicago night clubs including the Chez Paree where she was one of the famous Chez Paree Adorables, the Boulevard room of the Stevens hotel, the State-Lake theatre and the Oriental theatre. She married Johnny Grant who later joined the navy, then the air force and who is now stationed at MacDill air force base, Tampa.

Besides her husband and her parents, Mrs. Grant is survived by two children, Kathy, 8, and Michael, 8 months.

Mrs. Caroline Wolf

Funeral services for Mrs. Caroline Wolf, late resident of 124 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, were held October 31 at St. Peter Evangilcal Lutheran church with Rev. L. V. Stephan officiating.

Mrs. Wolf died October 28 at St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, at the age of 76. She is survived by four children, Arthur, Bernice, Mrs. Esther Bozee and Mrs. Ruth Buchholz, six grandchildren, two brothers, William and Edward Hinz, three sisters, Emma and Alma Hinz and Mrs. Laura Heidorn, two brothers-in-law, Louis and William Wolf and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Hattie Niebuhr. Her husband, John, and one son preceded her in death.

Mrs. Wolf was born in 1878 in Wheeling township, moving to Arlington Heights shortly after her marriage in 1910.

Interment was in Memory Gardens cemetery. Black's Memorial home was in charge of funeral arrangements.

George F. Metzger

Funeral services for George F. Metzger were held November 2 at 3 p.m. at Oehler chapel in Des Plaines with reader Forest Struble officiating.

Mr. Metzger died suddenly October 30 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lorraine Dobbratz, Edward rd., Mount Prospect.

Mr. Metzger was born March 22, 1897 in Des Plaines and was an employee of Lord and Burnham. In 1921 he married Ellen H. Kilbinger who survives him. Besides Mrs. Dobbratz, he is survived by two other daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Lapotka of Kenosha, Wis., and Mrs. Joyce Czerwinski of Des Plaines, a grandson, a brother, Charles, of Chicago and a sister, Mrs. Minnie Lafayette, also of Chicago.

Interment, Ridgewood cemetery.

Paul Rateike

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Immanuel Lutheran church, Palatine, for Paul Rateike of Roselle rd., Palatine, who died Sunday from a heart attack. Interment was in St. John cemetery, West Northfield.

Deceased leaves his wife, two sons, George, who resided at home, and Paul of Palatine; four daughters, Mrs. Elmer Schuler, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Walter Schuler, Park Ridge; Mrs. Harold Benherdt, Roselle; Mrs. Norman Pfortmiller, Roselle; 24 grandchildren; a brother, Ferdinand, Mount Prospect; four sisters, Mrs. William Mulso, Mount Prospect; Mrs. Rudolph Dams, Olympia, Wash.; Mrs. Rudolph Kruse, Mount Prospect, and Mrs. William Koeppen, Wheeling.

Mr. Rateike was born Feb. 17, 1885, in Wheeling township. He married Miss Anna Koeppen Oct. 21, 1911. He had been engaged in farming all of his life. He moved to Palatine township in 1939.

When it comes to Protection ...it pays to have the BEST

Adequate rain gear can keep you from getting soaked — but it's no good unless you have it with you when the heavens open.

Dependable insurance is like that, too. It's one thing you can't get when you need it most. After an accident or loss has occurred, it's too late to buy better insurance if the policy you have proves unsatisfactory.

So don't gamble with "cheap" insurance. Buy only the BEST — and buy it today.

Panel Discussion To Highlight Meeting Of YMC's November 5

A panel discussion on the Arlington Heights school system will be featured at the Presbyterian Young Married Couples club meeting November 5.

The meeting will start at 6:45 p.m. with a pot luck supper followed by the 8 p.m. program. A similar panel discussion proved to be one of the highlights of last year's series of meetings. The vital nature of the coming discussion topic guarantees a successful repeat performance, say members of the club.

The discussion will be moderated by Robert Tindall, club program chairman. Panelists will be R. Dennis Malcolmson, principal of Ridge school; Larry Jenness, speech instructor at Arlington Heights high school; Mrs. Larry Jenness, fourth grade teacher at North school and Sterling Ross, member of the Citizens Advisory committee.

For reservations or information, call Mrs. John Hall, Clearbrook 3-4904 or Mrs. Glen Carlson, Clearbrook 3-7766.

Arlington Senior Tuxis To Hold 'Slave Sale'

Senior Tuxis group of Arlington Heights Presbyterian church will sponsor a work-day under the guise of a "slave sale" Saturday morning, November 13, Douglas G. Trout, director of youth has announced. High school young people of the church will be on the auction block at 9 a.m. to be sold for slave labor for the rest of the day. All visitors are welcome to be in the slave market place that morning to bid on the slave of their choice for the chores that they have to be done.

Male and female slaves will be sold to the highest bidder. Male slaves will be able to asssist in the fall switch to storm windows, fall bulb planting, cleaning of basements and garages, and whatever tasks the "slave-owner" has in mind. Female slaves will be on hand to babysit, houseclean, assist in the washing of storm windows or whatever tasks are in store for them.

Proceeds from this sale, where each individual slave will be placed on the auction block inside the church building and sold to the highest bidder, will finance the league membership fees and incidental expenses of the Senior Tuxis basketball team of the church. Gordon Gullicksen is chairman of the slave sale operation, while Bob Burgess is moderator of the Senior Tuxis.

Last year, Senior Tuxis held a similar work day in the fall, but not in connection with a slave sale. It is believed that this is the first slave sale ever held in Arlington Heights, and all who wish to participate in the ancient Egyptian custom are urged to attend.

United Lutheran To Start Mission In Arlington Heights

REV. GEORGE H. HOOG

The Rev. George H. Hoog, mission superintendent of Illinois Synod of the United Lutheran church in America, began work last week to form a congregation of that church in Arlington Heights. To the many United Lutherans now residing in this community who have continued to attend church services in other localities, many as far distant as Chicago, the formation of the Arlington Heights mission fills a long-felt need.

Pastor Hoog, who was ordained by the Illinois Synod in 1952, completed a two-year ministry at Mizpah Lutheran church, St. ouis. During his pastorate there, the attendance at worship services doubled, the Sunday school grew to four times its size, and a marked increase was shown in the stewardship life of the people of the congregation.

Pastor Hoog attended Bethany college at Lindsborg, Kan., and Augustana seminary, Rock Island, before completing his graduate work at Chicago Theological seminary, Maywood. He and Mrs. Hoog and their son, Craig, reside at 1268 Earl ave., Des Plaines.

The United Lutheran church, largest of the Lutheran church bodies in America, has over 2,000,000 members, and is one of the eight constituent bodies of the National Lutheran Council.

Interested persons are asked to watch this newspaper for announcement of the first services, or many make further inquiries by calling Clearbrook 3-6298.

'Holiday Flower Arrangements' Topic For Arlington Women

MRS. MAX HERSHEY

The conservation and garden study group of Arlington Heights Woman's club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Max Hershey, have planned three programs for club members during the coming year.

Harold Busse, of Busse Flowers, Mount Prospect, will give a demonstration on "New Flower Arrangements for the Holiday Season" at 9:30 a.m. November 10 at Arlington Heights field house, for the first meeting. He will show various arrangements for Thanksgiving and Christmas, and will include arrangements using dried flowers.

Members of Mrs. Hershey's committee are Mrs. R. E. Schwertfeger, co-chairman, Mrs. Harry Brumlik, Mrs. Virgil K. Horath, and Mrs. John V. Sunkel. If you plan to attend the meeting, telephone your reservations to one of the committee members by Tuesday.

Nurses' Clubs Hold Joint Meeting In Palatine

In a joint meeting held at Palatine fire hall October 29, Arlington Heights and Palatine Nurses' clubs heard Miss Frances Powell, acting director of nurses at Cook County hospital, speak on nursing legislation enacted in the past few years. Miss Powell, who is also president of the Illinois State Nurses' association, told of new programs for teaching nurses' aides and of the increasing number of nursing schools accepting young men students for nurses' training.

Arlington Heights Nurses' club wishes to remind residents of Arlington Heights of the services of the lending closet maintained by the club. The club loans, without charge, sick room supplies purchased and maintained by the club through its money-making projects. For information concerning the lending closet supplies, call Mrs. S. P. Dykstra at Clearbrook 3-1770 or Mrs. E Schumaker at Clearbrook 3-0474.

Mrs. F. R. Schwanke, president of the club, extends an invitation to all registered nurses residing in Arlington Heights to attend the next meeting at 8 p.m. November 19 at the home of Mrs. John Law, 615 S. Beverley lane. Dr. A. J. Simon, medical director of Herrick House, is to be guest speaker.

Mrs. John Lindstrom To Lead Enrollment Drive

Mrs. John A. Lindstrom, 824 S. Beverley lane, will be among 45 women entertained at a luncheon given by Mrs. Robert F. Carr, Jr., and Mrs. John S. Runnells at the Racquet club today, for the team chairmen whose efforts they will lead in the Chicago Maternity Center's eleventh annual enrollment drive. Mrs. Lindstrom will be captain of the Arlington Heights team.

The drive will open February 3, 1955. Today's luncheon will be preceded by a planning session at which the volunteer team captains from Chicago and some 20 suburbs will discuss plans for the Maternity Center's annual drive to enroll 1,000 new contributions.

Wayside Women Will Sponsor Book Fair

The library and literature committee of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Woman's club is sponsoring a book fair, November 11, 14 and 28. In conjunction wth the book fair, Dan Herr, of the Thomas More Book Talk service, will give a talk on the "Seduction of the Innocent."

Mrs. Robert Bradle, chairman of the library and literature committee, suggests club members solve their Christmas gift shopping problems at the fair. There will be books to suit every taste, and a book is a wonderful gift both for the giver and the receiver.

There will be a variety of different types of books for all ages. In the juvenile section can be found inexpensive material, such as "Little Nuns," "Our Lady Coloring Books," "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer," Among the latest fiction will be found "Our Lady of Fatina," "Life is Worth Living," "Cain," and "Dark Enemy," by Father Edwards.

Mrs. Bradle would like to point out that if a particular book is not shown, orders will be taken with the assurance of delivery in plenty of time for Christmas giving.

Tea hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Erhard N. Reiss. Members are invited to bring guests. A guest fee of 50 cents will be charged.

Jewel Food Stores

6720 LAKEWOOD AVENUE
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Mrs. Roser shops at the Jewel store at 6604 N. Sheridan Rd. The manager is Tex Wilkinson.

Jewel folks know that cleanliness is a "must" when it comes to food. That's why it's an every day habit with Jewel folks to keep your Jewel looking clean and white . . . neat as a pin just the way you want it. . . .

Jewel folks are "busy beavers" too! You often see them scrubbing shelves and check-out counters.

If you haven't visited us, make it a "must" real soon, won't you? Just take a walk down the street or if you don't live within walking distance, get into the family car and drive down. . . . Why not today?

Runnells at the Racquet club today, for the team chairmen whose efforts they will lead in the Chicago Maternity Center's eleventh annual enrollment drive. Mrs. Lindstrom will be captain of the Arlington Heights team.

The drive will open February 3, 1955. Today's luncheon will be preceded by a planning session at which the volunteer team captains from Chicago and some 20 suburbs will discuss plans for the Maternity Center's annual drive to enroll 1,000 new contributions.

Wayside Women Will Sponsor Book Fair

The library and literature committee of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Woman's club is sponsoring a book fair, November 11, 14 and 28. In conjunction wth the book fair, Dan Herr, of the Thomas More Book Talk service, will give a talk on the "Seduction of the Innocent."

Mrs. Robert Bradle, chairman of the library and literature committee, suggests club members solve their Christmas gift shopping problems at the fair. There will be books to suit every taste, and a book is a wonderful gift both for the giver and the receiver.

There will be a variety of different types of books for all ages. In the juvenile section can be found inexpensive material, such as "Little Nuns," "Our Lady Coloring Books," "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer," Among the latest fiction will be found "Our Lady of Fatina," "Life is Worth Living," "Cain," and "Dark Enemy," by Father Edwards.

Mrs. Bradle would like to point out that if a particular book is not shown, orders will be taken with the assurance of delivery in plenty of time for Christmas giving.

Tea hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Erhard N. Reiss. Members are invited to bring guests. A guest fee of 50 cents will be charged.

Jewel Food Stores

6720 LAKEWOOD AVENUE
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Mrs. Roser shops at the Jewel store at 6604 N. Sheridan Rd. The manager is Tex Wilkinson.

Jewel folks know that cleanliness is a "must" when it comes to food. That's why it's an every day habit with Jewel folks to keep your Jewel looking clean and white . . . neat as a pin just the way you want it. . . .

Jewel folks are "busy beavers" too! You often see them scrubbing shelves and check-out counters.

If you haven't visited us, make it a "must" real soon, won't you? Just take a walk down the street or if you don't live within walking distance, get into the family car and drive down. . . . Why not today?

Area Scouts To Hold Paper Drive Saturday

Boy Scouts of Palatine and surrounding township, including Rolling Meadows boys, will spnosor a scrap paper drive Saturday, November 6. Proceeds from this drive will be divided among all troops to purchase needed equipment for camping, handicraft, and other scouting activities.

Anyone who has newspapers or magazines to contribute to this drive, is asked to please place bundles on the curb in front of the house before 9 a.m., Saturday, so that they can be picked up by the boys throughout the morning.

It should be pointed out that only newsprint and magazine material can be sold. Therefore, rags, cardboard, and other waste paper cannot be picked up to be marketed. Elimination of these materials from bundles will help the boys find a more ready market and will be greatly appreciated.

Two large trailers will be parked at the Central Collection Depot at the entrance to the park at Chicago ave. and Kerwood st. Paper will be brought to these trailers by pickup trucks, manned by scouts and volunteer adults. Use of several trucks have been donated by public spirited townspeople but more are needed. Adult helpers will be most welcome. Please call Palatine 600 if willing to work.

Collection Centers have been established for residents outside town limits who wish to contribute to this drive. Paper brought to these Centers will be picked up by trucks.

Inverness—Corner of Palatine rd. and Inverway.

North of town—Corner of Quintens rd. and Northwest hwy.

The most appreciated gesture of all will be to bring paper contributions to the main Collection Depot at the park entrance.

Last year many people contributed their time and equipment to help make this paper drive a success. This time even more help is needed since no trucks or drivers will be furnished by the paper dealer. The boys will need trucks and adult help. Most of all, however, they will need newspaper bundles securely tied and on the curb Saturday, November 6th.

These annual drives do much to help the boys and their troops to be more self-sustaining and to permit an expansion of activities by scout leaders and ever increasing benefits and values for the boys.

Mrs. H. G. Mackintosh Voted New Head of Girl Scouts, NW Cook County

A new president, other officers, members of the board of directors and membership nominating committee were elected at the annual meeting of the Girl Scout council of Northwest Cook county held at the Arlington Heights high school last Monday evening. Mrs. David Zimmerman, retiring president, presided over the meeting.

Mrs. H. G. Mackintosh, who has served as first vice-president of the council, was elected to the presidency. Mrs. W. O. Leitherer, Skokie, became first vice-president by election. She has been the third vice-president. Mrs. Bruce Corbett, Prospect Heights, now public relations chairman, will assume the duties of third vice-president in January and Mrs. S. Disbrow was re-elected as secretary.

Elected as the board of directors were: Mrs. E. W. Busch, Palatine; Robert Calahan, Park Ridge; Mrs. R. H. Dietrich, Prospect Heights; Mrs. Wynn Howard, Des Plaines; Mrs. W. H. Lannert, Skokie; Mrs. Ossie McDonald, Prospect Heights; Mrs. I. G. Sinnott, Park Ridge; and Mrs. Wendell Walker, Des Plaines.

From the double slate presented by the nominating committee headed by Mrs. Kenneth Holmes the following were elected from each district: Mrs. A. Budicin, Morton Grove, District I; Mrs. F. C. Ulrich, Rand rd., Des Plaines, District II; Mrs. John Gillespie, Des Plaines, District III; Mrs. William Trude, Arlington Heights, District IV.

After the 1954-55 plan of work and budget were explained by a panel and questions were answered by the members, the 1955 plan and the budget were unanimously adopted. Panel members were: Mrs. Franz Koehler, Des Plaines, member troop organization committee; Mrs. Edward Smith, Arlington Heights, acting chairman training committee; Mrs. Wynn Howard, Des Plaines, camping committee chairman; Mrs. Bruce Corbett, Prospect Heights, public relations chairman; Mrs. H. L. Wellbank, Park Ridge, member staff and office committee; Mrs. C. A. Perlin, Park Ridge, member of the membership-nominating committee; Mrs. L. P. Schulz, program committee. Mrs. W. W. Osburn, executive director of the council, Mrs. Mackintosh, and Mrs. Leitherer also assisted in explanation and answering questions.

The total council budget passed was $36,796.

Another item of business passed at the meeting was the revision of the neighborhood quorum according to the by-laws.

Troop 95 of Arlington Heights presented and retired the colors. Troop 48 of Des Plaines gave a choral reading.

As if they were reading an extra issue of a newspaper, adult Girl Scouts who had attended the regional conference at Green Lake during last week, gave some of their impressions of the conference or a digest of what they had learned there.

In between some of the procedure, the group was led in singing by Mrs. Osburn. (B4

Financing Of Toll Roads Completed

Financing of the Illinois toll highway system will be co-managed by Glore, Forgan & Co. and Halsey Stuart & Co. Inc., two of the leading investment banking firms in the country and two firms which have been closely tied in with the development of the middle west.

These firms were chosen, according to Evan Howell, chairman of the Illinois State Toll Highway Commission, first of all, because they are among the leading national underwriters in the country. With main offices in Chicago and sales offices and representatives in the other major financial centers, these firms are in the best position to serve the Illinois State Toll Highway Commission. They are aware of the state's day-to-day traffic problems, and since they are so closely tied in with midwestern development theirs will be a continuing interest in the state's toll highway system.

The toll highway system to be built by private funds through the sale of revenue bonds consists of a route skirting Chicago from the Indiana border to the Wisconsin line, a route in a northwesterly direction to Wisconsin via Rockford, an East-West route toward the cities of Rock Island-Moline and a thruway connecting East St. Louis with Indiana near Terre Haute.

Home Site Trees Can Be Saved From Accidents

Many thousands of such trees are fatally injured each year, mainly because builders and their workmen fail to take simple, precautionary steps.

Martin L. Davey Jr., who heads the Davey Tree Expert Co., says the new home owners should insist upon a contract guarantee by the builder to place substantial wooden barriers around valuable trees before construction starts. Each barrier should extend far enough to protect buttress roots, as well as trunk. A beautifully wooded lot might require the fencing off of entire areas.

Only such safeguards will protect trees against the many commonplace accidents associated with building operations. Most of the damage is caused by bulldozers, trucks and heavy machinery. Chemical injury also takes its toll when plaster, tar and paints are mixed and spilled over tree roots. Less obvious, but equally as lethal, is the compacting of soil by heavy equipmetn, cutting off supplies of air and moisture to roots.

Still other damage is caused by underground utilities installations. Cutting and digging up of roots can be minimized by the careful location of sewers, water pipes, gas mains and other lines and the tunneling under major roots when necessary.

Bond Sales

Cook county residents purchased a total of $22,925,110 in Series E and H United States savings bonds in the month of September 1954. Sales for the month were up 17% over September of 1953 and sales of H bonds alone in the county were $5,930,500 as compared to sales of $2,741,500 of this series in September last year. Sales in the state of Illinois were $38,087,447, representing 10.1% of all bonds sold in the nation during the month and showing an increase of 16% over sales for September 1953.

Seniors To Present 'Royal Family' November 12-13

"The Royal Family," a comedy in three acts by George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber will be presented by the class of 1955 November 12 and 13, at 8 p.m. in the girls' gymnasium of Arlington Heights high school.

The royalty in "The Royal Family" is of the theatre. The family is the Cavendish family, one of the great theatrical families in America.

Although it is denied by the authors, it is generally accepted that the Cavendish family is modeled after the fabulous Barrymore family.

THE SCENE of the play is the New York apartment of the Cavednishes, and the story covers an interval of a year. The play is a comedy with a good deal of the hustle and bustle and the bright dialogue that characterizes the plays of Kaufman and Ferber. Most of the play concerns the three generations of the Cavendish family. At the end young Aubrey Cavendish Stewart is introduced. A stage debut is planned for the child, though he is only two months old. A new Cavendish has entered the world. A new Cavendish will make his debut on the stage shortly just as Fanny Cavendish leaves the world.

Fanny Cavendish at 70 is planning her tour of the coming season after an illness which has kept her from the theatre. Her daughter, Julia, is at the height of her career as one of the nation's leading actresses when she learns that a former flame of over 19 years ago is to return to New York. Julie almost marries Gil Marshall, but finally realizes that the theatre is her life and that she and Mr. Marshall have less in common than her memories of him would have her believe.

Gwen, Julie's daughter, is about to make her debut with her mother when she decides to leave the stage in favor of marriage and a life outside the theatre with Perry Stewart. Tony Cavendish is the "outlaw" member of the family. He has forsaken Broadway for acting in the movies, but after jaunts over Europe and Asia, he returns to the stage. The aging brother of Fanny is Herbert Dean, who seems always at the point of finding the right play. His wife, Kitty, is an actress who gets a little tired of being looked down on by the "royal family."

OSCAR WOLFE, the manager of the family of actors, seems to be the old standby the family needs when their lives get too hectic. Hectic though it is, however, this is the life they love; even the servants, Della and Jo have grown to like the routine—or lack of routine—in the Cavendish household.

The cast includes Dodo, a monkey, and Linda, a parrot, as well as a baby and two great danes. Members of the senior class in the cast, in the order of their appearance, are:

Della, Marlene Kerschke; Jo, Larry Fischer; Hallboy, Harold Gjoen; McDermott, Dick Palmer; Herbert Dean, Bob Peters; Kitty LeMoyne Dean, Dorothy Balch; Gwen, Patricia Mors; Perry Stewart, Pete Holloway; Fanny Cavendish, Barbara Sheets; Oscar Wolfe, Ray Miller; Julie Cavendish, Dena Klingler; Anthony Cavendish, Laird Williamson; Anthony Hallboy, Walter Mulso; Chauffeur, Jim Hodges; Gilbert Marshall, Russ Igoe; Gunga, Floyd Burns; Miss Peake, Cheryl Sparling.

Financing of the Illinois toll highway system will be co-managed by Glore, Forgan & Co. and Halsey Stuart & Co. Inc., two of the leading investment banking firms in the country and two firms which have been closely tied in with the development of the middle west.

These firms were chosen, according to Evan Howell, chairman of the Illinois State Toll Highway Commission, first of all because they are among the leading national underwriters in the country. With main offices in Chicago and sales offices and representatives in the other major financial centers, these firms are in the best position to serve the Illinois State Toll Highway Commission. They are aware of the state's day-to-day traffic problems, and since they are so closely tied in with midwestern development theirs will be a continuing interest in the state's toll highway system.

The toll highway system to be built by private funds through the sale of revenue bonds consists of a route skirting Chicago from the Indiana border to the Wisconsin line, a route in a northwesterly direction to Wisconsin via Rockford, an East-West route toward the cities of Rock Island-Moline and a thruway connecting East St. Louis with Indiana near Terre Haute.

Many thousands of such trees are fatally injured each year, mainly because builders and their workmen fail to take simple, precautionary steps.

Martin L. Davey Jr., who heads the Davey Tree Expert Co., says the new home owners should insist upon a contract guarantee by the builder to place substantial wooden barriers around valuable trees before construction starts. Each barrier should extend far enough to protect buttress roots, as well as trunk. A beautifully wooded lot might require the fencing off of entire areas.

Only such safeguards will protect trees against the many commonplace accidents associated with building operations. Most of the damage is caused by bulldozers, trucks and heavy machinery. Chemical injury also takes its toll when plaster, tar and paints are mixed and spilled over tree roots. Less obvious, but equally as lethal, is the compacting of soil by heavy equipmetn, cutting off supplies of air and moisture to roots.

Still other damage is caused by underground utilities installations. Cutting and digging up of roots can be minimized by the careful location of sewers, water pipes, gas mains and other lines and the tunneling under major roots when necessary.

Bond Sales

Cook county residents purchased a total of $22,925,110 in Series E and H United States savings bonds in the month of September 1954. Sales for the month were up 17% over September of 1953 and sales of H bonds alone in the county were $5,930,500 as compared to sales of $2,741,500 of this series in September last year. Sales in the state of Illinois were $38,087,447, representing 10.1% of all bonds sold in the nation during the month and showing an increase of 16% over sales for September 1953.

Easy on the Heart

Most victims of "heart attack" (coronary thrombosis) not only survive, but recover to live happy, productive lives.

Seniors To Present 'Royal Family' November 12-13

"The Royal Family," a comedy in three acts by George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber will be presented by the class of 1955 November 12 and 13, at 8 p.m. in the girls' gymnasium of Arlington Heights high school.

The royalty in "The Royal Family" is of the theatre. The family is the Cavendish family, one of the great theatrical families in America.

Although it is denied by the authors, it is generally accepted that the Cavendish family is modeled after the fabulous Barrymore family.

THE SCENE of the play is the New York apartment of the Cavednishes, and the story covers an interval of a year. The play is a comedy with a good deal of the hustle and bustle and the bright dialogue that characterizes the plays of Kaufman and Ferber. Most of the play concerns the three generations of the Cavendish family. At the end young Aubrey Cavendish Stewart is introduced. A stage debut is planned for the child, though he is only two months old. A new Cavendish has entered the world. A new Cavendish will make his debut on the stage shortly just as Fanny Cavendish leaves the world.

Fanny Cavendish at 70 is planning her tour of the coming season after an illness which has kept her from the theatre. Her daughter, Julia, is at the height of her career as one of the nation's leading actresses when she learns that a former flame of over 19 years ago is to return to New York. Julie almost marries Gil Marshall, but finally realizes that the theatre is her life and that she and Mr. Marshall have less in common than her memories of him would have her believe.

Gwen, Julie's daughter, is about to make her debut with her mother when she decides to leave the stage in favor of marriage and a life outside the theatre with Perry Stewart. Tony Cavendish is the "outlaw" member of the family. He has forsaken Broadway for acting in the movies, but after jaunts over Europe and Asia, he returns to the stage. The aging brother of Fanny is Herbert Dean, who seems always at the point of finding the right play. His wife, Kitty, is an actress who gets a little tired of being looked down on by the "royal family."

OSCAR WOLFE, the manager of the family of actors, seems to be the old standby the family needs when their lives get too hectic. Hectic though it is, however, this is the life they love; even the servants, Della and Jo have grown to like the routine—or lack of routine—in the Cavendish household.

The cast includes Dodo, a monkey, and Linda, a parrot, as well as a baby and two great danes. Members of the senior class in the cast, in the order of their appearance, are:

Dolores Rasmussen Weds Richard P. Bracke

In a 5:30 o'clock ceremony October 9, Miss Dolores Rasmussen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Rasmussen, Palatine, and Richard P. Bracke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip G. Bracke, Arlington Heights, repeated marriage vows before Joseph Speciale in Kingdom hall, Des Plaines.

Baskets on either side of the altar were filled with gladioli and white, gold and bronze pom pons. A recording of "The Lord's Prayer" was rendered for the nuptials.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white lace over white satin fashioned with a strapless bodice with matching jacket. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a cap of pastel seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white and yellow pom pons with a center of yellow tea roses.

Mrs. Harold Simons of Palatine, served as the bride's only attendant. Her ballerina length gown was of emerald green crystalette fashioned with a strapless bodice and matching bolero. Her headpiece was of gold leaves and she carried a cascade of white, yellow and bronze pom pons.

Edward Harrison, Palatine, served as the groom's attendant.

Two hundred fifty guests attended the reception held at Firemen's hall, Palatine, after which the newlyweds left on a wedding trip through western and southwestern United States. They are now at home at 151 Williams, Palatine.

The bride a graduate of Palatine high school, is employed in the office of a Palatine attorney, and the groom, a graduate of Schurz high school, is owner of the Palatine Pet shop. He also attended the Armed Forces Extension institute, Northwestern university and Voss Business college.

Marilyn Shreck Is Now Mrs. Vernon Wandersee

(Robert Studio

In a double ring ceremony that took place October 9 at First Congregational Church of Des Plaines, Miss Marilyn Shreck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Shreck of Park Ridge, became the bride of Vernon Wandersee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Krueger of Arlington Heights. The Rev. William Earl Behm officiatd at the seven o'clock candlelight sevice and Roberta Van Keuren, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Baskets of gladioli and mums decorated the candlelit altar and the aisles were marked with ribbons and mums.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace fashioned with long sleeves with points at the wrist, round neckline and a full skirt. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bridal bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis with ivy.

Miss Jo Ann Shreck of San Diego served as maid of honor to the bride wearing a gown of blue crystalette and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. Barbara Moellenkamp of Arlington Heights and Mrs. Virginia Hansen of Mount Prospect served as bridesmaids. They also wore blue crystalette gowns and their bouquets were of a deeper shade of pink rose buds.

Linda and Lana Schnell, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schnell, served as flower girls. The 3-year-old twins wore short pink taffeta dresses and carried baskets of pink rose buds.

Harvey Moellenkamp of Arlington Heights served as the groom's best man and ushers were Fred Haas of Mount Prospect and Fred Schreck, brother of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for 300 guests was held at Sobie's restaurant. The bride's mother received in a peacock blue satin street-length dress with brown sequin hat. Her other accessories were also brown and she wore a white orchid. The groom's mother wore a plum colored crepe dress with black accessories complemented with a lavendar orchid.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. S. B. Chandler of Pittsburg, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Overton of Kokomo, Ind.; Q. P. Shreck Jr., and Miss Kay Taylor of Tulsa and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krueger of Walworth, Wis.

Mr. Wandersee and his bride left on a 1-week wedding trip to the Wisconsin Dells and will reside with the bride's parents until their own home in Arlington Heights is completed.

The bride, a graduate of Maine Township high school, is employed by International Harvester company and the groom, a graduate of Arlington Heights township high school and a veteran of two years with the Marine corps, is with Schnell Sheet Metal of Arlington Heights.

Seventh District Juniors To Hold Safety Program

"Who has our accidents?" "Why do they have them?" These questions will be given special emphasis by Nils A. Lofgren today, Thursday, at the Seventh District Juniors fall meeting.

In 1951, the citizens traffic safety board of Metropolitan Chicago was organized and Mr. Lofgren was appointed director of field services for the board. Mr. Lofgren was formerly a traffic consultant with National Safety council.

Mr. Lofgren has entitled his program "Is Anyone Listening?" This will consist of the new Walt Disney cartoon "Motor Mania" plus an illustrated talk on the Chicago's traffic accidents and congestion problems.

Mr. Walker, one of the characters in the Walt Disney cartoon, is very much a gentleman until he gets behind the wheel of his car. He then becomes the rude and reckless Mr. Wheeler.

A business meeting will be held and each of the junior clubs will give their respective reports. Junior clubs represented will be Junior Woman's Club of Des Plaines, Arlington Heights Junior Woman's club and Edison Park Junior Woman's club. The meeting will be held at the Edison Park Lutheran church at 8 p.m., Oliphant and Avondale ave.

Members of Seventh District junior board are as follows: Mrs. O. C. Beattie, junior director; Mrs. Elmer Kirchhoff, assistant director; Mrs. A. B. Lytle, recording secretary; Mrs. F. J. Kaiser, corresponding secretary; Mrs. G. Rezner, treasurer. Chairmen: Mrs. Burt Schrader, Publicity; Mrs. H. F. Busse, district project; Mrs. Elmer Stolte, Americanism; Mrs. David Nixon, stamps for veterans. Presidents are Mrs. Louis Conforti, Edison Park, Mrs. J. N. Barnett, Des Plaines, and Mrs. J. M. Otzen, Arlington Heights.

Mabel Ann Selemon, prima donna of the Singing Grandmothers, will put over her songs with a fine voice, pleasing personality and loads of charm Saturday at 8:15 p. m. when the Singing Grandmothers present a new 2-hour musical comedy at Maine Township high school. The show is sponsored by Chapeau club of Fr. Linden Council Knights of Columbus.

Noted Pianist Opens Concert Season Nov. 14

The first concert of the Arlington Heights Community Concert Association starting its seventh year opens the season November 14 with the talented Samuel Sorin.

SAMUEL SORIN

In his home town of Detroit, Sorin began studying piano at the age of six. At twelve he won a grand piano in the Greater Detroit competition and went on to win many additional awards and scholarships.

His career was launched when A.S.C.A.P. and the American Federation of Music Clubs sponsored his first tour, which comprised 72 concerts in cities throughout the country. For three seasons he toured with increasing prestige, appearing in recitals and as soloist with symphony orchestras.

The three years of army service interrupted his professional career, but upon his release he decided to undertake a period of re-education. To this end he devoted nearly two years of intensive study.

Samuel Sorin has established himself on the American concert stage and the Community Concert Association is fortunate to have him for one of the five concerts of this season.

As in the past six years, the concerts will be held at the Arlington Heights high school. Doors will open at 7:30 p.m. and the concert starts promptly at 8:15 p.m. No single admissions are sold; the concert is restricted to Community Concert members.

AO Pi Alumnae To Meet In Glenview

November meeting of Northwest Suburban Alumnae club of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority will be held November 8 at 8 p.m. in Glenview at the home of Mrs. Glenn Carlson, 644 Arbor st. Mrs. James Demarest will serve as cohostess.

The program will be one in which all members will participate. Each member will bring an idea for Christmas decortions, centerpieces or unusual gift wrappings. Examples of their ideas will be demonstrated so everyone will be able to execute ideas chosen to use Frontier nursing service, recipient of philanthropic work of A O Pi, has requested the group to bring either toys or warm articles of clothing for Christmas gifts for Kentucky mountain children under their guidance.

Any new membefs of A O Pi in the area who desire information concerning the club, or any members needing transportation to meetings, may call Mrs. Ray Froula, president.

Engagements

Marilyn Lundy

Mrs. Adre D. Lundy, 24 N. Hale st., Palatine, announces the engagement of her daughter, Marilyn Mae, to Pfc. Richard L. Weldon, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Weldon of Barrington.

Jenart Studio

Miss Lundy, daughter of the late Adre D. Lundy, graduated from Palatine high school and is employed at Universal Oil Co., Des Plaines. Mr. Weldon attended New Mexico A and M college at Las Cruces, N. M., for two years prior to entering the army.

The wedding will take place November 27.

Dorothy Poc

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Poc, Des Plaines, former Arlington Heights residents, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Barbara, to Pfc. Richard C. Gabl, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gabl, Chicago.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Seventh District Club Members To Tour School For Girls

Seventh District Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs members will meet at the Park Ridge School for Girls, Park Ridge, for a tour of the buildings and grounds at 1:30 p.m., November 10. Purpose of this tour is to acquaint club members with the girls and to learn their needs and recreational and school activities.

Interested persons of the 35 member clubs and their friends, will bring their glasses of jelly to this meeting for use by the girls in the school. They will also be served tea, after the tour, at "Illinois Cottage."

Seventh district members have the welfare of "Illinos Cottage" most at heart; helping to keep it in repair. New house mother this year is Mrs. Hilda Light.

Girls attending the school are of teen age, for the most part orphans and from broken homes. Here they find a home, companionship and understanding to meet their physical, mental and social needs.

Favorites For Flavor

It isn't necessary to stew a chicken in order to have a rich chicken broth.

Mrs. Fred J. Frazer of 534 S. Dryden, Arlington Heights, has an interesting method for roasting a nice, fat chicken in a pan one-third full of water. This way the chicken retains more of its flavor and is much tastier than a stewed chicken.

But the broth, nonetheless, will be rich and delicious. In the broth she cooks homemade noodles, made by a quick and easy method. A word of warning: none of the fat should be removed from the broth. It makes the noodles even more tender and tasty.

Mrs. Frazer serves the noodles and broth either together or separately. The broth may be used as a gravy with the noodles in a side dish, or they may be served together over mashed potatoes, as Mr. Frazer prefers them.

Another favorite recipe of Mrs. Frazer's is a Frozen Fruit Salad which is a little different than the run-of-the-mill frozen salads.

This is a special salad, rather expensive to make, and served mostly on special occasions such as Christmas and Thanksgiving. It is a delectable combination of cream cheese, lemon juice, mayonnaise, chopped pecans and whipping cream, with bananas, pineapple and cherries as the fruit.

Mrs. Frazer is the busy mother of Bonnie, 11, Donald, 6, and Alan, 4. She finds time, nonetheless, to be a Girl Scout troop leader, a member of the Junior Woman's club and a Sunday school teacher at the Presbyterian church.

Chicken and Noodles

Salt a nice, fat roasting chicken and place in a roasting pan. Fill pan one-third full of water. Roast chicken until done. Remove chicken, place in another shallow pan and brown.

Pour the rich chicken broth from the roaster into a kettle. Add salt, if necessary.

Noodles:

Beat two eggs slightly with one teaspoon salt. Add as much flour as you can work in with a fork. Batter should not be sticky.

Roll out on floured board to one-eighth inch thick and let partially dry. Cut dough into long strips, two inches wide. Then cut these again into noodles one-fourth inch in width. Let dry.

Bring broth to a boil. Add noodles and cook for 20 minutes or until tender. Serve the noodles and broth with the roast chiken.

Frozen Fruit Salad

1 small package cream cheese
½ pint whipping cream
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
3 ripe bananas, cubed
1 small can crushed pineapple, drained
½ cup marischino cherries, cut up
½ cup chopped pecans

Add lemon juice and salt and mix well. Fold in remaining ingredients.

Pour into ice cube tray and freeze at least three hours. Serves 8 generously.

African Violet Chapter To Meet November 8

Roseonna chapter of the First African Violet Society of Chicago will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Williams, 435 Root street, Park Ridge. Monday at 1 p.m.

Co-hostess will be Mrs. Walter Lemme.

Shirley Sommer Is Bride Of John Twigg

(Stuart-Rodgers Studio

Redeemer Lutheran church in Park Ridge was the setting for the October 9 wedding of Miss Shirley L. Sommer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Sommer of Park Ridge, to John A. Twigg, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Twigg, Hickory avenue, Arlington Heights. The ceremony took place at five o'clock with Rev. Philip Lange officiating.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. T. H. Clark of Park Ridge as matron of honor and the Misses Jean Kinzler of Mount Prospect and Margaret Twigg, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids.

The bride approached the altar with her father wearing a gown of traditional white satin fashioned with lace over the shoulders and around the neckline. The lace was encrusted with pearls and sequins. She wore a fingertip length veil and carried a cascade of white mums and fuji mums.

The matron of honor's gown was ballerina length of frosted orange crystalette. She carried bronze mums in her bouquet and wore a wreath of mums in her hair. Toast colored crystalette was used for the bridesmaids' gowns. They carried bouquets of yellow mums and also wore wreaths of mums in their hair.

Webster Crowley of Lisle served as best man to the groom and Richard Traylor of Chicago and Theodore Clark brother-in-law of the bride, of Park Ridge, served as ushers. Alan Clark, nephew of the bride, served as ringbearer.

The church was decorated with four standing vases and altar vases of white mums and gladioli and satin bows marked the pews.

The Park Ridge VFW hall was the scene of the reception attended by 180 guests. Mr. Twigg and his bride honeymooned in the East for two weeks and are now residing at 6418 N. Campbell street, Chicago. A Korean veteran, Mr. Twigg is employed by Lantz Construction company in Glenview, while the new Mrs. Twigg is employed by Illinois Agricultural association in Chicago.

Mrs. James W. Viger and Mrs. John O. Enander, both of Mount Prospect, co-chairmen of Delta Zeta in this area, are pictured with Mrs. Walter C. Burket, Evanston, who was recently named Delta Zeta Woman of the Year. The sorority's highest alumnae honor was presented to Mrs. Burket at the North Suburban Alumnae chapter tea held on Founder's day, October 24 at the Norman Kraft home in Northbrook. Selection of the honoree is based on outstanding participation in the community, devotion to family and service to Delta Zeta. Mrs. Burket, poet and author, has achieved literary recognition on a national scale and has won prizes for her writings in each of the past 20 years.

Presenting The Younger Generation

Likes Trains And Trucks

Playing with his trains and trucks is one of David Grandt's favorite activities. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Grandt of 209 S Chestnut, Arlington Heights.

Blond-haired, blue-eyed David is 2½ years old. He likes to play in the sand box with Kathy, the little girl next door.

Indoors this little lad also likes to look through books and watch children's programs on TV. He has a pet dog named Tiny.

David is anxiously awaiting the arrival of a new brother or sister, which should be any day now.

His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bentz and Mr. and Mrs. David Marr, all of Arlington Heights.

Interested in Books

Pictured next is Patrick Michael Hawley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hawley of 222 N. Derbyshire, Arlington Heights.

Brown-haired, blue-eyed Patrick, at the age of 6, likes to read and goes to the library to choose his own books. He is in first grade at St. James school.

Building with blocks and playing with his erector set are two activities this young lad enjoys, and he also likes to play cowboys and watch TV.

Riding his two-wheeler is fun for Patrick, and he enjoyed swimming in the big pool at the park during the summer months. He likes to play games with his older sister, Janis, who is 12.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hawley and Mr. and Mrs. William Bunge, all of Chicago.

Sisters

Susan Gail and Ann Chistine Grashorn, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Grashorn of 634 N. Dryden, Arlington Heights, are pictured last.

Brown-haired, brown-eyed Susan is 3½ years old. Indoors she likes to color, cut out and paste. She also enjoys looking through books and sometimes "reads" to her little sister.

Riding her tricycle is fun for Susan, and she also likes to play in the sand box and on the swings.

Twenty-two month old Ann likes to imitate her older sister and do what she does. She has light brown hair and brown eyes.

Both of the children enjoy entertaining their baby brother, David William, who is five months old. Their grandparents are Mrs. Louis Brookman Jr., of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs Lester Grashorn of Sheboygan, Wis.

Dolores Rasmussen Weds Richard P. Bracke

In a 5:30 o'clock ceremony October 9, Miss Dolores Rasmussen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Rasmussen, Palatine, and Richard P. Bracke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip G. Bracke, Arlington Heights, repeated marriage vows before Joseph Speciale in Kingdom hall, Des Plaines.

Seventh District Juniors To Hold Safety Program

"Who has our accidents?" "Why do they have them?" These questions will be given special emphasis by Nils A. Lofgren today, Thursday, at the Seventh District Juniors fall meeting.

In 1951, the citizens traffic safety board of Metropolitan Chicago was organized and Mr. Lofgren was appointed director of field services for the board. Mr. Lofgren was formerly a traffic consultant with National Safety council.

Mr. Lofgren has entitled his program "Is Anyone Listening?" This will consist of the new Walt Disney cartoon "Motor Mania" plus an illustrated talk on the Chicago's traffic accidents and congestion problems.

Mr. Walker, one of the characters in the Walt Disney cartoon, is very much a gentleman until he gets behind the wheel of his car. He then becomes the rude and reckless Mr. Wheeler.

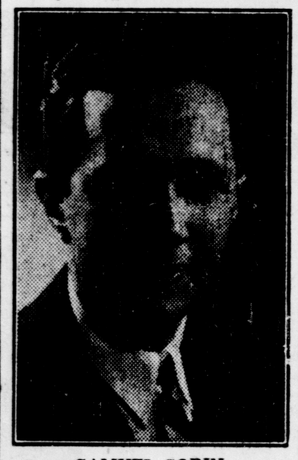
A business meeting will be held and each of the junior clubs will give their respective reports. Junior clubs represented will be Junior Woman's Club of Des Plaines, Arlington Heights Junior Woman's club and Edison Park Junior Woman's club. The meeting will be held at the Edison Park Lutheran church at 8 p.m., Oliphant and Avondale ave.

Members of Seventh District junior board are as follows: Mrs. O. C. Beattie, junior director; Mrs. Elmer Kirchhoff, assistant director; Mrs. A. B. Lytle, recording secretary; Mrs. F. J. Kaiser, corresponding secretary; Mrs. G. Rezner, treasurer. Chairmen: Mrs. Burt Schrader, Publicity; Mrs. H. F. Busse, district project; Mrs. Elmer Stolte, Americanism; Mrs. David Nixon, stamps for veterans. Presidents are Mrs. Louis Conforti, Edison Park, Mrs. J. N. Barnett, Des Plaines, and Mrs. J. M. Otzen, Arlington Heights.

Mabel Ann Selemon, prima donna of the Singing Grandmothers, will put over her songs with a fine voice, pleasing personality and loads of charm Saturday at 8:15 p. m. when the Singing Grandmothers present a new 2-hour musical comedy at Maine Township high school. The show is sponsored by Chapeau club of Fr. Linden Council Knights of Columbus.

Noted Pianist Opens Concert Season Nov. 14

The first concert of the Arlington Heights Community Concert Association starting its seventh year opens the season November 14 with the talented Samuel Sorin.



SAMUEL SORIN

In his home town of Detroit, Sorin began studying piano at the age of six. At twelve he won a grand piano in the Greater Detroit competition and went on to win many additional awards and scholarships.

His career was launched when A.S.C.A.P. and the American Federation of Music Clubs sponsored his first tour, which comprised 72 concerts in cities throughout the country. For three seasons he toured with increasing prestige, appearing in recitals and as soloist with symphony orchestras.

The three years of army service interrupted his professional career, but upon his release he decided to undertake a period of re-education. To this end he devoted nearly two years of intensive study.

Samuel Sorin has established himself on the American concert stage and the Community Concert Association is fortunate to have him for one of the five concerts of this season.

As in the past six years, the concerts will be held at the Arlington Heights high school. Doors will open at 7:30 p.m. and the concert starts promptly at 8:15 p.m. No single admissions are sold; the concert is restricted to Community Concert members.

Seventh District Club Members To Tour School For Girls

Seventh District Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs members will meet at the Park Ridge School for Girls, Park Ridge, for a tour of the buildings and grounds at 1:30 p.m., November 10. Purpose of this tour is to acquaint club members with the girls and to learn their needs and recreational and school activities.

Interested persons of the 35 member clubs and their friends, will bring their glasses of jelly to this meeting for use by the girls in the school. They will also be served tea, after the tour, at "Illinois Cottage."

Seventh district members have the welfare of "Illinos Cottage" most at heart; helping to keep it in repair. New house mother this year is Mrs. Hilda Light.

Girls attending the school are of teen age, for the most part orphans and from broken homes Here they find a home, companionship and understanding to meet their physical, mental and social needs.

Favorites For Flavor

Mrs. Fred J. Frazer of 534 S. Dryden, Arlington Heights, has an interesting method for roasting a nice, fat chicken in a pan one-third full of water. This way the chicken retains more of its flavor and is much tastier than a stewed chicken.

But the broth, nonetheless, will be rich and delicious. In the broth she cooks homemade noodles, made by a quick and easy method. A word of warning: none of the fat should be removed from the broth. It makes the noodles even more tender and tasty.

Mrs. Frazer serves the noodles and broth either together or separately. The broth may be used as a gravy with the noodles in a side dish, or they may be served together over mashed potatoes, as Mr. Frazer prefers them.

This is a special salad, rather expensive to make, and served mostly on special occasions such as Christmas and Thanksgiving. It is a delectable combination of cream cheese, lemon juice, mayonnaise, chopped pecans and whipping cream, with bananas, pineapple and cherries as the fruit.

Mrs. Frazer is the busy mother of Bonnie, 11, Donald, 6, and Alan, 4. She finds time, nonetheless, to be a Girl Scout troop leader, a member of the Junior Woman's club and a Sunday school teacher at the Presbyterian church.

Chicken and Noodles

Salt a nice, fat roasting chicken and place in a roasting pan. Fill pan one-third full of water. Roast chicken until done. Remove chicken, place in another shallow pan and brown.

Pour the rich chicken broth from the roaster into a kettle. Add salt, if necessary.

Noodles:

Beat two eggs slightly with one teaspoon salt. Add as much flour as you can work in with a fork. Batter should not be sticky.

Roll out on floured board to one-eighth inch thick and let partially dry. Cut dough into long strips, two inches wide. Then cut these again into noodles one-fourth inch in width. Let dry.

Bring broth to a boil. Add noodles and cook for 20 minutes or until tender. Serve the noodles and broth with the roast chiken.

Frozen Fruit Salad

1 small package cream cheese
½ pint whipping cream
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
3 ripe bananas, cubed
1 small can crushed pineapple, drained
½ cup marischino cherries, cut up
½ cup chopped pecans

Add lemon juice and salt and mix well. Fold in remaining ingredients.

Pour into ice cube tray and freeze at least three hours. Serves 8 generously.

African Violet Chapter To Meet November 8

Roseonna chapter of the First African Violet Society of Chicago will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Williams, 435 Root street, Park Ridge. Monday at 1 p.m.

Co-hostess will be Mrs. Walter Lemme.

Shirley Sommer Is Bride Of John Twigg

(Stuart-Rodgers Studio

Redeemer Lutheran church in Park Ridge was the setting for the October 9 wedding of Miss Shirley L. Sommer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Sommer of Park Ridge, to John A. Twigg, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Twigg, Hickory avenue, Arlington Heights. The ceremony took place at five o'clock with Rev. Philip Lange officiating.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. T. H. Clark of Park Ridge as matron of honor and the Misses Jean Kinzler of Mount Prospect and Margaret Twigg, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids.

The bride approached the altar with her father wearing a gown of traditional white satin fashioned with lace over the shoulders and around the neckline. The lace was encrusted with pearls and sequins. She wore a fingertip length veil and carried a cascade of white mums and fuji mums.

The matron of honor's gown was ballerina length of frosted orange crystalette. She carried bronze mums in her bouquet and wore a wreath of mums in her hair. Toast colored crystalette was used for the bridesmaids' gowns. They carried bouquets of yellow mums and also wore wreaths of mums in their hair.

Webster Crowley of Lisle served as best man to the groom and Richard Traylor of Chicago and Theodore Clark brother-in-law of the bride, of Park Ridge, served as ushers. Alan Clark, nephew of the bride, served as ringbearer.

The church was decorated with four standing vases and altar vases of white mums and gladioli and satin bows marked the pews.

The Park Ridge VFW hall was the scene of the reception attended by 180 guests. Mr. Twigg and his bride honeymooned in the East for two weeks and are now residing at 6418 N. Campbell street, Chicago. A Korean veteran, Mr. Twigg is employed by Lantz Construction company in Glenview, while the new Mrs. Twigg is employed by Illinois Agricultural association in Chicago.

News of Rolling Meadows

Well Baby Clinic

Rolling Meadows mothers are invited to take advantage of the Palatine "Well Baby Clinic" which is maintained and operated by the County Health Department. The clinic is open to all children from infancy to school age — approximately 5 years of age. Children are given routine examinations as well as the necessary "shots" so essential to every child — all at no charge to the parents. The clinic is open twice a month, on the second and fourth Thursday from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. The clinic is held upstairs of the old gym in the Palatine high school at Wood and Oak sts. The entrance located at the end of Oak st. is the one which leads into the clinic. The clinic is serviced by Dr. Leonard, and she will gladly advise on diet and health problems, as well as perform examinations and injections. The existence of a free clinic such as this should be good news to the many new home owners in Rolling Meadows who by taking advantage of the invitation to visit the clinic may avail themselves of medical examinations which they might otherwise tend to postpone.

Welcome World

It's a boy at the home of Jan and Al Hollatz of 2405 Fremont. The Hollatz family is announcing the birth of Allen Dale, their first child. Little Allan made his appearance at Resurrection hospital October 27, weighing 6 pounds 11½ ounces. The date also happened to be his parents' third wedding anniversary.

Little Jeffrey and Christopher Louis are anxiously awaiting the arrival home of their new little sister, Kathleen Mary. Kathleen, who was born October 28 and weighed in at 6 pounds 10 ounces is the first daughter of Al and Pat Louis of 2107 Wing.

Girl Scouts

The newly organized Girl Scout troop in Rolling Meadows, under the leadership of Mrs. Gretchen White of Sigwalt st., has received their official registration and troup number. Troop 302 of Rolling Meadows, now being officially registered, will no longer be permitted to develop their own publicity in this local column. All news concerning Girl Scout activities is released by the district office, and Rolling Meadows residents who wish to follow the Girl Scout activities are urged to read the Girl Scout column elsewhere in the paper.

Tricks or Treats

A special Halloween Party for the youngsters in the vicinity of Sigwalt and Meadow dr. was given by Miss Karen Young under the supervision of her mother, Mrs. Marie Young. The children, who were all appropriately costumed for the occasion, were enthusiastic Halloween "treat" eaters, and a wonderful time was had by all. Among those present were Randy Farquhar, Gary and Janice Brankin, "Leopard Girl" Diana Dahlquist, Alan Brandt, Donna Tessendorf, Johnny Thompson and Andy Thompson.

Barbara Jane and Chuckie Birt were hosts at a Halloween Party given Saturday afternoon, for a group of their young friends in the vicinity of their home at 2307 Campbell. The children had a wonderful time playing games and diligently applying themselves to the wonderful Halloween "treats" which Mrs. Marion Birt supplied for her children's party. Among the little Campbell st. "goblins" attending the party, all in costume, were Rickey Roeing, David Knudsen, Mickey McCormick, Mary Irene Groves, Julie Kaseska, Peggy and Darlene Sterner and Pat Maguire. Following the party, groups of the children went "Trick or Treating" around the neighborhood under the watchful eye of their parents.

Baby Sitting

Again and again I have been contacted by frantic parents asking me in a last desperate chance if I didn't know of anyone who did baby sitting. Unfortunately I have never been able to recommend anyone. The latest Rolling Meadowite to seek me out was Mrs. Nadine Cranmer of 2301 St. James, who is looking for someone to watch her two young children two or three afternoons a week from 1 to 4 p.m. Anyone interested, please contact Mrs. Cranmer. I'm not proposing the establishment of a baby sitting reference service, but anyone willing to do this type of work please let me know. Then at least I'll have some suggestions to make when people call me, and it will also be of some help to the baby sitters. After all, this column is your column, and should be of service to all Rolling Meadowites.

Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's Club

The second meeting of the newly organized Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's club will be held Monday, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Marge Schmidt at 2900 Dove. Any Rolling Meadows woman who is interested in the promotion of community service, friendship, social activity and philanthropy is invited to join the group. Any woman joining before the first of the year will be considered a charter member. At the first meeting of the group which was held the first week in October a temporary organization was set up and officers to serve until the first of the year were elected. The first meeting in 1955 will see the election of permanent officers of the group. Serving in the interim period are Billie Traub of Dove st. as president and Evelyn Launhart of Meadow dr. as secretary. Mrs. Zama Faber was appointed chairman of the publicity committee, and Mrs. Alice Farrell was appointed chairman of the arrangements committee. Also present at the first meeting were Jackie Grady, Marge Schmidt, Dorothy Pitts, Barbara Plant, Dolores Reinberger, Donna Anderson, Martha Jordan and Muriel Schrock. Mrs. Grady, Mrs. Schmidt and Mrs. Pitts were appointed to act as the committee on by-laws, and Mrs. Plant Mrs. Reinberger, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Schrock were appointed to act as the committee on membership. Also present was Mrs. Mary Beattie, junior director of the Association of Federated Womens clubs. Mrs. Beattie is assisting in the organization of the Rolling Meadows' Junior Woman's club and will be present at the second meeting to further help the group.

Dogs

There have again been serious complaints about loose dogs roaming the area. You know that none of your neighbors want to call the county about picking up your pet, but that is exactly the chance you are taking by allowing your dog to run loose across your neighbor's yards, destroying grass and shrubs, and mingling with their children at play. Please remember your desire to have "good" neighbors, and do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

Halloween Parties

A great many Halloween parties were held in the subdivision on this special holiday which just seems made for celebrating. One of the most enthusiastic parties was held by a group of neighbors on Sigwalt. In attendance were Jack and Dorothy Thompson, Ed and Lou Martin, Alice and Glen Farquhar, Gene and Marge Brandt, Bill and Marie Young, Helen and Herman Boeff, Ann and Eddie Jaske, Tom and Mary Lisinski, and Don and Nancy Dahlquist. The party was a costume affair — with a predominence of women since three of the men attended as female impersonators! Games and dancing were the features of the evening, or rather evening and morning, and the neighbors really "got together!"

A smaller gathering, but just as enthusiastic, was held at the home of Lou and Ralph Dowling at 2303 Eastman. The Dowlings were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pitts and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Faber of Eastman st., and Mr. and Mrs. John Nash of Wing st. The couples played appropriate Halloween games and drank the traditional cider. The highlight of the evening was the midnight lunch which Mrs. Dowling had prepared — and which was quickly dispatched by the crowd.

Vera and Del Wachholz were hosts for a Halloween party for many of their neighbors on Wilke rd. The party was a costume affair, and many of the costumes displayed the creative genius of the wearer, adding greatly to the hilarity of the occasion. Among those present were Chuck and and Grace Martin, Bob and Julie Reynolds, Frank and Dolores Messina, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGovern, Pete and Eleanor Keller, Bud Gent and his mother, Mrs. Gent, and Irene and Mo Nottke. As usual, the group had a marvelous time singing and dancing and the groups of men who felt a harking back to boyhood days when they had played Halloween pranks were tactfully restrained by their wives. If their children read this, I'm only fooling — but on Halloween, who can tell?

Last Saturday night was also the occasion for a Halloween party held at the home of Richard and Mercedes Brezinski at 2203 Wing. Among the group of happy celebrants from Wing st. were Mr. and Mrs. William Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. John Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dieling, Mr. and Mrs. Al Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Christenson, and Al Louis, who had just become a brand-new father. The group spent the evening dancing and singing and playing appropriate games.

Little League

The regular monthly meeting of the Rolling Meadows Little League will be held Sunday, at 5 p.m. Due to the cold weather, however, a new meeting spot must be procured, and members of the Little League organization will be notified of the meeting place before the meeting. Any new residents who are interested in Little League work are invited to attend the "hot stove" sessions. If you would like further information about the Rolling Meadows Little League Fred Schultz, president, whose telephone number is Clearbrook 3-8624, would be glad to talk to you.

Vacationing

While other Rolling Meadowites were shivering with the cold, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Moses of 2207 Wing, vacationed in the warmer climate of the South. Marshall and Randy Moses, accompanied by their two sons, Donney and Mikel, spent eleven days in Jackson, Mississippi, basking in the sun and visiting Randy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith. The Moses family also visited New Orleans on their vacation trip, making a real tour of the "Sunny South."

Landscape Contest

The winners in the fabulous landscape contest sponsored by Kimball Hill and Associates were to have received their awards at the next meeting of the board of directors of the Rolling Meadows Home Owners Association. Unfortunately, however, due to the limited space available for the meetings this became an impossibility, particularly in view of the great number of winners in the contest. Because of this the awards will be mailed to the many winners, all of whom deserve sincere congratulations. I'm sure we all agree they have done a wonderful job in making Rolling Meadows an even better place to live!

Home Demonstration

A home demonstration party was held by Mrs. Emmy Macior for a group of her neighbors on Dove st. Monday. Among those who gathered in the Macior home for the demonstration, as well as coffee and cake and the following social get-together were Marge Duffy, Donna Anderson, Barbara Plant, Dolores Reinberger, Muriel Schrock, Betty McBride, Billie Traub and Shirley Piekarski.

Bazaar

St. Theresa church in Palatine has extended an invitation to all Rolling Meadowites to attend their bazaar to be held Saturday, from 12:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. The bazaar which is the first affair to be held in the new St. Theresa school, is sponsored by the Altar and Rosary Society, and the bazaar chairman, Mrs. Jacqueline Burrus, is anxious to welcome Rolling Meadows visitors to both the bazaar and to see the beautiful new school which the parish has recently completed. The Bazaar will be held in the new school building on N. Benton in Palatine, and can be reached by taking Northwest hwy. to Colfax st., turning left on Colfax for three or four blocks until Benton st. is reached. There will be a great many features of the bazaar, including free movies for the children and free Seven-Up for everyone in attendance. There will be a great many booths, including a White Elephant booth, and a bakery booth (which should help with the Saturday shopping!)

Voting

The team of roving "Chauffeur baby-sitters" in the persons of Fred Schultz, Bill Hickey and Al Haase were kept busy election day assisting those who normally would have found voting difficult by watching their children or taking them to the polling place. Everything possible was done to make voting as convenient as it could be by actually having the voting site located in Rolling Meadows, and announcing its location and the availability of "sitters" and "chauffeurs" through the use of a loud speaker roving the area. The task of the polling place workers was eased somewhat, too, by Mrs. Peggy Schultz who provided refreshments for them during their long and strenuous tasks.

Birthday Celebration

Monday, was the date for the birthday celebration of Mrs. Lucille Doyle of Wing street. Mrs. Doyle, an ex-high school cohort of mine, claims she no longer announces the number of birthdays —she just celebrates them. On hand to help her do just that were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dewar, Mr. and Mrs. William Flynn, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Geimer, and a really wonderful celebration was had.

Boy Scouts

The Panther Patrol of Rolling Meadows will participate in the Boy Scout Paper Drive for Palatine and surrounding areas Saturday. The Rolling Meadows boys will share to a large extent in the proceeds from the sale of this paper. The twelve boys from our area who are now members of Troop 69 in Palatine comprise more than a quarter of the total troop membership. For the purpose of convenience and as an added help to the boys and the adult volunteers, the bus shelter at the corner of Wilke and Campbell will serve as a Central Collection Depot for Rolling Meadows. It will be a great help to the boys if contributors will assist by bringing their bundles of paper to that point. An attempt will be made to cover as much of Rolling Meadows as possible with a truck generously loaned for the paper drive by Kimball Hill. However, you must remember to cover the entire area over which Rolling Meadows has now spread would be an extremely time consuming task for only twelve boys. Should contributors find it impossible to bring their donations to the Central Collection Point it will then be sufficient to deposit the paper at the curb at the front of the house. It will also be helpful to the boys to have the paper securely tied into bundles. Newsprint and magazine stock only can be marketed, and the boys ask that rags and other scrap paper not be included with the donations. Any adults who wish to assist in the paper drive should contact Pete Keller at Clearbrook 3-2840 or be at the collection depot at 9 a.m. Saturday morning. It is also requested that the paper be deposited at the collection point between 9 and 10 a.m. if at all possible. In the event of inclement weather it will be especially important if doners will bring their paper to the bus shelter since the paper will not be purchased by a dealer while wet.

Appreciation is extended to those residents who already contributed to this drive last Saturday. This date was previously reported in error, and because of various difficulties the Scouting organization changed the date to November 6.

Scout Halloween Party

The members of the Panther Patrol from Rolling Meadows participated in a Halloween party at the close of their troop meeting last Thursday. The Boy Scouts of Troop 69 entertained two Girl Scout Troops from Palatine at their party. Donuts, candy, ice cream and sweet cider were served during the evening, and various Halloween games and dancing were the main features.

VFW Dance

Rolling Meadows residents have been invited to attend a dance sponsored by Post 981 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The dance will be held Saturday, starting at 9 p.m. Music will be provided by Walter Heine's orchestra, and the dance will be held in the Palatine Firemen's hall. Tickets are only $1.25 each—or a "special" price of $2.50 per couple. Tickets may be procured right in Rolling Meadows from Charlie Martin at 2801 Wilke road or Wing Groves at 2207 Campbell street. The boys would be more than happy to accommodate you! Quite a few Rolling Meadows neighbors will be in attendance at the affair —why don't you come, too?

Mrs. Robert Chyrchel, leader, Prospect Heights. Mrs. Clada Clabe, neighborhood chairman and troop committee, District II, and Mrs. Sue Harding, field director, take time out from outdoor activities in Deer Grove to relax on a seat furnished by Nature. Mrs. George Sidor and children, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Jevne and children, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mueller and family attended the Cub Scouts Halloween party at Dryden school Friday evening.

The Forest View school held its Halloween party at the school from 12 noon to 3:10 p.m. October 29. The lower grade pupils held their party in their room under the supervision of their teacher, Mrs. Conkling. A play was acted out in pantomime by the third grade pupils. Joan Sundblad and Bonnie Luczak danced, games were played and refreshments furnished by the Mothers' club were served. The upper grade pupils held their party in their room also with Mr. Willuweit, the teacher, supervising. Games and refreshments were also enjoyed. Mrs. Luczak, Mrs. Bartuce, Mrs. Grismer Jr., Mr. Willuweit and Mrs. Conkling were the judges of the costumes. The winners were Barbara Schwake and Sharon Luczak, most original; Mike Koenig and Joe Rodriquez, most unusual; Carol Currier and Linda Elwess, prettiest; Terry Koenig and David Wilder, funniest; honorable mention, Barbara Westberg, Elroy Elvarado, Joy Koenig, Gary Brodnan, Donald Markus and Patricia Hartman.

Billy Sundblad had a combination Halloween and eighth birthday party Saturday with 15 friends and relatives present.

Rolling Meadows Voters Disfranchised For Sanitary Trustees

A Paddock reporter was sure Tuesday that he had the election scoop of the year.

Word was received that Rolling Meadows polling place was making no distinction between voters living inside and those residing outside of the sanitary district.

A quick check with the county clerk's office revealed that Rolling Meadows was to use 700 ballots for persons outside the district and 1000 ballots for persons within district boundaries.

Well Baby Clinic

Rolling Meadows mothers are invited to take advantage of the Palatine "Well Baby Clinic" which is maintained and operated by the County Health Department. The clinic is open to all children from infancy to school age — approximately 5 years of age. Children are given routine examinations as well as the necessary "shots" so essential to every child — all at no charge to the parents. The clinic is open twice a month, on the second and fourth Thursday from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. The clinic is held upstairs of the old gym in the Palatine high school at Wood and Oak sts. The entrance located at the end of Oak st. is the one which leads into the clinic. The clinic is serviced by Dr. Leonard, and she will gladly advise on diet and health problems, as well as perform examinations and injections. The existence of a free clinic such as this should be good news to the many new home owners in Rolling Meadows who by taking advantage of the invitation to visit the clinic may avail themselves of medical examinations which they might otherwise tend to postpone.

Welcome World

It's a boy at the home of Jan and Al Hollatz of 2405 Fremont. The Hollatz family is announcing the birth of Allen Dale, their first child. Little Allan made his appearance at Resurrection hospital October 27, weighing 6 pounds 11½ ounces. The date also happened to be his parents' third wedding anniversary.

Little Jeffrey and Christopher Louis are anxiously awaiting the arrival home of their new little sister, Kathleen Mary. Kathleen, who was born October 28 and weighed in at 6 pounds 10 ounces is the first daughter of Al and Pat Louis of 2107 Wing.

Girl Scouts

The newly organized Girl Scout troop in Rolling Meadows, under the leadership of Mrs. Gretchen White of Sigwalt st., has received their official registration and troup number. Troop 302 of Rolling Meadows, now being officially registered, will no longer be permitted to develop their own publicity in this local column. All news concerning Girl Scout activities is released by the district office, and Rolling Meadows residents who wish to follow the Girl Scout activities are urged to read the Girl Scout column elsewhere in the paper.

Tricks or Treats

A special Halloween Party for the youngsters in the vicinity of Sigwalt and Meadow dr. was given by Miss Karen Young under the supervision of her mother, Mrs. Marie Young. The children, who were all appropriately costumed for the occasion, were enthusiastic Halloween "treat" eaters, and a wonderful time was had by all. Among those present were Randy Farquhar, Gary and Janice Brankin, "Leopard Girl" Diana Dahlquist, Alan Brandt, Donna Tessendorf, Johnny Thompson and Andy Thompson.

Barbara Jane and Chuckie Birt were hosts at a Halloween Party given Saturday afternoon, for a group of their young friends in the vicinity of their home at 2307 Campbell. The children had a wonderful time playing games and diligently applying themselves to the wonderful Halloween "treats" which Mrs. Marion Birt supplied for her children's party. Among the little Campbell st. "goblins" attending the party, all in costume, were Rickey Roeing, David Knudsen, Mickey McCormick, Mary Irene Groves, Julie Kaseska, Peggy and Darlene Sterner and Pat Maguire. Following the party, groups of the children went "Trick or Treating" around the neighborhood under the watchful eye of their parents.

Baby Sitting

Again and again I have been contacted by frantic parents asking me in a last desperate chance if I didn't know of anyone who did baby sitting. Unfortunately I have never been able to recommend anyone. The latest Rolling Meadowite to seek me out was Mrs. Nadine Cranmer of 2301 St. James, who is looking for someone to watch her two young children two or three afternoons a week from 1 to 4 p.m. Anyone interested, please contact Mrs. Cranmer. I'm not proposing the establishment of a baby sitting reference service, but anyone willing to do this type of work please let me know. Then at least I'll have some suggestions to make when people call me, and it will also be of some help to the baby sitters. After all, this column is your column, and should be of service to all Rolling Meadowites.

Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's Club

The second meeting of the newly organized Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's club will be held Monday, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Marge Schmidt at 2900 Dove. Any Rolling Meadows woman who is interested in the promotion of community service, friendship, social activity and philanthropy is invited to join the group. Any woman joining before the first of the year will be considered a charter member. At the first meeting of the group which was held the first week in October a temporary organization was set up and officers to serve until the first of the year were elected. The first meeting in 1955 will see the election of permanent officers of the group. Serving in the interim period are Billie Traub of Dove st. as president and Evelyn Launhart of Meadow dr. as secretary. Mrs. Zama Faber was appointed chairman of the publicity committee, and Mrs. Alice Farrell was appointed chairman of the arrangements committee. Also present at the first meeting were Jackie Grady, Marge Schmidt, Dorothy Pitts, Barbara Plant, Dolores Reinberger, Donna Anderson, Martha Jordan and Muriel Schrock. Mrs. Grady, Mrs. Schmidt and Mrs. Pitts were appointed to act as the committee on by-laws, and Mrs. Plant Mrs. Reinberger, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Schrock were appointed to act as the committee on membership. Also present was Mrs. Mary Beattie, junior director of the Association of Federated Womens clubs. Mrs. Beattie is assisting in the organization of the Rolling Meadows' Junior Woman's club and will be present at the second meeting to further help the group.

Dogs

There have again been serious complaints about loose dogs roaming the area. You know that none of your neighbors want to call the county about picking up your pet, but that is exactly the chance you are taking by allowing your dog to run loose across your neighbor's yards, destroying grass and shrubs, and mingling with their children at play. Please remember your desire to have "good" neighbors, and do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

Halloween Parties

A great many Halloween parties were held in the subdivision on this special holiday which just seems made for celebrating. One of the most enthusiastic parties was held by a group of neighbors on Sigwalt. In attendance were Jack and Dorothy Thompson, Ed and Lou Martin, Alice and Glen Farquhar, Gene and Marge Brandt, Bill and Marie Young, Helen and Herman Boeff, Ann and Eddie Jaske, Tom and Mary Lisinski, and Don and Nancy Dahlquist. The party was a costume affair — with a predominence of women since three of the men attended as female impersonators! Games and dancing were the features of the evening, or rather evening and morning, and the neighbors really "got together!"

A smaller gathering, but just as enthusiastic, was held at the home of Lou and Ralph Dowling at 2303 Eastman. The Dowlings were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pitts and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Faber of Eastman st., and Mr. and Mrs. John Nash of Wing st. The couples played appropriate Halloween games and drank the traditional cider. The highlight of the evening was the midnight lunch which Mrs. Dowling had prepared — and which was quickly dispatched by the crowd.

Vera and Del Wachholz were hosts for a Halloween party for many of their neighbors on Wilke rd. The party was a costume affair, and many of the costumes displayed the creative genius of the wearer, adding greatly to the hilarity of the occasion. Among those present were Chuck and and Grace Martin, Bob and Julie Reynolds, Frank and Dolores Messina, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGovern, Pete and Eleanor Keller, Bud Gent and his mother, Mrs. Gent, and Irene and Mo Nottke. As usual, the group had a marvelous time singing and dancing and the groups of men who felt a harking back to boyhood days when they had played Halloween pranks were tactfully restrained by their wives. The Zabels live at 1409 Race. Helen and Robert moved to Virginia Terrace September 13. They have a little boy, Kurt, 2½.

Entertains

Mrs. Zabel recently entertained her neighobrs with a party. Those attending were Marion Hartig, Shirley Scott, Maxine Purcell, Shirley Murtaugh, Flo O'Brien, Muriel Gunther, Phyllis Fluhrer and Ruth Calhoun. There were also 12 children at the gathering.

Nancy and Don Raymond, 1337 Race, moved in September 1 They have a little boy, Steve, 11 months old. Mr. Raymond recently returned from the army in May. He spent 13 months in Korea. The family is more recently of Lake Zurich.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Oross moved from the northwest side of Chicago August 21 to 1345 Race. Completing the family are Robert, Kathryn and Patricia.

Congratulations to Louise Wiimot who celebrated her eighth birthday October 23. Louise lives at 1240 Race. Attending her party from Virginia Terrace were Donna Murray, Christine Donnell, Dennis Turek and Linda Cechelt. Louise also had some guests from Chicago. They were Leslie Gall, Donald Garcia, Carol Jean Bolz and Suzan McCabel. Louise had another party Sunday to which 12 relatives were invited.

Don Brown, son of Lyle and Winefred, 1414 W. Oakton, arrived home on leave last Saturday. Don recently finished his basic training at Camp Chaffee in Arkansas. November 12 he will return to Camp Chaffee to the adjutant general school in the clerical division.

Newcomers Club

Those interested in the Newcomers' club may contact Dorothy Murray at Clearbrook 3-8143. Dorothy is heading the membership group in Virginia Terrace. The club bowls every Thursday at Palatine bowling alley at 1:15 p.m. There are openings now. The club is also having a lunchen at Simsons' on Rand rd. The luncheon, with a card party following, will be November 10. Call Mrs. Murray for reservations. Next meeting of the organization will be November 18 at the field house at Arlington Park. The meeting will be followed by a card party.

Dorothy Ukelja, 1421 Wilke, entertained her sewing group October 21. All seven members present live in Chicago.

For a look at a well-supplied freezer, we could all visit Dorothy and Gene Domingue, 1706 W. Oakton. Dorothy and Gene returned last Saturday from 10 days of hunting pheasant in South Dakota. They both bagged the limit every day.

Mrs. Arthur R. Hanson — VA. 4-4788

Feehanville School

Next week there will be two school holidays — Thursday and Friday, as Thursday is Armistice day and Friday is the day set for the Arlington Area Teachers' meeting.

School board wishes to express their appreciation to the Theodore Wehlesczs on Foundry road for the presentation of their piano to the school. There was a piano-moving party last Sunday, with Kenneth Karnuth and his truck, Arthur Hanson and son John, Herbert Lagerholm and son Norman, Ted Flink and Harold Broberg as active participants.

Signal Lights at Foundry Road

"This is a citation case, and it is customary for the commission to introduce evidence through its own witnesses. The commission is prepared to do that this morning. However, in discussions off the record, preceding the hearing the parties, County of Cook, State Highway department and the Soo Line railroad, having indicated that if they were given a period of 30 days they would get together with a view towards reaching a possible agreement as to the protection needed at this crossing, and the division of the costs between them, and as such action on the part of the parties would certainly be desireable, so far as the commission is concerned I would feel inclined to grant a continuance of 30 days for the purpose if the parties will indicate that in good faith they will get together and try to work out something at this crossing at Foundry road."

These were the opening statements made by Mr. Parker, chairman, at the hearing held last week Wednesday, and after the three parties concerned expressed their willingness to enter into discussions, the hearing was adjourned until November 22. Mr. Parker assured the people from this district who attended the meeting (Mrs. Elizabeth Flink, president of the PTA and secretary of the Prospect Gardens Home Owners' association, Mrs. Dorothy Karnuth, secretary of the Forest River Home owners' Civic association, Mrs. Inez Hanson, secretary of the board of education, and Miss Idyl Nipper, safety chairman of the PTA) that the very fact that these parties were willing to try to come to some agreement was encouraging, and it was to the best interests of all concerned to grant this continuance.

Civic Association

Because the October meeting of the FRHOC association lacked one to make a quorum, no official business could be transacted at that time. However, the members who did attend enjoyed a friendly discussion of the problems facing the community while they waited for the coffee to perk — and then enjoyed the refreshments served by the committee of the month, Mrs. Eva Anderson, Mrs. Betty Arkell and Mrs. Rita Badalamenti.

Last Thursday the committee for the children's Christmas party held their first meeting. A gmaes party, to be held on November 19, will be the means of raising monty for the Christmas party, and the committee is hoping they will receive the same splendid cooperation from the community this year as was evidenced in past years. Chairman of the committee is Mrs. Rita Badalamenti, with Mrs. Jeanne Dunkinson, Mrs. Eva Anderson, Mrs. Dorothy Karnuth, Mrs. Marguerite Broberg, Mrs. Betty Arkell and Mrs. I. A. Hanson as members of her committee.

Guild

Last week Monday Our Lady of Lourdes guild had their annual dinner out, at Tom Brown's Smorgasbord, and from all reports had a hilarious time. The most successful table game played was a name-guessing contest, of which Mrs. Ruth Munson was winner. Members who were able to attend were Mrs. Hermina Huening, Mrs. Helen Perry, Mrs. Rosemary Schmeltzer, Mrs. Agnes Phares, Mrs. Ruth Munson Mrs. Betty Arkell, Mrs. Doris Milz, Mrs. Viginia Seilheimer and Mrs. Rita Badalamenti.

Youth Activities

Marshmallow ghosts set on black cats and black bat name cards spelling out the name of the guest in alphabet noodles, gave a Halloween flavor to the party given by the Brownies last week Tuesday. Among their guests were Mrs. Marguerite Broberg, Mrs. Durson, Mrs. Verna Buttner, Mrs. Frank Lude, Mrs. Helen Huege, Mrs. Leisure, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Dorothy Levine and Mrs. Robert Unger. The Brownies entertained their mothers with songs, and they had an impromptu quiz, wherein each Brownie was asked "Why did you join the Brownies?" The answers were clever, varied and original, but later the Brownies decided to put thier mothers on the spot and asked them to answer the question "Why did you come to our party today?" The mothers were taken by surprise, but rallied beautifully and came back with some clever answers, too. Refreshments of cocoa and cup-cakes were served.

Intermediate Scout troop held their Halloween party last Thursday evening. The entire troop came in costume— which ranged from lovely formal gowns to baby clothes. After several stunt games were played, they had their traditional "spooky story." Refreshments were of the pot luck type, and were served just before the party was over.

Last week Wednesday the Stockade had a Halloween party, and all came in costume. The leaders had a hard time picking a winner out of all the clever costumes, but finally awarded the prize to Barry Bischof. There were two prizes for the pumpkin carving contest, and Michael Lipnisky won in the older group, Buster Levine in the younger group. After a session of active games, refreshments (provided by the "Red" Bischofs) were eagerly welcomed.

iPoneer Girls let their imaginations run riot in their choice of costume last week Tuesday, when they had their Halloween party. Mrs. Betty Shimmin provided a beautifully decorated cake and cocoa as a grand climax to the fun and games.

This coming Saturday is the big day for more than 40 people (young and old who have registered so far for Rally day at Wheaton. There will be a fleet of cars leaving the Forest river church at 8:30 a.m.

Many of the teen-agers from our district are planning to attend the Hi-C's First Youth congress at 7:30 p.m., November 12, at the Council Chambers, City hall, Chicago. Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the same week the Hi-Cs are having open house in their new home at 108 N. Dearborn street, Chicago. Rev. Jack MacDonald will be at the reception, which is from 7 to 9 on all three days, and there will be music and refreshments.

Forest River Church

For their November 7 meeting, the officers of the TFC's the young peoples' group at the Forest River church, have planned a little surprise. The meeting November 14 will also deviate from the norm — the girls are to have full charge of the meeting and will both plan and direct.

Community News

Congratulations to Jackie Alexander on her television premier last Saturday night. She appeared as a contestant in the program, "What's the Answer?"

Birthday congratulations to Lynn Broberg, who was two years old last Thursday. There was a family party for her after mother returned from the Girl Scout Halloween party. Congratulations also go to Daniel Becker, who was four years old and had a birthday party last Sunday; Susan Levine, who was six Sunday; Dottie Mae Levine, who was nine on November 3; Charles Kozel, who is 12 on Friday, and Donna Huening, who will be 14 on Saturday.

Friends and neighbors are offering congratulations to the Richard Roos', now, too, on the birth of their son. He arrived two o'clock last Saturday, at the Women and Children's hospital in Chicago weighing 7 and a half pounds. Hjalmar and Marie Sandquist are wearing their new titles of "grandpa" and "grandma" with great pride.

The John Alexanders of Foundry road attended a housewarming last Monday, at the home of Mrs. Alexander's sister, who has just moved to Bensenville.

Halloween Parties Galore

Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, 922 N. Dryden ave., attended a masquerade party in Berwyn. Mrs. Anderson dressed as a country girl and her husband as an interne. A china hen and rooster set was awarded to Mrs. Anderson as first prize for her costume.

A combination Halloween and third birthday party was held at Peggy Wunderle's home, 922 N. Douglas. Helping Peggy celebrate were three other 3-year-olds from Douglas, Peggy Elgas, Mimi Camin and Barbara Hofer. After cake and ice cream the girls went "tricks or treatin" with Naomi Camin who rang the doorbells for them.

Peggy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Knudsvig from Madison, were here for the weekend holiday-birthday celebrations and her grandparents from Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wunderle, came out Sunday, too.

Another Halloween party was held Friday at the Herr home, 901 N. Douglas ave. All in costume and having a grand time were Karen Herr, Janice Sitarz, Vicki Cole, Pat Reif, Susie Quill, Barbara Johnson, Judy Johns, Naomi Camin, Janice Guttenberger, all of Douglas ave. and Barbara McDonald and Karen Weirich.

The Len Johnsons and Sy Clemmons of Dryden ave., celebrated Halloween in the new garage of the Johnsons' at 914 N. Dryden. They kept warm by circling around two "witch's cauldrons" (portable barbecue pits) Guests, the D. Lanes, J. Chalapatys, W. Marshes, B. Franks, G. Lalishes and J. Brodericks, had fun bobbing for apples.

Jimmy and Jackie Irmen, 1005 N. Douglas, were hosts to all the boys on Douglas ave. at a Halloween party held at their home Saturday afternoon. Butch and Mike Elwart, Don and Warren Johns, Herbie Reif, Emmett Quill, Micky and Allen Herr, Jeff Guttenberger, Don Spink, Benjie Yourg and Ray Herr had a wonderful time bobbing for apples and trying to catch and eat doughnuts swinging from strings. A ghost kept coming to the windows and the boys weren't sure whether to ignore "it" or invite "it" in.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spink, 1010 N. Douglas ave., have Mrs. Spink's mother and aunt visiting with them for a few days. Mrs Ethel Berkley and Mrs. Ellen Berkley from Baraboo, Wis., are visiting friends and relatives in the Chicago area and also getting in some early Chritmas shopping.

Miss Robin Jean McKinley, 8 weeks old, spent her first vacation with her aunt and uncle, Mr and Mrs. Stan Dalley, 905 N. Douglas ave., this past weekend while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKinley, of Northfield, attended the Northwestern homecoming.

Baptism

Five week old Michael William Prafke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Prafke, 1013 N. Hickory ave., was baptized Sunday in Faith Lutheran church, Arlington Hts. Mrs. Lucille Hay, Herbert Frank and Albert Prafke are the godparents.

On The Mend

A fall from a tree has 10-year-old Kay Warnecke, 834 N. Dryden ave., convalescing in bed After the accident, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warnecke, took Kay to St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, where X-rays revealed slight injury to her spine. The doctor hopes rest in bed will cure her without further treatment.

Meeting

The Douglas ave. women held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul Greene, 906 N. Douglas last Wednesday evening. The decor, of course, followed in the best tradition of Halloween and all enjoyed the cider and doughnuts.

Cub scouts held their pack meeting last Friday night. Mrs Mary Carroll, den mother of den 5 reports her seven cubs wore costumes from "Pinocchio." Ford Slagel was Gysetto, John Carroll came as Pinocchio, Jamie Stewart as Jiminy Cricket, Dale Urbanowicz as the good fairy, Paul Weirich as Stromboli, Tom Slabel as J. Worthington Wolf and Edward McCratic as Gideon Cat.

Arlington Crest News

There is a very important Arlington Crest Civic association meeting Wednesday, November 17. Please mark the date on your calendars. We would like to see as many of the residents of Arlington Crest as can, attend the meeting.

Gilbert Stutz has been ill for the past week.

Deerfield Protests Toll Road Route

A plan to deluge state officials with 4,000 letters and postcards protesting an original plan of the Illinois toll road commission to bisect Deerfield with a toll road was outined this week.

Residents are promoting the plan because they said they felt no definite assurance can be given that the proposed toll road will not be routed through the village as originally planned.

Suburban Group For Handicapped Children To Meet November 10

The next meeting of the "Suburban Association for Physically Handicapped Children" will be held November 10 at 8 p.m. at the Easter Seal Center, Riverside dr. and Harrison st. in Elmhurst.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Mildred J. Robertson of New York City, who has made a special study of problems of home care and training of the physically handicapped child. She will discuss home environment in relation to these problems and will also demonstrate the use of equipment to emphasize the importance of fit and adaptability.

All parents of physically handicapped children and other interested persons are invited to attend. For further information call Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Schneider, Terrace 4-4607.

News of Elk Grove

Paper Drive

The eighth grade paper drive netted $18.24. This was good considering waste paper is worth only $5 a ton at the present time. The students wish to thank everyone for helping to make this a success.

Hot Dog Sale

The Student Council is sponsoring a hot dog sale today, Thursday. Seventh and eighth graders will be kept busy, serving 200 or more students.

Halloween Party

The Halloween party which was sponsored by the Mothers' club and the Student Council was a successful affair, thanks to the many mothers who baked and helped with refreshments. Practically everyone was in costume and a costume parade was held at 8 p.m. They were judged by grades and the judges had a hard time picking the winners from so many well designed costumes. There were treats for all the children and the upper grades furnished games and a spook house for entertainment. Many thanks to the Mothers' club and all who helped with the party.

Mothers' Club

The regular meeting of the Mothers' club will be held the second Wednesday of the month due to school being closed for Armistice Day. Plan now on attending Wednesday, November 10, at 1:30 p.m.

The Mothers' club will have a toy demonstration at Elk Grove school tonight, Thursday, at 7:30 o'clock. This is a wonderful opportunity to select your child's toys without getting into the Christmas rush. Plan now to come and look over the toys exhibited. Toys in all price groups will be offered.

Phone Mrs. Ann Fritchley, Va. 4-0347, if you have news items.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kindt arrived Saturday from Los Angeles, Calif., with their two daughters, Karen and Terri. They intend to make their home here after residing in California for the past twelve years. Mrs. Kindt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nolting.

Mrs. Ann Fritchley and her three daughters were involved in an auto accident Saturday night at the intersection of Oakton st. and Wolf rd. No one was seriously injured except Sandra, who had a fractured nose. However, all were shaken up and Mrs. Opal Glassie is still feeling the shock of being in the car with her sister.

The meeting will be followed by a card party.

Dorothy Ukelja, 1421 Wilke, entertained her sewing group October 21. All seven members present live in Chicago.

For a look at a well-supplied freezer, we could all visit Dorothy and Gene Domingue, 1706 W. Oakton. Dorothy and Gene returned last Saturday from 10 days of hunting pheasant in South Dakota. They both bagged the limit every day.

Feehanville School

Next week there will be two school holidays — Thursday and Friday, as Thursday is Armistice day and Friday is the day set for the Arlington Area Teachers' meeting.

School board wishes to express their appreciation to the Theodore Wehlesczs on Foundry road for the presentation of their piano to the school. There was a piano-moving party last Sunday, with Kenneth Karnuth and his truck, Arthur Hanson and son John, Herbert Lagerholm and son Norman, Ted Flink and Harold Broberg as active participants.

Signal Lights at Foundry Road

"This is a citation case, and it is customary for the commission to introduce evidence through its own witnesses. The commission is prepared to do that this morning. However, in discussions off the record, preceding the hearing the parties, County of Cook, State Highway department and the Soo Line railroad, having indicated that if they were given a period of 30 days they would get together with a view towards reaching a possible agreement as to the protection needed at this crossing, and the division of the costs between them, and as such action on the part of the parties would certainly be desireable, so far as the commission is concerned I would feel inclined to grant a continuance of 30 days for the purpose if the parties will indicate that in good faith they will get together and try to work out something at this crossing at Foundry road."

These were the opening statements made by Mr. Parker, chairman, at the hearing held last week Wednesday, and after the three parties concerned expressed their willingness to enter into discussions, the hearing was adjourned until November 22. Mr. Parker assured the people from this district who attended the meeting (Mrs. Elizabeth Flink, president of the PTA and secretary of the Prospect Gardens Home Owners' association, Mrs. Dorothy Karnuth, secretary of the Forest River Home owners' Civic association, Mrs. Inez Hanson, secretary of the board of education, and Miss Idyl Nipper, safety chairman of the PTA) that the very fact that these parties were willing to try to come to some agreement was encouraging, and it was to the best interests of all concerned to grant this continuance.

Civic Association

Because the October meeting of the FRHOC association lacked one to make a quorum, no official business could be transacted at that time. However, the members who did attend enjoyed a friendly discussion of the problems facing the community while they waited for the coffee to perk — and then enjoyed the refreshments served by the committee of the month, Mrs. Eva Anderson, Mrs. Betty Arkell and Mrs. Rita Badalamenti.

Last Thursday the committee for the children's Christmas party held their first meeting. A gmaes party, to be held on November 19, will be the means of raising monty for the Christmas party, and the committee is hoping they will receive the same splendid cooperation from the community this year as was evidenced in past years. Chairman of the committee is Mrs. Rita Badalamenti, with Mrs. Jeanne Dunkinson, Mrs. Eva Anderson, Mrs. Dorothy Karnuth, Mrs. Marguerite Broberg, Mrs. Betty Arkell and Mrs. I. A. Hanson as members of her committee.

Guild

Last week Monday Our Lady of Lourdes guild had their annual dinner out, at Tom Brown's Smorgasbord, and from all reports had a hilarious time. The most successful table game played was a name-guessing contest, of which Mrs. Ruth Munson was winner. Members who were able to attend were Mrs. Hermina Huening, Mrs. Helen Perry, Mrs. Rosemary Schmeltzer, Mrs. Agnes Phares, Mrs. Ruth Munson Mrs. Betty Arkell, Mrs. Doris Milz, Mrs. Viginia Seilheimer and Mrs. Rita Badalamenti.

Youth Activities

Marshmallow ghosts set on black cats and black bat name cards spelling out the name of the guest in alphabet noodles, gave a Halloween flavor to the party given by the Brownies last week Tuesday. Among their guests were Mrs. Marguerite Broberg, Mrs. Durson, Mrs. Verna Buttner, Mrs. Frank Lude, Mrs. Helen Huege, Mrs. Leisure, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Dorothy Levine and Mrs. Robert Unger. The Brownies entertained their mothers with songs, and they had an impromptu quiz, wherein each Brownie was asked "Why did you join the Brownies?" The answers were clever, varied and original, but later the Brownies decided to put thier mothers on the spot and asked them to answer the question "Why did you come to our party today?" The mothers were taken by surprise, but rallied beautifully and came back with some clever answers, too. Refreshments of cocoa and cup-cakes were served.

Intermediate Scout troop held their Halloween party last Thursday evening. The entire troop came in costume— which ranged from lovely formal gowns to baby clothes. After several stunt games were played, they had their traditional "spooky story." Refreshments were of the pot luck type, and were served just before the party was over.

Last week Wednesday the Stockade had a Halloween party, and all came in costume. The leaders had a hard time picking a winner out of all the clever costumes, but finally awarded the prize to Barry Bischof. There were two prizes for the pumpkin carving contest, and Michael Lipnisky won in the older group, Buster Levine in the younger group. After a session of active games, refreshments (provided by the "Red" Bischofs) were eagerly welcomed.

iPoneer Girls let their imaginations run riot in their choice of costume last week Tuesday, when they had their Halloween party. Mrs. Betty Shimmin provided a beautifully decorated cake and cocoa as a grand climax to the fun and games.

This coming Saturday is the big day for more than 40 people (young and old who have registered so far for Rally day at Wheaton. There will be a fleet of cars leaving the Forest river church at 8:30 a.m.

Many of the teen-agers from our district are planning to attend the Hi-C's First Youth congress at 7:30 p.m., November 12, at the Council Chambers, City hall, Chicago. Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the same week the Hi-Cs are having open house in their new home at 108 N. Dearborn street, Chicago. Rev. Jack MacDonald will be at the reception, which is from 7 to 9 on all three days, and there will be music and refreshments.

Forest River Church

For their November 7 meeting, the officers of the TFC's the young peoples' group at the Forest River church, have planned a little surprise. The meeting November 14 will also deviate from the norm — the girls are to have full charge of the meeting and will both plan and direct.

Community News

Congratulations to Jackie Alexander on her television premier last Saturday night. She appeared as a contestant in the program, "What's the Answer?"

Birthday congratulations to Lynn Broberg, who was two years old last Thursday. There was a family party for her after mother returned from the Girl Scout Halloween party. Congratulations also go to Daniel Becker, who was four years old and had a birthday party last Sunday; Susan Levine, who was six Sunday; Dottie Mae Levine, who was nine on November 3; Charles Kozel, who is 12 on Friday, and Donna Huening, who will be 14 on Saturday.

Friends and neighbors are offering congratulations to the Richard Roos', now, too, on the birth of their son. He arrived two o'clock last Saturday, at the Women and Children's hospital in Chicago weighing 7 and a half pounds. Hjalmar and Marie Sandquist are wearing their new titles of "grandpa" and "grandma" with great pride.

The John Alexanders of Foundry road attended a housewarming last Monday, at the home of Mrs. Alexander's sister, who has just moved to Bensenville.

Halloween Parties Galore

Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, 922 N. Dryden ave., attended a masquerade party in Berwyn. Mrs. Anderson dressed as a country girl and her husband as an interne. A china hen and rooster set was awarded to Mrs. Anderson as first prize for her costume.

A combination Halloween and third birthday party was held at Peggy Wunderle's home, 922 N. Douglas. Helping Peggy celebrate were three other 3-year-olds from Douglas, Peggy Elgas, Mimi Camin and Barbara Hofer. After cake and ice cream the girls went "tricks or treatin" with Naomi Camin who rang the doorbells for them.

Another Halloween party was held Friday at the Herr home, 901 N. Douglas ave. All in costume and having a grand time were Karen Herr, Janice Sitarz, Vicki Cole, Pat Reif, Susie Quill, Barbara Johnson, Judy Johns, Naomi Camin, Janice Guttenberger, all of Douglas ave. and Barbara McDonald and Karen Weirich.

The Len Johnsons and Sy Clemmons of Dryden ave., celebrated Halloween in the new garage of the Johnsons' at 914 N. Dryden. They kept warm by circling around two "witch's cauldrons" (portable barbecue pits) Guests, the D. Lanes, J. Chalapatys, W. Marshes, B. Franks, G. Lalishes and J. Brodericks, had fun bobbing for apples.

Jimmy and Jackie Irmen, 1005 N. Douglas, were hosts to all the boys on Douglas ave. at a Halloween party held at their home Saturday afternoon. Butch and Mike Elwart, Don and Warren Johns, Herbie Reif, Emmett Quill, Micky and Allen Herr, Jeff Guttenberger, Don Spink, Benjie Yourg and Ray Herr had a wonderful time bobbing for apples and trying to catch and eat doughnuts swinging from strings. A ghost kept coming to the windows and the boys weren't sure whether to ignore "it" or invite "it" in.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spink, 1010 N. Douglas ave., have Mrs. Spink's mother and aunt visiting with them for a few days. Mrs Ethel Berkley and Mrs. Ellen Berkley from Baraboo, Wis., are visiting friends and relatives in the Chicago area and also getting in some early Chritmas shopping.

Miss Robin Jean McKinley, 8 weeks old, spent her first vacation with her aunt and uncle, Mr and Mrs. Stan Dalley, 905 N. Douglas ave., this past weekend while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKinley, of Northfield, attended the Northwestern homecoming.

Baptism

Five week old Michael William Prafke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Prafke, 1013 N. Hickory ave., was baptized Sunday in Faith Lutheran church, Arlington Hts. Mrs. Lucille Hay, Herbert Frank and Albert Prafke are the godparents.

On The Mend

A fall from a tree has 10-year-old Kay Warnecke, 834 N. Dryden ave., convalescing in bed After the accident, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warnecke, took Kay to St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, where X-rays revealed slight injury to her spine. The doctor hopes rest in bed will cure her without further treatment.

Meeting

The Douglas ave. women held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul Greene, 906 N. Douglas last Wednesday evening. The decor, of course, followed in the best tradition of Halloween and all enjoyed the cider and doughnuts.

Cub scouts held their pack meeting last Friday night. Mrs Mary Carroll, den mother of den 5 reports her seven cubs wore costumes from "Pinocchio." Ford Slagel was Gysetto, John Carroll came as Pinocchio, Jamie Stewart as Jiminy Cricket, Dale Urbanowicz as the good fairy, Paul Weirich as Stromboli, Tom Slabel as J. Worthington Wolf and Edward McCratic as Gideon Cat.

Arlington Crest News

There is a very important Arlington Crest Civic association meeting Wednesday, November 17. Please mark the date on your calendars. We would like to see as many of the residents of Arlington Crest as can, attend the meeting.

Gilbert Stutz has been ill for the past week.

Deerfield Protests Toll Road Route

A plan to deluge state officials with 4,000 letters and postcards protesting an original plan of the Illinois toll road commission to bisect Deerfield with a toll road was outined this week.

Residents are promoting the plan because they said they felt no definite assurance can be given that the proposed toll road will not be routed through the village as originally planned.

Suburban Group For Handicapped Children To Meet November 10

The next meeting of the "Suburban Association for Physically Handicapped Children" will be held November 10 at 8 p.m. at the Easter Seal Center, Riverside dr. and Harrison st. in Elmhurst.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Mildred J. Robertson of New York City, who has made a special study of problems of home care and training of the physically handicapped child. She will discuss home environment in relation to these problems and will also demonstrate the use of equipment to emphasize the importance of fit and adaptability.

All parents of physically handicapped children and other interested persons are invited to attend. For further information call Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Schneider, Terrace 4-4607.

News of Elk Grove

Paper Drive

The eighth grade paper drive netted $18.24. This was good considering waste paper is worth only $5 a ton at the present time. The students wish to thank everyone for helping to make this a success.

Hot Dog Sale

The Student Council is sponsoring a hot dog sale today, Thursday. Seventh and eighth graders will be kept busy, serving 200 or more students.

Halloween Party

The Halloween party which was sponsored by the Mothers' club and the Student Council was a successful affair, thanks to the many mothers who baked and helped with refreshments. Practically everyone was in costume and a costume parade was held at 8 p.m. They were judged by grades and the judges had a hard time picking the winners from so many well designed costumes. There were treats for all the children and the upper grades furnished games and a spook house for entertainment. Many thanks to the Mothers' club and all who helped with the party.

Mothers' Club

The regular meeting of the Mothers' club will be held the second Wednesday of the month due to school being closed for Armistice Day. Plan now on attending Wednesday, November 10, at 1:30 p.m.

The Mothers' club will have a toy demonstration at Elk Grove school tonight, Thursday, at 7:30 o'clock. This is a wonderful opportunity to select your child's toys without getting into the Christmas rush. Plan now to come and look over the toys exhibited. Toys in all price groups will be offered.

Phone Mrs. Ann Fritchley, Va. 4-0347, if you have news items.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kindt arrived Saturday from Los Angeles, Calif., with their two daughters, Karen and Terri. They intend to make their home here after residing in California for the past twelve years. Mrs. Kindt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nolting.

Mrs. Ann Fritchley and her three daughters were involved in an auto accident Saturday night at the intersection of Oakton st. and Wolf rd. No one was seriously injured except Sandra, who had a fractured nose. However, all were shaken up and Mrs. Opal Glassie is still feeling the shock of being in the car with her sister.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Man's true selfhood as the spiritual image and likeness of God, ever free from sin, sickness, and suffering will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday, November 7.

The Lesson - Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" includes the following passage from the King James Version of the Bible (Genesis 1:27): "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

The unchanging perfection of the man of God's creation will be brought out in passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy including the following (476:28-32): "When speaking of God's children, not the children of men, Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is within you'; that is, Truth and Love reign in the real man, showing that man in God's image is unfallen and eternal."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Man's true selfhood as the spiritual image and likeness of God, ever free from sin, sickness, and suffering will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday, November 7.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" includes the following passage from the King James Version of the Bible (Genesis 1:27): "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

The unchanging perfection of the man of God's creation will be brought out in passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy including the following (476:28-32): "When speaking of God's children, not the children of men, Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is within you'; that is, Truth and Love reign in the real man, showing that man in God's image is unfallen and eternal."

No Need for "Second Best"

Many families who are traditionally referred to as our community's "first families" have called Lauterburg & Oehler in time of need. The same fine service and facilities that have served these families are always available at a cost within the reach of all.

New Y.M.C.A. Stamp Club Has First Meeting

Paul Lueck, Des Plaines, met last week with the newly formed YMCA stamp club, composed of boys and girls 9 to 12 years of age.

A stamp collector for many years, Mr. Lueck was formerly affiliated with the Des Plaines Junior high school stamp club. He acted as its leader for 3½ years.

Thirteen persons are active in this enthusiastic group. It meets at the YMCA office, 1488 Miner st., Des Plaines, on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month at 7 p.m.

Future programs will include a trip to the stamp exhibition at the Edgewater Beach hotel, speakers on various phases of stamp collecting, correspondence with stamp collectors of other countries plus the ongoing club activities. Further information can be obtained at the YMCA office in Des Plaines. (ACM

New Y.M.C.A. Stamp Club Has First Meeting

Paul Lueck, Des Plaines, met last week with the newly formed YMCA stamp club, composed of boys and girls 9 to 12 years of age.

A stamp collector for many years, Mr. Lueck was formerly affiliated with the Des Plaines Junior high school stamp club. He acted as its leader for 3½ years.

Thirteen persons are active in this enthusiastic group. It meets at the YMCA office, 1488 Miner st., Des Plaines, on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month at 7 p.m.

Future programs will include a trip to the stamp exhibition at the Edgewater Beach hotel, speakers on various phases of stamp collecting, correspondence with stamp collectors of other countries plus the ongoing club activities. Further information can be obtained at the YMCA office in Des Plaines. (ACM

Scouting Stork Brings Birth To New Cub Pack

District Commissioner Raymond Woodruff, officer of the Blackhawk District, proudly announced, the charter of a new Cub Pack in Arlington Heights. Raymond Tagtmeier, institutional representative for Boy Scout troop 37, supplied the information as to the forming of this new Cub Scout Pack number 37.

October 20, the Lutheran Mens club of Arlington Heights held a dinner-meeting to present the Cub Pack charter to the president of the club, who is representing the club as sponsor of this new Pack, in the Lutheran activities building. Colors were presented by Pack 37's Cub Den Chiefs.

Following, Rev. Stephan led a prayer and dinner was served by the Lutheran Ladies auxiliary. In attendance, besides the throngs of eager to learn of this new Pack, were many guests of honor, to mention a few, Rev. Stephan, William Berg, president of the Lutheran Mens Club, District Commissioner Raymond Woodruff, Cub master Ivor Frueling, and on hand as usual, Ernie Tagge, Scoutmaster of the 'mother Troop 37.'

The Cub Pack's founders would also like to gratefully acknowledge the Arlington Heights American Legion Merle Guild Post 208, for their kindness in presenting the new Pack with an American flag, and Troop 37 for the Pack flag.

300 Masons Honor Grand Master At Arlington Lodge Anniversary

Three hundred members of the Masonic fraternity from a wide area attended the twenty-fifth anniversary of Arlington Heights Lodge No. 1162 A.F. & A.M. Saturday night.

Carroll T. Hughes, most worshipful grandmaster of the State of Illinois, made an official visit to the lodge that evening. He was accompanied by the following grand officers: James Green, most worshipful past grand master and present grand treasurer; Milton T. Sonntag, right worshipful deputy grand master; Harold R. Kopfman, right worshipful senior grand warden; Lloys A. Graham, right worshipful district deputy grand master of the Nineteenth Masonic District of Illinois; Stafford B. Light, secretary of the board of grand examiners. There were also in attendance 11 right worshipful district deputy grand masters of other Illinois districts.

Near the close of the evening the grand master presented to John Sigwalt his 50 year membership pin. Prior to the organization of Arlington Heights lodge, he was a member of Humboldt Park Lodge.

There are three other members of the Arlington Heights lodge who have similar pins. They are William C. Mueller, George K. Volz and Dr. B. T. Best, all of whom are former members of Palatine Lodge No. 314 A.F. & A.M.

A turkey dinner was served to 240 members in the dining room of the Presbyterian church, prior to the opening of lodge.

H. P. Rodgers is the retiring master of the Arlington Heights lodge. The annual election is being held this evening.

About the Barber Shoppers....

By GEORGE GLOW

Bob Isaacson, president of the Arlington Heights Chapter SPEB SQSA, attended the Illinois State Barber Shop quartet contest held about a month ago. Among the finalists was a quartet known as the Masqueraders "Q" Chicago.

It was the unusual and unique stage presence and exceptional close harmony of this quartet that prompted Bob to include this quartet on the 4th Annual Night of Harmony which the Arlington Heights Chapter will present November 21, at 8:15 p.m. in the old auditorium of the high school in Arlington Heights.

This quartet, together with the Kord Kings from Oak Park and the internationally famous Schmitt Brothers quartet from Two Rivers, Wis., will bring to Arlington Heights as fine a program as anyone has ever viewed or heard on television or radio.

Tickets may be purchased from Barney Erickson at the office of the Krause and Kehe, corner of Campbell and Dunton, or any member of the Chapter.

Stuart Paddock Jr. Elected President Of Suburban Publishers

Stuart Paddock Jr., of Paddock Publications, Arlington Heights, has been elected president of the Cook county Suburban Publishers for 1954-1955.

The association represents 51 community newspapers in Cook county.

Other officers are Paul Coffman, vice president; Claude Walker, secretary; V. E. Deckert, treasurer; and Vernon Nickless Jr., chairman of the board.

Raymond Peacock and Floyd Fulle were inducted as members of the board which include W. E. Williams, Sandy Hollister and Harold Volp.

Y.M.C.A. Board Of Governors Has Meeting Tonight

Thomas M. Blake, chairman of the YMCA board of directors, said this week that the board of governors of the Northwest Suburban "Y" will have its first meeting Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Mount Prospect village hall.

Dr. John R. McCurdy, president of George Williams college, will be the guest speaker.

The board of governors is the governing member body of the newly established YMCA and meets once a year to receive the report of the board of directors.

A brief comment will also be made by L. L. McClow, general secretary of YMCA of Chicago. Reports will be given by various members of the board of directors.

Those participating in the program include Percy Baines, chairman of the by-laws committee; Nicholas Lattof, chairman of the nominating committee; George Orescan, chairman of the finance committe; and Rev. Victor Brown, pastor, First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights. Refreshments will be served by the newly formed Tri-Hi-Y club of Des Plaines.

Another feature of the program will be recognition of volunteer leaders who have given unselfishly of their time to lead youth club groups during the past year. Those to be recognized are: Jack Lanckhoff, Vera Blazek, Charle Bennett, Marcia Bennett, Tom Makos, and Mrs. Olsen. (ACM

Chapeau Club of Ft. Linden Council Knights of Columbus will present Kathryn Skeffington and the Singing Grandmothers' chorus in "The Shining Hour," an all new 2-hour musical comedy Saturday at 8:15 p.m. at the Maine Township high school auditorium, Dempster and Potter sts., Des Plaines.

Mrs. Skeffington is founder and director of this chorus which obtained its charter in 1942, and has entertained in and around Chicago ever since, with many visits to Veterans' hospitals and homes ofr the aged. Feature articles on this group have appeared in the "American Magazine" and many other leading periodicals in this country and Europe.

Chairman of this event, Past Grand Knight Pete Erbach, extends a welcome to everyone to attend. Tickets are $1.10 including tax, and are available at the door or from any member of Fr. Linden Council. All seats are unreserved. "The Shining Hour" is an all new show for this season, and is the only one of its kind in the world. It includes stars of yesteryear, grandmothers who are stars of stage, radio, and TV today and the famous grandmother band featuring Mrs. McNamara and her unique band.

The board of governors is the governing member body of the newly established YMCA and meets once a year to receive the report of the board of directors.

A brief comment will also be made by L. L. McClow, general secretary of YMCA of Chicago. Reports will be given by various members of the board of directors.

Those participating in the program include Percy Baines, chairman of the by-laws committee; Nicholas Lattof, chairman of the nominating committee; George Orescan, chairman of the finance committe; and Rev. Victor Brown, pastor, First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights. Refreshments will be served by the newly formed Tri-Hi-Y club of Des Plaines.

Another feature of the program will be recognition of volunteer leaders who have given unselfishly of their time to lead youth club groups during the past year. Those to be recognized are: Jack Lanckhoff, Vera Blazek, Charles Bennett, Marcia Bennett, Tom Makos, and Mrs. Olsen. (ACM

Inverness To Build $200,000 Club House

Inverness Golf club, Palatine, announced plans this week for a $200,000 club house and swimming pool.

Betram A. Weber of Chicago is architect for the modified colonial structure to feature a dining room, lounge, mixed grille, kitchens, men and women's locker rooms, terrace and porch.

The club has secured an additional 15 acres of land located on a high knoll at the south end of the golf course. The added acreage will provide a practice fairway, a green with traps, a putting green, and parking space for automobiles.

INVERNESS WAS formerely owned by Cudahy Packing co. officials who named it Meadow Grove country club. It has always been considered a sporty, interesting golf course and with the new facilities is expected to be one of the finest clubs in the northwest area.

The new club house will necessitate the change of several holes on the course.

Hole 6 will now be the first hole, 5 will change to 9, 13 will become 10, and 12 wil switch to 18.

Many committees have had a part in the planning of the new club house which is expected to be completed by June 1, 1955. Roy LaLonde, membership chairman, reports that a lot of interest has been exhibited by golfers to whom the plans have been shown.

Palatine Gets Swimming Pool in Landslide Vote

Voters of the Palatine Park District by the overwhelming vote of 918 to 160 approved the proposition to issue $190,000 of Park Bonds for the purpose of building a swimming pool and tennis courts.

The record turnout was the result of the keen interest of the residents of Palatine in voicing their approval to support needed community improvements which provide better living for all.

Voting by precincts was as follows:

Precinct No. 1

Total	Yes	No	Spoiled
354	288	62	4

Precinct No. 2

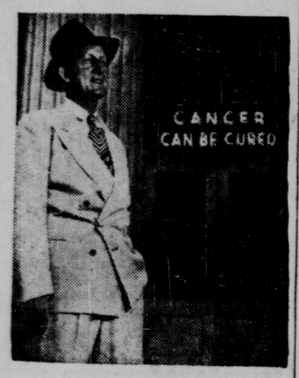
Total	Yes	No	Spoiled
731	630	98	3

Total votes cast	Yes	No	Spoiled
1085	918	160	7

The Palatine Park Board lost no time in proceeding to carry out the wishes of the voters and called a meeting on the new project with the architects Sunday afternoon October 31. The plan was thoroughly reviewed in detail. The architects, Walton and Walton, promise the first working drawings within a week.

The park commissioners said at this meeting that the board will work unceasingly to fulfill the promise of completion of the pool and tennis courts for use next summer.

Cancer Meeting



EDWARD REID

"My wife nagged me," a complaint that has lead to homicide, mayhem, and countless divorces, will keynote the life-saving program of the American Cancer Society, Illinois Division on November 11 and 12.

Featured speaker of the conference will be Edward F. Reid, prominent lawyer from Alabama who will talk at the dinner meeting Thursday, November 11.

Of particular interest to physicians, who comprise half of the membership of each of the society's 95 chapters in Illinois, will be the medical session Thursday morning emphasizing the responsibility of the physician in the detection, diagnosis and treatment of cancer.

New 'Drop Out' Rules On Social Security

Many persons have inquired recently concerning the advantages to them of the "drop-out" provision of the social security amendments.

Acocrding to Miss Ellen McGuire, manager of the social security administration district office at 5306 W. Lawrence ave., this will mean the payment of a higher benefit in many cases. The amount that can be paid is based on the worker's average monthly wage.

Before the amendments, the total earnings of a worker had to be averaged over the entire period he could have worked under social security . This was true even though in some of those years he had no earnings, or very low earnings. Frequently this resulted in a material reduction in his average monthly wage. Now, by dropping from one to four years and in some cases five years, the benefit will, in most cases, be based only on those years when the earnings were highest.

Seek Improved Ways To Handle Driver Training Students

High school teachers in charge of the students' driver education courses are meeting with Chicago Motor Club Safety Directors in Indiana and Illinois seeking improved methods for handling the increased numbers of boys and girls taking the course this year.

Increasing demands for the course re typified by Pekin, Ill., which has a 20 per cent increase in driver training enrollment, Palmyra, Illinois' Northwestern high school where 20 more students asked for course than the expected; and Jacksonville, where the high school faculty has already accepted its limit for the semester starting in 1955.

The first meetings held by the teachers and club officials were in Elkhart, Ind., and Springfield, October 25. Three others were held, Urbana, Arlington Heights, and Ft. Wayne, Ind., November 1. The final session will be for teachers in western Illinois who meet in Moline, November 8.

The greatest interest at these meetings, according to the Motor club's safety directors was standardizing upon programs with automobile dealers. Most schools have been rotating different makes of automobiles to give several automobile dealers opportunity to demonstrate their cars. This has resulted in past years in 7,300 automobile dealers supplying driver education cars.

Short-Time Jobs

There's little security in a major league managerial post, reveals The Sporting News. Only two of the 16 big league pilots can boast of more than five years of uninterrupted service with one club. They are Leo Durocher of the New York Giants, who has six and one-half years of service with the Polo Grounders, and Casey Stengel, manager of the New York Yankees for six years.

Name Halloween Prize Winners At School

Fifty-two school children will be awarded prizes and ribbons Thursday as winners in the Halloween window-painting contest sponsored by the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce.

Presentation of awards will be made in the Chamber's office on the first floor of village hall. Winners' credentials must be shown at the office.

Cooperating in the city-wide competition were the Arlington Heights Women's club, the principals of Our Lady of the Wayside, St. Peter. and Junior high schools, and the Junior high arts instructor. The Chamber wishes to thank them for their cooperation.

Winning teams were divided into age groups. Team A was eighth grade and team B was seventh grade.

Group A first prize went to Roger Rosene and Paul Peters of Junior high who decorated the State Farm Insurance co.

Group A honorable mentions go to Lilian Luba and Eleanor Shauley of Wayside school for their painting at Arlington Furniture Mart.

The decoration of two other Mayfair windows won prizes for Grace Beckway, Clair Reid, Donald Boehmer, and Ken Schwartz all of Wayside.

Karen Meyer and Sandra Lemke, St. Peters, Bill and Berts Bootery.

Simone Maichow and June Dew, St. Peters, for Beauty Bar; and also Beauty Bar winners from St. Peters, Karen Huber and Eva Lash.

Group B first prize winners were Carol Kasl and Dawn Davis of Junior high, who decorated a window at A & P.

Second prize went to Lois Coert and Sharon Smith of Junior high for their painting at Public Service co.

Third prize went to another Public Service window, decorated by Marilyn Lasher and Karen Lohr of Junior high.

MAC SAYS - By G. A. McELROY

GLENBROOK IN ITS SECOND YEAR as a school, has won a sports championship. The Spartans can do no worse than tie even if they lose to Ela-Vernon this week, and there seems little chance of this happening. Meanwhile Palatine and Antioch with 5-1 records will battle at Palatine Community park for second place. Last year Palatine was fourth, Antioch second, and Glenbrook third with Ela, now in fourth place, the unbeaten champ.

While we were writing last week that Glenbrook would not have night football and would go along with other North Shore residential communities with the Saturday afternoon variety, the board of education was changing its mind and accepting a proposition for a lighted field.

And what is more, the lights will be in this week so the Spartans will play their final game Friday night under the arcs. Both Glenbrook teams are undefeated and should really draw for the final night of an all victorious season.

NEXT MONDAY NIGHT the football coaches will have a dinner meeting at Phil Johnson's on Waukegan road and will come forth with their all-conference teams. They will, this year, pick both an offensive and a defensive lineup.

We hope the horse trading tactics used last year by some schools to get boys on the teams is not resorted to again. We do not feel a group of coaches can get together and in an open meeting pick a real all conference team.

This year there are many fine backfield performers. We wonder why the offensive and defensive team. The real all-conference players were good enough to play both offense and defense, or is the plan just to get more boys with all-conference rating?

COACH COLLYER up at Grant is anything but optimistic about basketball this year. The Bulldogs won their first cage title in the 25 years their school has been in existence but getting in the first division may be a problem this year. Three casualties in a week have hurt Grant.

Ed Havel, a clever lefty who played on the soph team at Morton of Cicero last year, is hurt and out of basketball by doctor's orders.

Bossow, frosh-soph center last year, broke an ankle in football last week. Pat Tierney, six-foot-five varsity center prospect in basketball, has a bad knee which has eliminated him from football and the early part of the basketball season.

ROUND BALL IS REPLACING FOOTBALL at Arlington Heights high school where final varsity and frosh-soph games are scheduled for this weekend at Hinsdale. JV's and freshmen have already completed their schedule. Final cross country match is slated for this Thursday, also at Hinsdale.

Grid victories were few and far between for the Cardinals this fall, but improvement in play of the freshmen during the season, plus some good performances by the sophomores at season's end give a brighter outlook for the future. Barring upsets, Arlington should escape the cellar in the varsity half of the West Suburban, and, with outstanding play Saturday, could also avoid the cellar in the frosh-soph division.

Between now and the end of February, Arlington Heights basketball teams will play 60 games, plus two tournaments.

Freshman and J. V. doubleheaders, ten in number, are in the air, including the same West Suburban schedule as the varsity and frosh-sophs the "second time around." Complete schedule of the wrestlers hasn't been announced yet. Gymnastics team is taking form, too, though the sport is still in its infancy throughout the area, meaning few meets can be scheduled.

WESTERN STATE COLLEGE at Macomb where "Tinker" Meyer of Palatine is enrolled, has won their conference three years in a row in golf and has a veteran team. This fall in the tournament in which all golfers participated, Meyer was the winner in match play, beating Chris Phelps of Highland Park, 3-2 in the final.

Phelps is at Western on a golf scholarship. Meyer shot a 69 in the final match so it looks like "Tinker" will be on the college golf team next spring.

Scoring in Northwest football is a two man proposition. Alan Eck, who was second a week ago, got 25 points to pass Bob Boyd of Glenbrook, who tallied 14.

Eck has 68 and Boyd 59. The next high is Bill Gallagher of Antioch with 30. Eleven of Boyd's points are on points after touchdowns.

WE HAVE ALWAYS THOUGHT that Bill Lehmann of Ela was the best football coach in the Northwest conference. He has never had a poor team. This year he has had the poorest material in the league without any question. He lost the first two games by identical 26-0 scores.

Since then Ela has not been beaten, though they will be overmatched at Glenbrook this week. Lehmann's teams always improve through the season, are tough on defense, and well grounded in fundamentals. This year's coaching job removes any doubt we have ever had about where Lehmann ranks as a football coach.

CLIFF VOSS OF RIVERSIDE recently scored on a 45 yard TD run in a DeKalb college JV game, the squad posting a break even record this year . . . Leading pass catchers with the DeKalb varsity include end Joe Moser of Northbrook and halfback Tom Skubich of Hinsdale with seven apiece . . . Glenbard grad Roy Everson has been playing with the Carth-

Palatine Could Be Champs If Glenbrook Loses

The game of the week in the final set of the season in the Northwest conference will be Antioch at Palatine in a double bill slated for 6:30. Pirates and Sequoits are deadlocked in second place with 5-1 records.

Each has a 6-1 mark for all-games played this season. Both have lost only to unbeaten Glenbrook, Palatine by 7-0 and Antioch by 18-6.

Antioch lost three regulars by injuries three weeks ago but their replacements, Hummel at end, Terry at tackle, and Schroeder at fullback have performed in a very effective manner. In recent weeks Antioch beat Bensenville, 43-0, while Palatine beat them, 32-0. Last week Antioch nosed out Wauconda 7-6 but a week earlier Palatine belted Wauconda 27-7.

BOTH TEAMS beat Ela, 26-0, at the start of the season. Antioch beat Grant, 12-6, while the Palatine-Grant score was 19-0. Against Grayslake Palatine won 18-9 while Antioch scored a 15-0 win. According to scores there is little to choose between them.

Palatine has and uses more reserves. Antioch's first string may be a bit better than Palatine's.

The Pirates have in Alan Eck a potential threat for a long touchdown run every time he carries the ball. Antioch has no one who can match him, though Bill Gallagher is fast and clever. The game is a tossup.

GLENBROOK, playing their first and last game of the season under the new floodlights at home against Ela-Vernon, is a three touchdown favorite to cop their seventh in a row for an unbeaten season. Except for Schulteis, who was injured before the season opened, and Ken Schmidt, who missed a game or two with a bad knee, the Glenbrook starters have been free from injuries, an important factor in any team's success.

Coach Walter Sherman has done a fine job with fine material. Ela, like Grayslake, may be a tough defensive team but probably not strong enough to dent the powerful Spartan line for any touchdowns.

AT FOX LAKE the Grant Bulldogs will probably pull into a fourth place tie with Ela-Vernon at Bensenville's expense. Tom Meneguin's Bisons do not have squad strength, have been hampered by injuries, and are rather weak defensively, giving up an average of 26 points a game to the opposition. The Bisons have lost five straight since beating Grayslake 15-6 in the opener.

Wauconda will close the season at home Saturday afternoon with Grayslake. Coach Friberg has a good offensive team at Wauconda but has beaten only Bensenville, 33-13. They will find Grayslake very tough.

THE BREAKS, which have all gone against Coach Pat Rooney's Grayslake Rams, must turn sometime and this may be the game the Rams will use to get into the victory column. Grayslake lost a one pointer to Grant and to Ela-Vernon, and played very good ball against Antioch, Palatine, and Glenbrook.

Grayslake is not the weakest team in the league but is going to have to win a game to prove it in the standings. This is their last chance and the odds favor them.

Card 60 Games, 2 Tourneys For 4 Arlington Cage Teams

Sixty-seven boys reported Monday for initial basketball practices at Arlington Heights high school with all three teams working out under the direction of three coaches. Almost as many more boys are expected to report as soon as football and cross country are over.

Sixty games are scheduled for varsity, frosh-soph, frosh and JV squads this year with 18 doubleheaders on tap for varsity and sophomores. In addition, the varsity will compete in St. Edward holiday tournament and the state tournament at season's end. The freshmen and JV's will each play 12 games with a couple more games that may be added.

FIRST GAME for the top two squads will be against Woodstock just two weeks from Friday. Opening contests are slated for the Heights gym Friday, November 19, with the Cardinals traveling to Palatine the following Wednesday.

Coaching the varsity will be Howard Lester with Maurice Klotz handling the frosh-sophs, and Ken Schaler and "Bus" Ormsbee the freshmen. Reporting for the varsity Monday were 20 boys with 15 more expected next week. Signing in with the frosh-sophs were 22, with 20 more expected. Working out for the frosh five were 25, with 30 more looked for.

Frosh and JV slate will follow the same West Suburban second half schedule for the varsity, except locations will be reversed, with games Saturday mornings.

Card Harriers Edge Palatine

After losing one point decisions to Downers and York, the Arlington Heights high school cross country team proved it could take a close one, too, by edging Palatine Tuesday, 27-28.

It was the work of seven boys that gave Coach Russ Attis his one point decision, five who counted 28 and two boys who held the fifth Palatine man to 12th spot. If Gordon had finished 10th instead of 12th, the Pirates would have won the match.

FIRST PLACE was won by Leonard Wiese of Palatine with John Sheppard of Arlington second. These two boys finished neck-and-neck in the district Saturday at Evanston. The same held true at Palatine Tuesday.

Odds Against Devils' Upset By Arlington

by BOB PADDOCK

The odds are against David G. Arlington pulling any sort of heroic act against Goliath Q. Hinsdale Saturday afternoon, but the Cardinals are determined to make a game of it when they conclude the season against the Red Devils on the latters' field.

Hinsdale has outscored league opponents, 165-6 this year, the lone TD against them being counted by last place Glenbard, believe it or not. The leaders whipped Riverside, 33-0, York, and Maine, 21-0, Downers 29-0, LaGrange 13-0, and Glenbard, 48-6.

THE CARDINALS played their best game of the year against York Friday night before a Dad's night crowd, though losing in the last two minutes, 31-25. With two minutes to go the locals thought they had the game by one point, but couldn't make necessary yardage and were forced to punt, giving the winners their chance.

Ironically, the Heights squad which had been working on defense, not offense, all week, looked very good offensively. John Sujack looked his best, as did Wayne Malzahn, who showed plenty of power in hitting the line. Jack Ebert was another back who looked good.

DEFENSIVELY, though, the Cardinals looked anything but good. Boys were constantly being sucked out of position, and appeared to hold York for one play, then relax and watch two. The combination failed to stop the Dukes when the chips were down.

Coaches Ormsbee, Beckman and Kellogg are following the same practice schedule this week, emphasizing defense. In the preliminary it will be the Heights sophomores coached by John Ligon and Dick Mudge against second place Hinsdale, which has lost to Downers (19-7) and Glenbard (6-0). The Cardinals lost to Downers (32-13) and tied Glenbard (6-6). Hinsdale sophs beat York (33-0) which should prove a Hinsdale victory by one TD.

Midget Players To Turn In Equipment; More Games Next Year

Midget football program of the Arlington Heights park district was concluded Friday night with two exhibitions between halves of the frosh-soph game on the high school field.

Next year's program will be bigger than ever, according to program director "Bus" Ormsbee, with exhibitions planned for between halves of the frosh-soph games at all high school home contests.

The boys turned out in surprisingly large numbers Friday, in spite of the cold. All boys in the midget program in Heights are asked to turn in their equipment, including jerseys, pads and head gear, this Saturday, November 6, between 9 and 10 a.m.

45 Grand Slams

Forty-five home runs with the bases full were hit in the majors during the past season, with 24 coming in the National League and 21 in the American. The Sporting News says the total was one under the 1953 total and 23 below the all-time record of 68 hit in 1950. The New York Giants led in team production of grand-slam homers this year with seven.

Mt. Prospect Graders Trip Wheeling, 14-6, In Flag Football

by RICHARD HARRIS

Wheeling grade school lost a close football game to Mount Prospect Central school, 14-6, last Tuesday. The game, played on the Wheeling field, was the first interscholastic flag-football game played by either school. A return match has been scheduled between the two schools, weather permitting.

This game and the intra-mural program at Mt. Prospect introduced to about twenty-five Wheeling boys and sixty Mount Prospect boys the fundamentals of tackle football for the first time. It is the beginning of an all out effort by the two schools to bring athletics to more boys and to develop better athletes in the area.

Flag-football has all the elements of tackle football, save the "tackle." Rather than tackling the ball-carrier, a nine inch flag is pulled from his belt. All the eligible carriers wear a flag in their belt. Since this flag has only nine inches showing, the "tackler" must be skillful to retrieve it.

First Call For Wrestling At Arlington High

First call for wrestling was issued this week by Coach Dick Mudge at Arlington Heights high school where close to 65 boys are expected to report Monday afternoon, November 8.

Helping Mudge this year will be Maurice Kellogg, serving as frosh-soph mentor. Last year's varsity racked up a 9-6 won-lost mark, the frosh-sophs finishing 8-6. Interest in the comparatively new sport is picking up and Coach Mudge is hoping for a greater turnout than last season when 65 boys worked out.

Five lettermen will be on hand. They include Vic Carlino, who took fourth in his weight in the state last year, Ken Bredfeldt, Wally Mulso, Floyd Burnds and Bruce Wilkerson. Senior manager will be Rick Rademaker.

JV's Lose

MAC SAYS - By G. A. McELROY

GLENBROOK IN ITS SECOND YEAR as a school, has won a sports championship. The Spartans can do no worse than tie even if they lose to Ela-Vernon this week, and there seems little chance of this happening. Meanwhile Palatine and Antioch with 5-1 records will battle at Palatine Community park for second place. Last year Palatine was fourth, Antioch second, and Glenbrook third with Ela, now in fourth place, the unbeaten champ.

While we were writing last week that Glenbrook would not have night football and would go along with other North Shore residential communities with the Saturday afternoon variety, the board of education was changing its mind and accepting a proposition for a lighted field.

And what is more, the lights will be in this week so the Spartans will play their final game Friday night under the arcs. Both Glenbrook teams are undefeated and should really draw for the final night of an all victorious season.

NEXT MONDAY NIGHT the football coaches will have a dinner meeting at Phil Johnson's on Waukegan road and will come forth with their all-conference teams. They will, this year, pick both an offensive and a defensive lineup.

We hope the horse trading tactics used last year by some schools to get boys on the teams is not resorted to again. We do not feel a group of coaches can get together and in an open meeting pick a real all conference team.

This year there are many fine backfield performers. We wonder why the offensive and defensive team. The real all-conference players were good enough to play both offense and defense, or is the plan just to get more boys with all-conference rating?

COACH COLLYER up at Grant is anything but optimistic about basketball this year. The Bulldogs won their first cage title in the 25 years their school has been in existence but getting in the first division may be a problem this year. Three casualties in a week have hurt Grant.

Ed Havel, a clever lefty who played on the soph team at Morton of Cicero last year, is hurt and out of basketball by doctor's orders.

Bossow, frosh-soph center last year, broke an ankle in football last week. Pat Tierney, six-foot-five varsity center prospect in basketball, has a bad knee which has eliminated him from football and the early part of the basketball season.

ROUND BALL IS REPLACING FOOTBALL at Arlington Heights high school where final varsity and frosh-soph games are scheduled for this weekend at Hinsdale. JV's and freshmen have already completed their schedule. Final cross country match is slated for this Thursday, also at Hinsdale.

Grid victories were few and far between for the Cardinals this fall, but improvement in play of the freshmen during the season, plus some good performances by the sophomores at season's end give a brighter outlook for the future. Barring upsets, Arlington should escape the cellar in the varsity half of the West Suburban, and, with outstanding play Saturday, could also avoid the cellar in the frosh-soph division.

Between now and the end of February, Arlington Heights basketball teams will play 60 games, plus two tournaments.

Freshman and J. V. doubleheaders, ten in number, are in the air, including the same West Suburban schedule as the varsity and frosh-sophs the "second time around." Complete schedule of the wrestlers hasn't been announced yet. Gymnastics team is taking form, too, though the sport is still in its infancy throughout the area, meaning few meets can be scheduled.

WESTERN STATE COLLEGE at Macomb where "Tinker" Meyer of Palatine is enrolled, has won their conference three years in a row in golf and has a veteran team. This fall in the tournament in which all golfers participated, Meyer was the winner in match play, beating Chris Phelps of Highland Park, 3-2 in the final.

Phelps is at Western on a golf scholarship. Meyer shot a 69 in the final match so it looks like "Tinker" will be on the college golf team next spring.

Scoring in Northwest football is a two man proposition. Alan Eck, who was second a week ago, got 25 points to pass Bob Boyd of Glenbrook, who tallied 14.

Eck has 68 and Boyd 59. The next high is Bill Gallagher of Antioch with 30. Eleven of Boyd's points are on points after touchdowns.

WE HAVE ALWAYS THOUGHT that Bill Lehmann of Ela was the best football coach in the Northwest conference. He has never had a poor team. This year he has had the poorest material in the league without any question. He lost the first two games by identical 26-0 scores.

Since then Ela has not been beaten, though they will be overmatched at Glenbrook this week. Lehmann's teams always improve through the season, are tough on defense, and well grounded in fundamentals. This year's coaching job removes any doubt we have ever had about where Lehmann ranks as a football coach.

CLIFF VOSS OF RIVERSIDE recently scored on a 45 yard TD run in a DeKalb college JV game, the squad posting a break even record this year . . . Palatine Could Be Champs If Glenbrook Loses

The game of the week in the final set of the season in the Northwest conference will be Antioch at Palatine in a double bill slated for 6:30. Pirates and Sequoits are deadlocked in second place with 5-1 records.

Each has a 6-1 mark for all-games played this season. Both have lost only to unbeaten Glenbrook, Palatine by 7-0 and Antioch by 18-6.

Antioch lost three regulars by injuries three weeks ago but their replacements, Hummel at end, Terry at tackle, and Schroeder at fullback have performed in a very effective manner. In recent weeks Antioch beat Bensenville, 43-0, while Palatine beat them, 32-0. Last week Antioch nosed out Wauconda 7-6 but a week earlier Palatine belted Wauconda 27-7.

BOTH TEAMS beat Ela, 26-0, at the start of the season. Antioch beat Grant, 12-6, while the Palatine-Grant score was 19-0. Against Grayslake Palatine won 18-9 while Antioch scored a 15-0 win. According to scores there is little to choose between them.

FIRST PLACE was won by Leonard Wiese of Palatine with John Sheppard of Arlington second. These two boys finished neck-and-neck in the district Saturday at Evanston. The same held true at Palatine Tuesday.

by BOB PADDOCK

The odds are against David G. Arlington pulling any sort of heroic act against Goliath Q. Hinsdale Saturday afternoon, but the Cardinals are determined to make a game of it when they conclude the season against the Red Devils on the latters' field.

Hinsdale has outscored league opponents, 165-6 this year, the lone TD against them being counted by last place Glenbard, believe it or not. The leaders whipped Riverside, 33-0, York, and Maine, 21-0, Downers 29-0, LaGrange 13-0, and Glenbard, 48-6.

THE CARDINALS played their best game of the year against York Friday night before a Dad's night crowd, though losing in the last two minutes, 31-25. With two minutes to go the locals thought they had the game by one point, but couldn't make necessary yardage and were forced to punt, giving the winners their chance.

Ironically, the Heights squad which had been working on defense, not offense, all week, looked very good offensively. John Sujack looked his best, as did Wayne Malzahn, who showed plenty of power in hitting the line. Jack Ebert was another back who looked good.

DEFENSIVELY, though, the Cardinals looked anything but good. Boys were constantly being sucked out of position, and appeared to hold York for one play, then relax and watch two. The combination failed to stop the Dukes when the chips were down.

Coaches Ormsbee, Beckman and Kellogg are following the same practice schedule this week, emphasizing defense. In the preliminary it will be the Heights sophomores coached by John Ligon and Dick Mudge against second place Hinsdale, which has lost to Downers (19-7) and Glenbard (6-0). The Cardinals lost to Downers (32-13) and tied Glenbard (6-6). Hinsdale sophs beat York (33-0) which should prove a Hinsdale victory by one TD.

Midget football program of the Arlington Heights park district was concluded Friday night with two exhibitions between halves of the frosh-soph game on the high school field.

Next year's program will be bigger than ever, according to program director "Bus" Ormsbee, with exhibitions planned for between halves of the frosh-soph games at all high school home contests.

The boys turned out in surprisingly large numbers Friday, in spite of the cold. All boys in the midget program in Heights are asked to turn in their equipment, including jerseys, pads and head gear, this Saturday, November 6, between 9 and 10 a.m.

45 Grand Slams

Forty-five home runs with the bases full were hit in the majors during the past season, with 24 coming in the National League and 21 in the American. The Sporting News says the total was one under the 1953 total and 23 below the all-time record of 68 hit in 1950. The New York Giants led in team production of grand-slam homers this year with seven.

Mt. Prospect Graders Trip Wheeling, 14-6, In Flag Football

by RICHARD HARRIS

Wheeling grade school lost a close football game to Mount Prospect Central school, 14-6, last Tuesday. The game, played on the Wheeling field, was the first interscholastic flag-football game played by either school. A return match has been scheduled between the two schools, weather permitting.

This game and the intra-mural program at Mt. Prospect introduced to about twenty-five Wheeling boys and sixty Mount Prospect boys the fundamentals of tackle football for the first time. It is the beginning of an all out effort by the two schools to bring athletics to more boys and to develop better athletes in the area.

Flag-football has all the elements of tackle football, save the "tackle." Rather than tackling the ball-carrier, a nine inch flag is pulled from his belt. All the eligible carriers wear a flag in their belt. Since this flag has only nine inches showing, the "tackler" must be skillful to retrieve it.

First Call For Wrestling At Arlington High

First call for wrestling was issued this week by Coach Dick Mudge at Arlington Heights high school where close to 65 boys are expected to report Monday afternoon, November 8.

Helping Mudge this year will be Maurice Kellogg, serving as frosh-soph mentor. Last year's varsity racked up a 9-6 won-lost mark, the frosh-sophs finishing 8-6. Interest in the comparatively new sport is picking up and Coach Mudge is hoping for a greater turnout than last season when 65 boys worked out.

Five lettermen will be on hand. They include Vic Carlino, who took fourth in his weight in the state last year, Ken Bredfeldt, Wally Mulso, Floyd Burnds and Bruce Wilkerson. Senior manager will be Rick Rademaker.

JV's Lose

York Edges Arlington In Wild Scoring Affair, 31-25

Both teams took turns scoring touchdowns on the Arlington Heights high school gridiron Friday night but it fell to York to grab one extra payoff with one minute left, and win the game, 31-27. The Cardinal frosh-sophs had won the preliminary in convincing fashion, 27-0.

Varsity contest was an example of ineffective defenses with just one of nine touchdowns scored via the air lines. The rest were the result of straight football on the ground. The passing parade was a short one with Heights completing one of five attempts, and York none of two.

OTHERWISE, the Elmhurst school won in the rushing department, 398-263. The Cardinals won in first downs, 18-11.

York kicked off with Arlington moving from the 30 until an interception on the 50 provided a golden opportunity. Castner carried to the 45 for York. Williams then sliced off tackle and went 42 yards for the first TD. The Cardinals came back with a touchdown starting with a 12 yard run by John Sujack to the York 46. Eight plays later Sujack ran the final 17 yards. Lew Green put Heights ahead, 7-6. York came right back, still in the opening period, with a quickie TD on a long punt return, 12 and 9 yard gains, a fumble but recovery, and a 29 yard dash by Castner.

ARLINGTON started a return drive, moving 30 yards to the York 40 as the quarter ended. The locals were stopped, however, after two passes fell incomplete on the Elmhurst 36. The Dukes drove the 64 yards to pay dirt in 11 plays, Zersen carried 34 yards in four plays, and went the final four yards for an 18-7 lead.

York kicked out of bounds on the Heights 40 and the Cards appeared determined to make the most of it. They took 13 plays to reach the York 13, from where Sujack tossed an aerial to Jack Johnston for the TD.

York tried to come back but Chris Blueberg nabbed Zersen on the two after a 51 yard dash just as the half ended.

THE CARDINALS' kickoff rolled dead on the four. York moved to the eight, the 31, the 38, the 48, until Castner scored from the 39. Arlington came back after Malzahn's 40 yard punt return. Ebert carried to the 29, then to the 23. Malzahn went to the ten, from where Sujack crosssed pay dirt.

York was held for downs, but Heights started from the 25, and punched the rest of the way, scoring at the start of the final quarter for a 25-24 point lead. The margin looked good when York was held at midfield but the locals couldn't take advantage of it.

Starting from their own 13, they moved only to the 20, then punted. York moved to the Heights 35, was penalized 15 yards, but then Zersen carried to the 21. Castner to the 15, and Zersen the rest of the way for the winning TD.

Arlington Frosh Beat York, 6-0

Arlington Heights freshman football squad beat York Monday at Elmhurst, 6-0. Webber went 35 yards around end for the TD. Particularly outstanding were Farleigh on defense and Bjorklund on offense, as he gained over 100 yards on the ground.

Most of the game was played between the two 20 yard stripes.

Coach Curtis Larsen complimented members of the team in staying out all year, with a limited number of drop outs. "The parents, too, who followed us to those games," continued Larsen, "deserve our thanks in helping maintain interest of the boys. We hope most of the boys come out again next year as sophomores."

Palatine 8th, Heights 9th, Cross Country

Leonard Wiese, Palatine senior cross country star, won fourth place last Saturday at Evanston in the state district meet and will run in the state meet at Urbana this coming Saturday. Wiese ran the two mile course in :10.2 and was very close behind the second place winner. First place was taken by the Evanston boy who won the state last year.

Palatine took eighth place in the team totals among 13 schools, beating out Arlington Heights, Elgin, North Chicago, Niles, and Glenbrook. Other Palatine boys with their order of finish among over 100 runners were Greenwood 39th, Hahnfeldt 40th, Bessemer 42nd, Gordon 47th, Hamilton 7th, and Fremd 73rd.

TEAM SCORES with lowest score finishing first were Proviso 50, Oak Park 62, Evanston 125, New Trier 130, Maine 131, Leyden 146, Waukegan 153, Palatine 172, Arlington Heights 196, Elgin 252, North Chicago 361, Niles 373, and Glenbrook 391.

John Sheppard, Arlington's No. 1 man, ran second all the way until the home stretch when he was passed by four boys, including Wiese of Palatine, who nosed him out of fifth spot. First five boys will go downstate, as will the winning team.

Eck's 4 TD's Leads Palatine In 32-0 Win Over Bensenville

Led by Alan Eck's four touchdowns, the Palatine Pirates smothered Bensenville, 32-0, Friday night at Palatine Community park before a chilled crowd which was the smallest since night football was started in Palatine.

Eck carried the ball 10 times for 112 yards and scored on runs of 32, 31, 16, and two yards and caught a pass for one extra point. The 25 points boosted his scoring total to 68 which leads the league by nine points over Bob Boyd of Glenbrook.

PALATINE'S LINE was alert and charging hard. They recovered four Bensenville fumbles and converted them into scoring opportunities. Doug Hildebrandt, who played one of his best games at tackle on defense, picked up three Bison fumbles and Larry Wheeler got the other.

The Pirates drove to the Bison 20 in the first quarter but a 15 yard penalty made it too tough to score. Right after the second period opened the Bisons fumbled on their own 16 yard line and Alan Eck side stepped his way through the line for the touchdown and then caught a pass from Ray Lorden for the extra point.

A little later Eck intercepted a Bensenville pass on his own 48 yard line. Penning and Lorden made it first down on the Bison 31 and from there Eck circled wide and cut back through the middle to score the second touchdown.

AT THE START of the second half Palatine took the kickoff on their own 40 yard line. Bruce McClung started the Pirates scoring drive with a 20 yard run. Jim Penning got eight yards in two plays and then Eck duplicated his run of the second period for his third touchdown.

On the second play after the kickoff which followed Larry Wheeler stole the ball from a Bison halfback on the Bensenville 21 yard line Palatine suffered two five yard penalties in a row but Eck sprinted 15 yards and McClung 11 to make it first down on the five. Eck plunged over in two tries and Lorden hit the line for the extra point.

THE BISONS' best effort was a march in the third quarter from their own 33 to the Palatine 19 where they lost the ball on downs. In the series of plays Tom Philiben had runs of six and nine yards and Neuman caught passes for gains of nine and 22 yards.

In the last quarter Hildebrandt recovered a Bensenville fumble on the 44 yard line and aided by runs of 10 yards each by Grabowry and Steve Cornwell the Pirates threatened but two 15 yard penalties delayed a score. However, Hildebrandt grabbed another Bison fumble a little later on the Bensenville 25. John Dilks ran off tackle for 10 yards and a 15 yard penalty moved the ball to the Bensenville one yard line where Jim Hess, substituting for Eck, put it over.

MOST OF Palatine's gains were around the ends and off tackle on their single wing and spread formations. Eck gained 112 yards in 10 tries, McClung had 40 in three trips, and John Dilks picked up 33 in four carries. The Pirates had a net from scrimmage of 239 yards on the ground to Bensenville's 37. Dick D'Hooge, ace halfback of the Bisons, was held in check rather effectively.

Best gain for Bensenville was an 18 yard run by Heinrich, a tackle shifted to fullback.

Roller Derby To Open November 10

Glamour girls will be plentiful when the Roller Derby starts at the Chicago Coliseum, Wednesday night, November 10, for a limited engagement. Never before will local Roller Derby fans see so many beautiful girls on the banked oval, and they can skate too. Such beauties as Barbara Mateer, Joan Spangle, Nellie Montague, Terri Lynch, Blanche Lopez are only a few of the gals who will dazzle the fans with their skating and looks.

There will be no games on Monday or Tuesday nights this series.

Palatine Freshmen Win Over Antioch

Palatine freshmen won another game last week by defeating Antioch, 27-12. The first year Pirates scored all 27 points in the first half.

Initial score was made when Lemanski recovered a fumble in the Antioch end zone and Wisner scored the extra point. Soon after Wisner scored on a 11 yard run. In the second period Danforth scored on a 40 yard pass play and following up a few minutes later with another catch of 30 yards good for a touchdown. Wisner converted two more extra points.

Antioch's touchdowns came in the second half on runs of 32 and 35 yards. Palatine had a net gain of 231 yards to Antioch's 105. Palatine's lineup included Danforth, Hertz, Elms, Howes, Bachman, Segebrecht, Helms, Wisner, King, Lemanski, and Mudlaff. Boys who saw action as subs were Gordon, Fitzner, Pracher, Villereal, Crane, Fredrichs, Mulvey, D. Miller, M. Miller, Hogan, Scholz, Etchingham, and Hess.

Glenbrook clinched no worse than a tie for the conference championship at their homecoming Saturday by defeating a stubborn Grayslake eleven, 20-0. It was the seventh straight win this season for the Spartans, who have taken six Northwest decisions and have only Ela-Vernon between them and an undefeated season.

Grayslake put up a strong defense which held Glenbroo kto 7-0 until late in the final quarter.

Bob Boyd scored in the opening period with a 30 yard end run and converted for a 7-0 lead which was all the margin his team had through the second and third period. In the final segment Boyd took a five yard pass from Duane Harms to insure Glenbrook a victory.

In the final minutes with Grayslake taking to the air in an effort to get back in the game Al Mackie, defensive right end, intercepted an aerial and ran 30 yards for the third and final tally. Boyd kicked the extra point, his 11th conversion of the conference campaign and his 13th in seven games.

York Harriers Beat Arlington By One

Arlington Heights high school harriers lost another one point decision, this time to York, on the Heights course, 27-28. Again it was John Sheppard who finished in 9:49 to take first place for Arlington.

Coach Russ Attis' boys finished third, fifth, ninth and tenth for the 28 points. Final match for the locals is this Thursday, November 4, at Hinsdale.

Arlington Frosh Beat York, 6-0

Arlington Heights freshman football squad beat York Monday at Elmhurst, 6-0. Webber went 35 yards around end for the TD. Particularly outstanding were Farleigh on defense and Bjorklund on offense, as he gained over 100 yards on the ground.

Most of the game was played between the two 20 yard stripes

Coach Curtis Larsen complimented members of the team in staying out all year, with a limited number of drop outs. "The parents, too, who followed us to those games," continued Larsen, "deserve our thanks in helping maintain interest of the boys. We hope most of the boys come out again next year as sophomores."

Palatine 8th, Heights 9th, Cross Country

Leonard Wiese, Palatine senior cross country star, won fourth place last Saturday at Evanston in the state district meet and will run in the state meet at Urbana this coming Saturday. Wiese ran the two mile course in :10.2 and was very close behind the second place winner. First place was taken by the Evanston boy who won the state last year.

Palatine took eighth place in the team totals among 13 schools, beating out Arlington Heights, Elgin, North Chicago, Niles, and Glenbrook. Other Palatine boys with their order of finish among over 100 runners were Greenwood 39th, Hahnfeldt 40th, Bessemer 42nd, Gordon 47th, Hamilton 7th, and Fremd 73rd.

TEAM SCORES with lowest score finishing first were Proviso 50, Oak Park 62, Evanston 125, New Trier 130, Maine 131, Leyden 146, Waukegan 153, Palatine 172, Arlington Heights 196, Elgin 252, North Chicago 361, Niles 373, and Glenbrook 391.

John Sheppard, Arlington's No. 1 man, ran second all the way until the home stretch when he was passed by four boys, including Wiese of Palatine, who nosed him out of fifth spot. First five boys will go downstate, as will the winning team.

Eck's 4 TD's Leads Palatine In 32-0 Win Over Bensenville

Led by Alan Eck's four touchdowns, the Palatine Pirates smothered Bensenville, 32-0, Friday night at Palatine Community park before a chilled crowd which was the smallest since night football was started in Palatine.

Eck carried the ball 10 times for 112 yards and scored on runs of 32, 31, 16, and two yards and caught a pass for one extra point. The 25 points boosted his scoring total to 68 which leads the league by nine points over Bob Boyd of Glenbrook.

PALATINE'S LINE was alert and charging hard. They recovered four Bensenville fumbles and converted them into scoring opportunities. Doug Hildebrandt, who played one of his best games at tackle on defense, picked up three Bison fumbles and Larry Wheeler got the other.

The Pirates drove to the Bison 20 in the first quarter but a 15 yard penalty made it too tough to score. Right after the second period opened the Bisons fumbled on their own 16 yard line and Alan Eck side stepped his way through the line for the touchdown and then caught a pass from Ray Lorden for the extra point.

A little later Eck intercepted a Bensenville pass on his own 48 yard line. Penning and Lorden made it first down on the Bison 31 and from there Eck circled wide and cut back through the middle to score the second touchdown.

AT THE START of the second half Palatine took the kickoff on their own 40 yard line. Bruce McClung started the Pirates scoring drive with a 20 yard run. Jim Penning got eight yards in two plays and then Eck duplicated his run of the second period for his third touchdown.

On the second play after the kickoff which followed Larry Wheeler stole the ball from a Bison halfback on the Bensenville 21 yard line Palatine suffered two five yard penalties in a row but Eck sprinted 15 yards and McClung 11 to make it first down on the five. Eck plunged over in two tries and Lorden hit the line for the extra point.

THE BISONS' best effort was a march in the third quarter from their own 33 to the Palatine 19 where they lost the ball on downs. In the series of plays Tom Philiben had runs of six and nine yards and Neuman caught passes for gains of nine and 22 yards.

In the last quarter Hildebrandt recovered a Bensenville fumble on the 44 yard line and aided by runs of 10 yards each by Grabowry and Steve Cornwell the Pirates threatened but two 15 yard penalties delayed a score. However, Hildebrandt grabbed another Bison fumble a little later on the Bensenville 25. John Dilks ran off tackle for 10 yards and a 15 yard penalty moved the ball to the Bensenville one yard line where Jim Hess, substituting for Eck, put it over.

MOST OF Palatine's gains were around the ends and off tackle on their single wing and spread formations. Eck gained 112 yards in 10 tries, McClung had 40 in three trips, and John Dilks picked up 33 in four carries. The Pirates had a net from scrimmage of 239 yards on the ground to Bensenville's 37. Dick D'Hooge, ace halfback of the Bisons, was held in check rather effectively.

Best gain for Bensenville was an 18 yard run by Heinrich, a tackle shifted to fullback.

Roller Derby To Open November 10

Glamour girls will be plentiful when the Roller Derby starts at the Chicago Coliseum, Wednesday night, November 10, for a limited engagement. Never before will local Roller Derby fans see so many beautiful girls on the banked oval, and they can skate too. Such beauties as Barbara Mateer, Joan Spangle, Nellie Montague, Terri Lynch, Blanche Lopez are only a few of the gals who will dazzle the fans with their skating and looks.

There will be no games on Monday or Tuesday nights this series.

Palatine Freshmen Win Over Antioch

Palatine freshmen won another game last week by defeating Antioch, 27-12. The first year Pirates scored all 27 points in the first half.

Initial score was made when Lemanski recovered a fumble in the Antioch end zone and Wisner scored the extra point. Soon after Wisner scored on a 11 yard run. In the second period Danforth scored on a 40 yard pass play and following up a few minutes later with another catch of 30 yards good for a touchdown. Wisner converted two more extra points.

Antioch's touchdowns came in the second half on runs of 32 and 35 yards. Palatine had a net gain of 231 yards to Antioch's 105. Palatine's lineup included Danforth, Hertz, Elms, Howes, Bachman, Segebrecht, Helms, Wisner, King, Lemanski, and Mudlaff. Boys who saw action as subs were Gordon, Fitzner, Pracher, Villereal, Crane, Fredrichs, Mulvey, D. Miller, M. Miller, Hogan, Scholz, Etchingham, and Hess.

Glenbrook clinched no worse than a tie for the conference championship at their homecoming Saturday by defeating a stubborn Grayslake eleven, 20-0. It was the seventh straight win this season for the Spartans, who have taken six Northwest decisions and have only Ela-Vernon between them and an undefeated season.

Grayslake put up a strong defense which held Glenbroo kto 7-0 until late in the final quarter.

Bob Boyd scored in the opening period with a 30 yard end run and converted for a 7-0 lead which was all the margin his team had through the second and third period. In the final segment Boyd took a five yard pass from Duane Harms to insure Glenbrook a victory.

In the final minutes with Grayslake taking to the air in an effort to get back in the game Al Mackie, defensive right end, intercepted an aerial and ran 30 yards for the third and final tally. Boyd kicked the extra point, his 11th conversion of the conference campaign and his 13th in seven games.

Arlington's frosh-soph football team rolled high, wide and handsome over York Friday night before a Dad's day crowd on the Heights field, 27-0. The victory moved Coach John Ligon's second year squad one notch out of last place with the final game against Hinsdale coming up Saturday.

Rushing statistics tell the story. The locals outdid themselves, 214-70, particularly the second half when they added 20 points to the previous 7-0 margin.

THE CARDS ran the initial kickoff from the 12 to midfield, then had to punt. York fumbled with the locals recovering on the 28. Ashley Haase made the touchdown in one 28 yard dash with a conversion by Dan Vittum making it 7-0.

The rest of the first half was a see-saw affair between the two 25's, except for one drive by York from its own 17 to the Heights ten just as the half ended. Biggest help here was a pass from Wingert to Evans for 31 yards.

SECOND HALF was a different game. York started fast, but was forced to punt from the Arlington 45. After one play when the locals moved the ball from the ten to the 13, Rick Fischer went 87 yards for the Cardinals for the second touchdown.

This run sparked the locals and it was all their game from then on. A York punt from the seven was blocked by Klehm, and rolled into the end zone for a safety, making it 15-0, Arlington, going into the final quarter.

ASHLEY HAASE dashed 36 yards early in the fourth period to set up another TD opportunity on the six, Fischer carrying the rest of the distance. Soon after the young Cardinals started from their 32 and went all the way in seven plays with a lateral from Tom Jacobsen to Paul Brown to Haase counting the final six points.

Entire team played well that second half, looking good at home as they usually have. This week at Hinsdale, however, the squad may lapse into its "traveling game," in which case the frosh-sophs may drop back to last place. A victory would assure the squad seventh place in final standings.

Palatine Sophs Trip Bisons

Palatine frosh-sophs upset a favored Bensenville team Saturday night to take their second win of the season 24-13. The Palatine lads were fired up and played their best game of the year.

Karl Schwenk ran 10 yards to score the first touchdown in a drive in which Roger Knitter had runs of nine and 15 yards and Eldridge one of 11 yards. The second score was a 77 yard run by Jim Eldridge on an end around play which gave the Pirates a 12-0 lead at the half.

IN THE THIRD period Eldridge, who transfered from Arlington Heights this year, scored again on a 15 yard run. Bensenville made it 18-6 in the third quarter when A. Clark caught a pass for a 25 yard touchdown.

In the last quarter on a hidden ball play Douglas Peterson got away in the clear before any of the Bisons knew who had the ball and went 35 yards to score. Late in the last period Biefeld caught a pass which gave Bensenville first down on the Palatine 12.

A pass to Henrickson scored a touchdown and another aerial to Biefeld added the point. Palatine was well on their way to another score with three first downs in a row as the game ended.

Northwestern Off To Wisconsin This Week

The Wildcats' hopes of snapping a five game losing streak, have been dealt a blow by the loss of two regulars, Jim Troglio, halfback, and John Rearden, quarterback.

The Wildcats have a number of scores to settle with the Badgers, who lead the overall series, 22 to 14, with four ties. Wisconsin has won the last five games including a 34-13 triumph last year. Sp

Ela-Vernon And Grant In Scoreless Tie

Ela-Vernon and Grant battled to a scoreless tie at Lake Zurich Saturday. The result may give Grant a chance to tie Ela-Vernon for fourth in the final standings as the Bears have to play Glenbrook in a home Game Saturday night.

Ela-Vernon threatened several times in the first half and a spirited goal line stand by Grant on the five yard stripe saved them from defeat. In the second half Grant took the initiative and drove deep into Ela territory but did not have the punch to score. It was the first scoreless tie that Ela has ever played.

Wauconda Holds Antioch To 7-6 Score

Second place Antioch eked out a 7-6 victory Saturday night over a spirited Wauconda team led by "Gene" Jaskot. It was Antioch's fifth league victory in six games and sixth in seven for the season.

This record matches that of Palatine, whom the Sequoits will meet on the Cook county school's field Friday night in a fight for second place.

BILL GALLAGHER scored for Antioch on a 14 yard end run in the opening quarter and "Chuck" Davis kicked the extra point which proved to be the winning margin.

"Gene" Jaskot got the Wauconda tally in the final quarter, plunging over from the one yard line. Antioch dominated play in the first half but Wauconda had the edge after the intermission.

Dog Training Club Changes Nights

The Northwest Obedience club, which celebrated its first birthday last month, has made a change in the training night. Beginning this week, training will be held Wednesday evenings, beginning at 8 o'clock, instead of Friday evenings, at the Palatine fire house.

Anyone interested in training his dog is welcome to visit a class session. A new class has just begun and there may be a few openings, however, one must attend one training session, without his dog, before he is eligible to make application.

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the club, which was also the annual meeting, was held Tuesday evening, October 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schwietert on Algonquin road. Officers elected for the new club year include president, Dr. Justin Fleischmann; vice president, B. M. Chunn, secretary, Mrs. Becher Hungerford; treasurer, Mrs. Justin Fleischmann and director of training, David W. Terrill.

Rules Interpretation Meetings At Elgin And Waukegan High

One of the series of 19 meetings being held throughout the state to discuss current basketball rules will be held Wednesday, November 10, at Waukegan, a dinner meeting in the high school cafeteria starting at 6:30 p. m. Another meeting in the same series is scheduled for this Thursday, November 4, at Elgin high school. All meetings will start at 8 p. m.

Comparatively few changes are involved in the 1954-55 basketball rules. Only one, the new bonus penalty rule, is likely to change the complexion of the game.

Official interpreters at the meetings will explain a rules modification which will be in effect for Illinois high school games this season. Under this modification, the bonus penalty rule will apply throughout the entire game and any overtime period. The rules as written apply the bonus penalty only to the first 29 minutes of play. In the last three minutes and any overtime, two free throws are awarded for common fouls. This experimental change has been approved for Illinois high schools by the national basketball committee.

Obedience Club Holds First Dinner with Other Dog Clubs

Northwest obedience club held its first annual dinner Saturday, October 23, at Landl's restaurant. There were eight dog clubs represented including Northshore, Southside, West Side, Fox Valley, German Shepherd, First German Shepherd, and Midwest Boxer club. Also present were representatives from the following dog specialty clubs: Retriever, English Springer Spaniel, Airedale Terrier, Poodle, Weimerarner, Miniature Schnauzer, and Brittany Spaniel club.

Dr. Justin Fleischmann, president of the Northwest Obedience club, gave a welcoming speech. Then Beecher Hungerford, Barrington, one of the club directors, gave an amusing talk full of doggy jokes. Marcella Mertons was the dinner chairman.

Hunting Season

Between the time that this column appears in print and the next bi-weekly bit appears the hunting season in Illinois on upland game birds will be well under way. Also that rather fast little cotton-tail will be causing Joe Nimrod no end of trouble as he tries to figure out whether rabbits are running a bit faster this year or perhaps he, the hunter, is a little bit slower.

All in all the subject brings to mind something which your editor talked about last year around this time and which he thinks bears repeating. That is the subject of hunting over a friend's dog.

Respect the dog's right to be handled soley by his owner and don't offer advice or call or whistle to the dog. Remember that there is a close relationship between a dog and his owner and it is the owner to whom the dog will look for guidance. Let the master take the initiative in directing his dog. If it is a pointing dog, have your friend tell you where to go to take the shot. If a bird is down, stand quietly and let the owner direct the retrieve. Never try to call the dog to you when he brings in game and don't reach for it if he passes you. You may have made a particularly good and difficult shot but to the dog you are a perfect stranger and he will naturally retrieve to his owner.

Above all, remember that you are hunting over a dog, therefore, never shoot unless you are sure the dog is nowhere in the line of fire. Far better the loss of a bird or a rabbit than taking a chance on the loss of a dog —and a good friend.

Printing error

In the last column which started off with a little quiz on just how much you knew about dogs there was a slight printing error which, to those of you who caught it, you probably sat down and tried to figure out just what goes or "who goofed."

It had to do with the second group of questions regarding dogs' nationalities. In error the column ended up in print showing the fox terrier as having come from Africa. This of course should have been that the dog came from England originally. It was a case of where the "key" letter "e" was mistaken for a "c," however, no great harm was done except that I imagine people who owned fox terriers were looking twice at their dogs just to figure out who was right.

Barks & Bays

The U. S. Army has been presented with the problem that in taking wives and children to docks prior to leaving for overseas to join husbands and fathers stationed abroad the subject of taking along the family pets has brought about the inclusion of a "dog bus" in the convoy to the point of embarkation. Some ports it seems have had so many dogs leaving with the family that the best way to get them all together in the right place and at the right time with no fighting dogs, crying youngsters, or slightly bewildered mothers was to put all the dogs on a bus by themselves and in charge of men who know how to handle them. Speaking of how to handle dogs brings to mind that your editor's barber confided in him the other day on how he was able to stop his dog from doing its business in the basement. The treatment included water from the garden hose which is O. K. in summer but a little too cold right

Long Games

A survey by the Sporting News shows that major league games average two hours and 30 minutes in 1954. National League clubs required 2:32 for an average game to 2.28 for the American. The St. Louis Cardinals are believed to have been the first team in major league history to go through an entire home season without playing a single contest in less than two hours.

Bill Terry Warns Players 'Owners Must Continue to Run Baseball'

Bill Terry, former manager and first baseman of the New York Giants, has a credo. It's this: Do not cheapen baseball in any way. His clearly expressed views on the subject were carried in a recent issue of The Sporting News. Terry talked with a writer for The Sporting News in New York after his recent induction into Baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y.

For one thing, he expressed himself strongly against the newly organized Major League Baseball Players association. "Baseball," he said, "has made tremendous progress, for the game, for the players, for the fan. Over a long stretch of years, the players have allowed the club to govern their activities. I am a strong upholder of the principle of government by clubs," he went on, "in spite of the fact that I had a grievance when I came into the game, with the Giants." He went on to say that he accepted a contract with the understanding that it was to have no ten-day notice of release clause. After he had signed, he found that it did have such a clause. However, he worked out the situation for himself.

"I NEVER needed outside help all through my player and manager careers," Terry continued. "I never wanted help in negotiating contracts because I had confidence in the integrity of those with whom I was dealing. That confidence should be shown today." By forming an association, he went on to say, the players aren't showing that confidence. He also said that he spotted a hint of unionization in the formation of the players' association.

"The union principle is not wrong," he said, "but it is not for ball players and baseball. It may lead to a scale of salaries, regardless of abilities. Say, six thousand for the first year, eight thousand for the second, ten thousand for the third, and so on up to five years."

Terry said he's disgusted with some of the demands players are making today. For example, dictating terms for spring training. Players nowadays, he said, don't know what strenuous spring training is. Under Manager John McGraw, he said, Giant players put in two tough workouts daily, and walked three miles to lunch on a sandwich and bottle of milk.

TERRY SAID he not only was criticizing players, but club owners, too. As he put it, the owners have been kicking things around. "I believe," he said, "that each club owner should let his manager manage the team. The manager who has the greatest success is the one whose liaison with his players is close and firm."

Another topic Terry touched on in The Sporting News interview was winter baseball. He's absolutely against winter play for major leaguers. Major leaguers are paid for major league effort, he said, and how can they produce their best when they are tired after a winter's play.

Terry also said he believes something should be done to curb home run production. "Have they changed the ball?" he asked. "Why can't pitchers go nine innings any more?"

Terry had a reputation of being a tough, hard-bitten player and manager. But at the Hall of Fame induction ceremonies, where he spoke, he choked up, and when he finished there was moisture in his eyes. "I didn't know," said one New York writer, "that the guy could get so sentimental."

Bears To Test Packers Sunday At Wrigley Field

The finest pass receivers in football will be on display Sunday afternoon at Wrigley Field when the Chicago Bears battle the Green Bay Packers in the seventy-second game of the time honored series. Kickoff time is 1:05 and one of the largest crowds of the season is in prospect.

Naturally, Rookie Harlon Hill will be the cynosure of all eyes. His four touchdown passes last Sunday at San Francisco stamps him as one of the most feared receivers of all time. Hill in six National Football League games has caught a total of 22 passes, good for 8 touchdowns and a total of 675 yards. The Bears have some other topnotch receivers also. Jim Dooley is headed for the greatest season of his career. He ranks near the leaders. Bill McColl also is having a great season, while Billy Stone and John Hoffman have excelled in the role of receivers from their backfield positions.

IN ADDITION, Gene Schroeder, one of the great pass receivers of recent years, has returned from two years in the Navy, and should prove a valuable addition to the cast in the six remaining games.

Green Day, which in the past produced such great receivers as Don Hutson and Johnny Blood, has come up with two standouts in Bill Howton and Max McGee. The latter is a rookie. McGee, a reformed halfback, caught three touchdown passes last Saturday night while the Packers were trouncing the Philadelphia Eagles. Howton is tied for second place in the rankings, with 29 passes caught, good for 2 touchdowns and 474 yards.

In recent weeks, George Blanda of the Bears and the Packards' Tobin Rote have moved up in the standings also. Blanda tops the league in most passes completed, most yardage by passes, and most touchdown passes. Rote is second in most passes attempted. He also is doing an excellent job of running the ball.

Barbecued Mallard

Here is a mild barbecue sauce that works splendidly on wild ducks because it doesn't sear your mouth at the first bite so that you don't know what you're eating. On some foods, we grant, this is a desirable condition, and even on certain species of duck, but hardly on mallards!

Melt 2 sticks of butter in a sauce pan, then add 1/3 cup catsup, 2 teaspoons sugar, 3 teaspoons lemon juice, 3 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, ½ teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon garlic salt and ¼ teaspoon red pepper. Let simmer for 5 minutes.

Split mallards and flatten, then place skin side down in the broiler pan 3" below flame (which has been set at moderate, or 350 degrees) and broil 30 minutes, basting every 5 minutes with the barbecue sauce. Then turn and brown other side similarly.

Arlington's frosh-soph football team rolled high, wide and handsome over York Friday night before a Dad's day crowd on the Heights field, 27-0. The victory moved Coach John Ligon's second year squad one notch out of last place with the final game against Hinsdale coming up Saturday.

Rushing statistics tell the story. The locals outdid themselves, 214-70, particularly the second half when they added 20 points to the previous 7-0 margin.

THE CARDS ran the initial kickoff from the 12 to midfield, then had to punt. York fumbled with the locals recovering on the 28. Ashley Haase made the touchdown in one 28 yard dash with a conversion by Dan Vittum making it 7-0.

The rest of the first half was a see-saw affair between the two 25's, except for one drive by York from its own 17 to the Heights ten just as the half ended. Biggest help here was a pass from Wingert to Evans for 31 yards.

SECOND HALF was a different game. York started fast, but was forced to punt from the Arlington 45. After one play when the locals moved the ball from the ten to the 13, Rick Fischer went 87 yards for the Cardinals for the second touchdown.

This run sparked the locals and it was all their game from then on. A York punt from the seven was blocked by Klehm, and rolled into the end zone for a safety, making it 15-0, Arlington, going into the final quarter.

ASHLEY HAASE dashed 36 yards early in the fourth period to set up another TD opportunity on the six, Fischer carrying the rest of the distance. Soon after the young Cardinals started from their 32 and went all the way in seven plays with a lateral from Tom Jacobsen to Paul Brown to Haase counting the final six points.

Entire team played well that second half, looking good at home as they usually have. This week at Hinsdale, however, the squad may lapse into its "traveling game," in which case the frosh-sophs may drop back to last place. A victory would assure the squad seventh place in final standings.

Palatine Sophs Trip Bisons

Palatine frosh-soph upset a favored Bensenville team Saturday night to take their second win of the season 24-13. The Palatine lads were fired up and played their best game of the year.

Karl Schwenk ran 10 yards to score the first touchdown in a drive in which Roger Knitter had runs of nine and 15 yards and Eldridge one of 11 yards. The second score was a 77 yard run by Jim Eldridge on an end around play which gave the Pirates a 12-0 lead at the half.

IN THE THIRD period Eldridge, who transfered from Arlington Heights this year, scored again on a 15 yard run. Bensenville made it 18-6 in the third quarter when A. Clark caught a pass for a 25 yard touchdown.

In the last quarter on a hidden ball play Douglas Peterson got away in the clear before any of the Bisons knew who had the ball and went 35 yards to score. Late in the last period Biefeld caught a pass which gave Bensenville first down on the Palatine 12.

A pass to Henrickson scored a touchdown and another aerial to Biefeld added the point. Palatine was well on their way to another score with three first downs in a row as the game ended.

Northwestern Off To Wisconsin This Week

The Wildcats' hopes of snapping a five game losing streak, have been dealt a blow by the loss of two regulars, Jim Troglio, halfback, and John Rearden, quarterback.

The Wildcats have a number of scores to settle with the Badgers, who lead the overall series, 22 to 14, with four ties. Wisconsin has won the last five games including a 34-13 triumph last year. Sp

Ela-Vernon And Grant In Scoreless Tie

Ela-Vernon and Grant battled to a scoreless tie at Lake Zurich Saturday. The result may give Grant a chance to tie Ela-Vernon for fourth in the final standings as the Bears have to play Glenbrook in a home Game Saturday night.

Ela-Vernon threatened several times in the first half and a spirited goal line stand by Grant on the five yard stripe saved them from defeat. In the second half Grant took the initiative and drove deep into Ela territory but did not have the punch to score. It was the first scoreless tie that Ela has ever played.

Wauconda Holds Antioch To 7-6 Score

Second place Antioch eked out a 7-6 victory Saturday night over a spirited Wauconda team led by "Gene" Jaskot. It was Antioch's fifth league victory in six games and sixth in seven for the season.

This record matches that of Palatine, whom the Sequoits will meet on the Cook county school's field Friday night in a fight for second place.

BILL GALLAGHER scored for Antioch on a 14 yard end run in the opening quarter and "Chuck" Davis kicked the extra point which proved to be the winning margin.

"Gene" Jaskot got the Wauconda tally in the final quarter, plunging over from the one yard line. Antioch dominated play in the first half but Wauconda had the edge after the intermission.

Dog Training Club Changes Nights

The Northwest Obedience club, which celebrated its first birthday last month, has made a change in the training night. Beginning this week, training will be held Wednesday evenings, beginning at 8 o'clock, instead of Friday evenings, at the Palatine fire house.

Anyone interested in training his dog is welcome to visit a class session. A new class has just begun and there may be a few openings, however, one must attend one training session, without his dog, before he is eligible to make application.

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the club, which was also the annual meeting, was held Tuesday evening, October 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schwietert on Algonquin road. Officers elected for the new club year include president, Dr. Justin Fleischmann; vice president, B. M. Chunn, secretary, Mrs. Becher Hungerford; treasurer, Mrs. Justin Fleischmann and director of training, David W. Terrill.

Rules Interpretation Meetings At Elgin And Waukegan High

One of the series of 19 meetings being held throughout the state to discuss current basketball rules will be held Wednesday, November 10, at Waukegan, a dinner meeting in the high school cafeteria starting at 6:30 p. m. Another meeting in the same series is scheduled for this Thursday, November 4, at Elgin high school. All meetings will start at 8 p. m.

Comparatively few changes are involved in the 1954-55 basketball rules. Only one, the new bonus penalty rule, is likely to change the complexion of the game.

Official interpreters at the meetings will explain a rules modification which will be in effect for Illinois high school games this season. Under this modification, the bonus penalty rule will apply throughout the entire game and any overtime period. The rules as written apply the bonus penalty only to the first 29 minutes of play. In the last three minutes and any overtime, two free throws are awarded for common fouls. This experimental change has been approved for Illinois high schools by the national basketball committee.

Northwest obedience club held its first annual dinner Saturday, October 23, at Landl's restaurant. There were eight dog clubs represented including Northshore, Southside, West Side, Fox Valley, German Shepherd, First German Shepherd, and Midwest Boxer club. Also present were representatives from the following dog specialty clubs: Retriever, English Springer Spaniel, Airedale Terrier, Poodle, Weimerarner, Miniature Schnauzer, and Brittany Spaniel club.

Dr. Justin Fleischmann, president of the Northwest Obedience club, gave a welcoming speech. Then Beecher Hungerford, Barrington, one of the club directors, gave an amusing talk full of doggy jokes. Marcella Mertons was the dinner chairman.

Hunting Season

Between the time that this column appears in print and the next bi-weekly bit appears the hunting season in Illinois on upland game birds will be well under way. Also that rather fast little cotton-tail will be causing Joe Nimrod no end of trouble as he tries to figure out whether rabbits are running a bit faster this year or perhaps he, the hunter, is a little bit slower.

All in all the subject brings to mind something which your editor talked about last year around this time and which he thinks bears repeating. That is the subject of hunting over a friend's dog.

Respect the dog's right to be handled soley by his owner and don't offer advice or call or whistle to the dog. Remember that there is a close relationship between a dog and his owner and it is the owner to whom the dog will look for guidance. Let the master take the initiative in directing his dog. If it is a pointing dog, have your friend tell you where to go to take the shot. If a bird is down, stand quietly and let the owner direct the retrieve. Never try to call the dog to you when he brings in game and don't reach for it if he passes you. You may have made a particularly good and difficult shot but to the dog you are a perfect stranger and he will naturally retrieve to his owner.

Above all, remember that you are hunting over a dog, therefore, never shoot unless you are sure the dog is nowhere in the line of fire. Far better the loss of a bird or a rabbit than taking a chance on the loss of a dog —and a good friend.

In the last column which started off with a little quiz on just how much you knew about dogs there was a slight printing error which, to those of you who caught it, you probably sat down and tried to figure out just what goes or "who goofed."

It had to do with the second group of questions regarding dogs' nationalities. In error the column ended up in print showing the fox terrier as having come from Africa. This of course should have been that the dog came from England originally. It was a case of where the "key" letter "e" was mistaken for a "c," however, no great harm was done except that I imagine people who owned fox terriers were looking twice at their dogs just to figure out who was right.

Barks & Bays

The U. S. Army has been presented with the problem that in taking wives and children to docks prior to leaving for overseas to join husbands and fathers stationed abroad the subject of taking along the family pets has brought about the inclusion of a "dog bus" in the convoy to the point of embarkation. Some ports it seems have had so many dogs leaving with the family that the best way to get them all together in the right place and at the right time with no fighting dogs, crying youngsters, or slightly bewildered mothers was to put all the dogs on a bus by themselves and in charge of men who know how to handle them. Speaking of how to handle dogs brings to mind that your editor's barber confided in him the other day on how he was able to stop his dog from doing its business in the basement. The treatment included water from the garden hose which is O. K. in summer but a little too cold right

Long Games

A survey by the Sporting News shows that major league games average two hours and 30 minutes in 1954. National League clubs required 2:32 for an average game to 2.28 for the American. The St. Louis Cardinals are believed to have been the first team in major league history to go through an entire home season without playing a single contest in less than two hours.

He is our friend who loves more than admires us, and would aid us in our great work.

Bill Terry Warns Players 'Owners Must Continue to Run Baseball'

Bill Terry, former manager and first baseman of the New York Giants, has a credo. It's this: Do not cheapen baseball in any way. His clearly expressed views on the subject were carried in a recent issue of The Sporting News. Terry talked with a writer for The Sporting News in New York after his recent induction into Baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y.

For one thing, he expressed himself strongly against the newly organized Major League Baseball Players association. "Baseball," he said, "has made tremendous progress, for the game, for the players, for the fan. Over a long stretch of years, the players have allowed the club to govern their activities. I am a strong upholder of the principle of government by clubs," he went on, "in spite of the fact that I had a grievance when I came into the game, with the Giants." He went on to say that he accepted a contract with the understanding that it was to have no ten-day notice of release clause. After he had signed, he found that it did have such a clause. However, he worked out the situation for himself.

"I NEVER needed outside help all through my player and manager careers," Terry continued. "I never wanted help in negotiating contracts because I had confidence in the integrity of those with whom I was dealing. That confidence should be shown today." By forming an association, he went on to say, the players aren't showing that confidence. He also said that he spotted a hint of unionization in the formation of the players' association.

"The union principle is not wrong," he said, "but it is not for ball players and baseball. It may lead to a scale of salaries, regardless of abilities. Say, six thousand for the first year, eight thousand for the second, ten thousand for the third, and so on up to five years."

Terry said he's disgusted with some of the demands players are making today. For example, dictating terms for spring training. Players nowadays, he said, don't know what strenuous spring training is. Under Manager John McGraw, he said, Giant players put in two tough workouts daily, and walked three miles to lunch on a sandwich and bottle of milk.

TERRY SAID he not only was criticizing players, but club owners, too. As he put it, the owners have been kicking things around. "I believe," he said, "that each club owner should let his manager manage the team. The manager who has the greatest success is the one whose liaison with his players is close and firm."

Another topic Terry touched on in The Sporting News interview was winter baseball. He's absolutely against winter play for major leaguers. Major leaguers are paid for major league effort, he said, and how can they produce their best when they are tired after a winter's play.

Terry also said he believes something should be done to curb home run production. "Have they changed the ball?" he asked. "Why can't pitchers go nine innings any more?"

Terry had a reputation of being a tough, hard-bitten player and manager. But at the Hall of Fame induction ceremonies, where he spoke, he choked up, and when he finished there was moisture in his eyes. "I didn't know," said one New York writer, "that the guy could get so sentimental."

In Japan

Army PFC Donald W. Austedt, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Austedt, 303 Hiawatha trail, Mount Prospect, recently spent seven days in Japan on a rest and recuperation leave from the 2d Base Post office in Korea.

Available to Austedt at Camp Hakata were recreational and sight-seeing facilities giving him a fascinating glimpse of Oriental culture.

In Korea

Pvt. R. W. Grischow, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Grischow, Route 1, Bartlett is serving with the 7th infantry division in Korea.

Men of the "Bayonet" division are undergoing intensive training to maintain the peak combat efficiency displayed by the unit from Pusan to the Yalu river.

Grischow, a mechanic in the 32d infantry regiment's company M, entered the army in June, 1953, and arrived overseas in September of this year.

In Colorado

Cpl. Ray T. Wiltgen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Wiltgen, 1606 W. Euclid, Arlington Heights, is engaged in round-the-clock, mock combat this week during "Exercise Breechblock," an artillery maneuver being held at the foot of Pikes Peak in Colorado.

Over 2500 ground troops, as well as jet and B-36 bombers, are supplementing the 105 mm. and 155 mm. artillery units during the exercise.

Wiltgen is assigned to the service battery of the 538th field artillery battalion at Fort Carson, Colo. He entered the army in February, 1953, and completed basic training at Fort Riley, Kan.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERA LEE

Q. Is it proper for people in church to greet each other before the service begins?

A. No; the babel of voices in a church just prior to the service shows an extreme lack of good breeding on the part of those who are creating it. If you do see a good friend in church, a pleasant smile is quite enough — and any speech should be reserved until after the service is over.

Q. When writing a thank-you note to a relative who has sent a check as a birthday gift, should one mention how the money is going to be used?

A. While not exactly necessary, it still is a very nice thing to do.

Q. When eating a biscuit and jelly at the table, should the jelly be applied to the biscuit with the fork?

A. No; the knife is used for this purpose

Q. For what uses only is the napkin at the dinner table?

A. For wiping the lips and the fingers. It is not for the cheeks, prespiration, or the nose. The napkin should be lifted as inconspicuously as possible, and lightly brushed across the mouth — then replaced on the lap.

Q. How well must a girl know a boy before she invites him to a school dance?

A. It is all right for her to invite any boy who has shown that he likes her. She would hardly ask any boy who has paid very little attention to her.

Q. Does a woman ever take the aisle seat when she is attending a theater with a man?

Q. What is the difference between a formal and informal tea?

A. The decorations of the informal tea are not so elaborate and the refreshments are more simple. The hostess at an informal tea mingles with her guests and does not remain at the door to great each newcomer.

Q. How are canapes properly eaten?

A. When canapes are served before a meal (with cocktails in the living room), they are eaten with the fingers. At the table, they are eaten, as are other hors d'oeuvres, with a fork.

Q. Should the sexton of a church where a wedding is held be paid, and if so, by whom?

A. Yes; by the parents of the bride.

How do men and women seat themselves in a restaurant that has sofa seats?

A. The women always sit against the wall (or partition), and the ment sit on the chairs facing them.

GI Loan Activities Still At High Level

Mr. Beer said appraisal requests for 3,368 proposed or existing homes, and 2,024 home loan applications were received during the month.

The number of GI home loan applications received during September was a 7 per cent increase from the August total of 1,891, and was the fourth highest month in GI loan history.

Of the 3,368 homes for which VA received appraisal requests, 2,333 were proposed homes and 1,035 were existing homes. The total was a 23% decrease from the August total of 4,383, but 128% over September 1953.

Free Trolley Rides For Dogs In Belgrade Now In Question

Even the dogs are beginning to feel Bergrade's new economic austerity laws. The Belgrade trolley-car system has just made public a new set of tariffs for dogs of all sizes. The days of free transportation for our canine friends have come to an end in Belgrade.

The Yugoslav edition of the A.S.P.C.A has stepped forward however, with an official statement denouncing the new tariff system as an act of discrimination. They claim that any laws which increase the expense involved in maintaining a dog will tend to increase the number of homeless animals. Belgrade's canine association has dedicated itself to fighting the new decree with tooth and paw.

IN ADDITION to that, the association explains, dog owners will be more inclined to leave their animals at home during the day. This in itself is seen as a direct form of cruelty. It is a move which most animals have no way of barking against because the average dog is not a wage earner.

The new tariff system is complicated enough to the extent of requiring at least a conductor-veterinarian to determine exactly what fare shall be paid by any given animal. The larger class dogs, however, pay the full fare of an adult human being. This puts the heaviest burden on Great Danes, St. Bernards, and animals of such class.

OPPOSITION to the new ruling has taken on enough force so that the municipal transportation system is seriously considering a change of heart. The public is asking that animals of their usual free rides while the their usual free rides while the "ordinary" size be permitted canine "monsters," if necessary, pay their way.

New questions have come up, of course, in the light of this probable change of ruling. The canine association is not prepared to sacrifice the St. Bernards in any kind of a package deal. They claim that where a dog's happiness is involved, regardless of his size, there can be no negotiation. They are playing their trump card and demanding that since a large animal must pay the same fare as an adult, he be granted a seat as well.

THIS, NATURALLY, will make any ruling on the matter more complicated. The trolley company has already stated that dogs should be given no rights that humans are denied, and that humans are not permitted to have their feet on the seats.

The canine association, on the other hand, is experimenting with ways whereby the animals' feet will not actually come in contact with any seat. This, of course, would have to be with the help of a little mat and an attentive master.

Hunting Etiquette On Farm TV Show

Tips for nimrods, who soon begin their annual trek across Illinois cornfields, will be featured on the "Farmtown, U.S.A." television show at 2 p.m. Sunday, November 7

The Illinois hunting laws, from the farmers' point of view, and the rights of hunters, will be explained, appropriately, by Ray Hunter, director of natural resources for the Illinois agricultural association.

Joseph B. Davidson of Braidwood, will tell George Menard, "Farmtown" master of ceremonies, about controlled shooting on his farm. Davidson raises his own pheasants, releases them onto his 1200 acres of low, swampy land, and collects fees from hunters who find good shooting in the area.

Social Security Starts Jan. 1 For Farm Folks

Over five and a half million farm operators and farm employees will begin earning old-age and survivors insurance protection for themselves and their families beginning January 1, 1955.

Farm operators—people farming for themselves — have not been covered by the social security law up to now. Beginning January 1, 1955, farm operators who make a profit of $400 or more a year will begin earning social security protection.

PEOPLE DOING farm work for others as farm employees are already covered by the law if they work regularly for one farm operator. The new law brings old-age and survivors insurance protection to all farm employees who earn $100 or more cash wages in a year from any one farmer.

Miss Ellen McGuire, manager of the social security administration district office at 5306 W. Lawrence ave., has stated this change in the law means farm earnings of 2.6 million more farm workers will now count for the first time toward social security benefits for farmers and their families.

MISS McGUIRE added this means farmers will now be able to receive insurance payments in their old age based on earnings from farm work covered by the law and other members of the farmer's family may be entitled to payments based on his social security account both during his retirement and after his death.

Informational leaflets telling more about the change in the social security law which affects them may be obtained by writing your nearest district office of the Social security administration.

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

The woolly bear caterpillars haven't favored us with a confidential report on what's ahead for us this winter. But we suspect that we'll get our usual quota of cold days. Even a short span of "sheepskin weather" is too much for us in a cold milk house. Fingers get cold and we are tempted to rush through the cleaning job. We know that's something we shouldn't do if we want to keep that bacteria count down. And, that poses a problem. Should we move south or try heating the place? We can't move, so let's look at the next best bet—an electric heater that has passed some pretty stiff tests in several northern states.

The heater mentioned is shown above. It comes in two sizes—one for milk houses of 1,500 cubic feet; the other for buildings of 3,000 cubic feet. Both have newly developed cast aluminum heating elements, oil sealed motor and built-in safety switch and temperature controls. Units may be permanently installed or portable, as desired. Thermostats have a range of from 40 to 80 degrees.

The cost of heating a milk house with such units—as with any others—varies according to the weather, the temperature to be maintained, and the adequacy of installation. However, tests in a typical New York state milk house showed that one of the 1,500 watt heaters used 964 kilowatt hours of power to hold the temperatures at 40 degrees during a recent season when the mercury dropped as low as 20 below on several days. The amount of electricity used would have been still lower had the "test house" been better insulated.

And, speaking of insulation, a Wisconsin power supplier reports that from 40 to 60 percent of heat loss in a milk house can be eliminated by properly insulating walls and ceiling, by using storm windows and doors, by partly closing the ventilator in cold weather, and by doing a good job of caulking and weather stripping. If one side of the milk house adjoins the dairy barn, this protected wall usually need not be insulated.

A well insulated milk house may save a farmer as much as $60 on his season's electric heating costs as compared with an uninsulated building of the same size.

Feed Trace Mineral Salt To Overcome Deficiency

Feeding trace mineral salt to livestock is one of the easiest and cheapest ways to overcome deficiency of feeds grown on poor soil, according to National Live Stock Producer, America's leading live stock magazine.

Ordinarily, nature feeds trace minerals to animals through grasses, hay, grains, forage and other feeds. But heavy cropping of land, wind, sheet and gully erosion and leaching have depleted the trace mineral balance of soil in many areas, the magazine points out.

ANIMAL BODY is made up of 17 or more basic chemical elements. Some of the most important are cobalt, iodine, manganese, copper and iron. Suppose your soil is deficient of sodium and chlorine, two elements which make up common salt. The results would not be fifteen-seventeenths as good as soil containing all 17 elements, but zero. The soil must have a trace of all elements.

Since all livestock need salt, the best way to provide the essential elements of growth is to use salt as a logical carrier. The average farmer who buys a half-ton of salt each year, would be wise to substitute trace mineralized salt for all his livestock. The additional cost runs about 1 cent per pound—not more than $10 a year on the average farm.

List Speakers IAA Meeting

Prominent speakers are scheduled to talk at the 40th annual meeting of the Illinois agricultural association and its affiliated companies November 15-18. More than 5,000 farmers and wives are expected to attend the meetings in the Sherman hotel here.

In addition to the annual address of IAA president Charles B. Shuman, major speeches will be given by Ezra T. Benson, secretary of agriculture and Dean Louis B. Howard of the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

Dr. J. Martin Klotsche, president of Wisconsin state college in Milwaukee, is the main speaker at the women's conference to be held in the Morrison hotel November 16.

YOUNG FARM folks, through the Rural Youth organization, are scheduled to hear T. C. Petersen, midwest regional field representative of the American farm bureau federation. Title of Petersen's speech is, "What's at Stake?"

Affiliated companies of the IAA have secured top speakers for their annual meetings. Included are:

Illinois Farm Supply company, another IAA affiliate, has as its main speaker M. J. Briggs of the Indiana farm bureau cooperative association.

Veterinarians Say Smut Isn't Poisonous On Farm

Smut in cornfields is not a serious threat to livestock health, according to Dr. R. P. Link of the college of veterinary medicine at the University of Illinois.

The college has recently received a number of inquiries about the danger to cattle and hogs running in cornfields that are heavily infested with smut.

DR. LINK points out that an animal fed on a diet of smutty corn will probably suffer from a digestive upset, but such a condition will rarely occur in a field where animals have a choice of materials to eat.

Results of several feeding experiments do not seem to indicate that smut is poisonous. Putting smut-infested corn in a silo will not make it poisonous, Dr. Link says.

DR. LINK does, however, advise caution in pasturing horses in stalk fields. A disease known as cornstalk disease, which seems to be correlated with the drought conditions that occurred in a large part of the state this past summer, may affect horses.

So-called cornstalk disease in cattle may be a form of hemorrhagic septicemia. Prompt removal of animals from the stalk fields and appropriate vaccination and treatment by a local veterinarian will check losses if this disease occurs.

Clipped Cows Produce Higher Quality Milk

It will take less labor to keep your dairy cows clean and be a lot easier to produce high-quality milk if you clip the cows before bringing them into the barn this winter.

Clipping the flanks, tail and udder saves work in preparing cows for milking. It may also reduce the sediment in milk and help to lower the bacteria count.

1. CLIP THE TAIL and bob the switch so that it clears the ground about four inches. Clip the tail head and area around the base of the tail.
2. Clip the entire surface of the udder.
3. Next clip the belly and hocks. Then make a "mark line" 'from the navel to the thurl on both sides. Do this by holding the clippers on edge, with the bottom blade toward the cow's head.

4. CLIP THE FLANKS and thighs by running the clippers up from the hock to the "mark line."
5. Clip up the backbone to help control lice.

Clipping is not a substitute for washing the cow's udder before milking. Ever when cows are neatly clipped, the udder and teats should still be washed carefully with water and a Chlorine solution before putting on the milking machine. Washing not only helps to produce clean milk, but stimulates "let-down" so that the cow can be milked faster.

Stock Show In City November 26

Agriculture's greatest annual meat animal show will celebrate its 55th renewal as final plans develop for the 1954 International livestock exposition to be held in Chicago from November 26 through December 4.

The management predicts this year's show promises to be one of the finest exhibitions ever staged in Chicago.

The new 4½ acre addition to the International Amphitheatre will be filled with the continent's top specimens of livestock from a majority of the States and Canada. Champions from state and regional shows will compete for over $100,000 in cash awards and for the purple and blue ribbons that will designate them as the nation's best.

THE NEARLY half million visitors the management anticipates will attend this year's event will find several changes in the location of the exhibit. The 32nd International hay and grain show and the draft horses will be colorfully displayed on the 1st floor, and light horses will take over the 2nd floor of the present Amphitheatre.

Cattle, hogs, and sheep will be exhibited in the new addition. Carlot competitions of cattle, hogs and sheep will be held in nearby pens of the Chicago Stock Yards.

Farm youth will be in the spotlight the first two days of the show. The national 4-H live stock judging contest will start the activities of the International, Friday, November 26.

Hunting Etiquette On Farm TV Show

Tips for nimrods, who soon begin their annual trek across Illinois cornfields, will be featured on the "Farmtown, U.S.A." television show at 2 p.m. Sunday, November 7.

The Illinois hunting laws, from the farmers' point of view, and the rights of hunters, will be explained, appropriately, by Ray Hunter, director of natural resources for the Illinois agricultural association.

Joseph B. Davidson of Braidwood, will tell George Menard, "Farmtown" master of ceremonies, about controlled shooting on his farm. Davidson raises his own pheasants, releases them onto his 1200 acres of low, swampy land, and collects fees from hunters who find good shooting in the area.

Social Security Starts Jan. 1 For Farm Folks

Over five and a half million farm operators and farm employees will begin earning old-age and survivors insurance protection for themselves and their families beginning January 1, 1955.

Farm operators—people farming for themselves — have not been covered by the social security law up to now. Beginning January 1, 1955, farm operators who make a profit of $400 or more a year will begin earning social security protection.

PEOPLE DOING farm work for others as farm employees are already covered by the law if they work regularly for one farm operator. The new law brings old-age and survivors insurance protection to all farm employees who earn $100 or more cash wages in a year from any one farmer.

Miss Ellen McGuire, manager of the social security administration district office at 5306 W. Lawrence ave., has stated this change in the law means farm earnings of 2.6 million more farm workers will now count for the first time toward social security benefits for farmers and their families.

MISS McGUIRE added this means farmers will now be able to receive insurance payments in their old age based on earnings from farm work covered by the law and other members of the farmer's family may be entitled to payments based on his social security account both during his retirement and after his death.

Informational leaflets telling more about the change in the social security law which affects them may be obtained by writing your nearest district office of the Social security administration.

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

The woolly bear caterpillars haven't favored us with a confidential report on what's ahead for us this winter. But we suspect that we'll get our usual quota of cold days. Even a short span of "sheepskin weather" is too much for us in a cold milk house. Fingers get cold and we are tempted to rush through the cleaning job. We know that's something we shouldn't do if we want to keep that bacteria count down. And, that poses a problem. Should we move south or try heating the place? We can't move, so let's look at the next best bet—an electric heater that has passed some pretty stiff tests in several northern states.

The heater mentioned is shown above. It comes in two sizes—one for milk houses of 1,500 cubic feet; the other for buildings of 3,000 cubic feet. Both have newly developed cast aluminum heating elements, oil sealed motor and built-in safety switch and temperature controls. Units may be permanently installed or portable, as desired. Thermostats have a range of from 40 to 80 degrees.

The cost of heating a milk house with such units—as with any others—varies according to the weather, the temperature to be maintained, and the adequacy of installation. However, tests in a typical New York state milk house showed that one of the 1,500 watt heaters used 964 kilowatt hours of power to hold the temperatures at 40 degrees during a recent season when the mercury dropped as low as 20 below on several days. The amount of electricity used would have been still lower had the "test house" been better insulated.

And, speaking of insulation, a Wisconsin power supplier reports that from 40 to 60 percent of heat loss in a milk house can be eliminated by properly insulating walls and ceiling, by using storm windows and doors, by partly closing the ventilator in cold weather, and by doing a good job of caulking and weather stripping. If one side of the milk house adjoins the dairy barn, this protected wall usually need not be insulated.

A well insulated milk house may save a farmer as much as $60 on his season's electric heating costs as compared with an uninsulated building of the same size.

Feed Trace Mineral Salt To Overcome Deficiency

Feeding trace mineral salt to livestock is one of the easiest and cheapest ways to overcome deficiency of feeds grown on poor soil, according to National Live Stock Producer, America's leading live stock magazine.

Ordinarily, nature feeds trace minerals to animals through grasses, hay, grains, forage and other feeds. But heavy cropping of land, wind, sheet and gully erosion and leaching have depleted the trace mineral balance of soil in many areas, the magazine points out.

ANIMAL BODY is made up of 17 or more basic chemical elements. Some of the most important are cobalt, iodine, manganese, copper and iron. Suppose your soil is deficient of sodium and chlorine, two elements which make up common salt. The results would not be fifteen-seventeenths as good as soil containing all 17 elements, but zero. The soil must have a trace of all elements.

Since all livestock need salt, the best way to provide the essential elements of growth is to use salt as a logical carrier. The average farmer who buys a half-ton of salt each year, would be wise to substitute trace mineralized salt for all his livestock. The additional cost runs about 1 cent per pound—not more than $10 a year on the average farm.

List Speakers IAA Meeting

Prominent speakers are scheduled to talk at the 40th annual meeting of the Illinois agricultural association and its affiliated companies November 15-18. More than 5,000 farmers and wives are expected to attend the meetings in the Sherman hotel here.

In addition to the annual address of IAA president Charles B. Shuman, major speeches will be given by Ezra T. Benson, secretary of agriculture and Dean Louis B. Howard of the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

Dr. J. Martin Klotsche, president of Wisconsin state college in Milwaukee, is the main speaker at the women's conference to be held in the Morrison hotel November 16.

YOUNG FARM folks, through the Rural Youth organization, are scheduled to hear T. C. Petersen, midwest regional field representative of the American farm bureau federation. Title of Petersen's speech is, "What's at Stake?"

Affiliated companies of the IAA have secured top speakers for their annual meetings. Included are:

Illinois Farm Supply company, another IAA affiliate, has as its main speaker M. J. Briggs of the Indiana farm bureau cooperative association.

Arithmetic Can Help Save Lives

Arithmetic — if you'll apply what you learn—can save you from a corn picker accident this fall, says a University of Illinois agricultural engineer.

Wendell Bowers says two facts make it dangerous to ty to clean stalks out of a picker when it's running: First, it takes you nearly half a second to let go of a stalk after you see it's going through the snapping rolls.

And when you multiply that time by the speed of the rolls—they'll pull in seven feet of stalks per second — you have a result that can spell injury or death. Even if you grab the stalk at the end, says Bowers, you're still taking a big chance.

The solution is to shut off the picker. If the picker clogs so often that this isn't practical, better find out whether the picker's to blame.

Roselle Cow Moves

Northern Ohio breeders cooperative, Tiffin, Ohio, has just purchased the young Guernsey sire, Rosewood Royal Commander, according to the American Guernsey cattle club, from W. H. Odlum, Roselle.

This richly bred young bull is out of the well-bred cow, Clearland Butterfat Flash, that has once been classified very good, and has two production records of 9,576 pounds of milk and 462 pounds of fat, made on two times daily milking for 365 days as a junior two year-old in the herd improvement register, and 13,988 pounds of milk and 775 pounds of fat, made on two times daily milking for 365 days as a junior four-year-old in the Herd improvement Register. He is sired by Foremost Quantity's Royal.

Corn Higher, Soybeans Low Cattle Level In Next Year

Corn: Prices will probably average a little better than last year. There is a somewhat smaller corn crop due to losses in the drouth area, but the reduction is partially offset by higher production of oats and other feed grains.

SOYBEANS: A somewhat larger soybean crop will be likely to sell at a lower average price than the 1953 crop.

Cattle: The remainder of the fed cattle crop bought in 1953-54 is apparently going to sell well. There should be a rather steady level of cattle prices, with usual seasonal variations. But feeders are costing more than they did a year ago, so cattle-feeding profits may not turn out to be so favorable as they have been in the past 12 months.

MILK: Prices until April 1955 will average lower than those of this past year but probably will go higher after that date. The volume of milk sold will be down a little.

Eggs: The volume of eggs marketed has been up, and prices have averaged lower. This situation is likely to continue until farm flocks are reduced, and at prevailing poultry prices this will be a slow process.

Salisbury And Norton On Feed Committee

G. W. Salisbury, head of the department of dairy science, and L. J. Norton, department of agricultural economics, both of the University of Illinois, have been selected to serve on the feed survey committee of the American feed manufacturers association. Salisbury and Norton are two of 23 outstanding college men who were carefully chosen geographically to section of the United States.

The committee met in Chicago October 28-29, and undertook an intensive and critical study of the national feed supply and general economic outlook. After two days of closed sessions, the group issured a forecast of the numbers of each type of livestock and poultry to be raised during the next twelve months, the amount of feed each animal and bird will eat, total feed consumption and the balance that will be likely to exist between feed supplies and use.

These difficult tasks have been handled with remarkable accuracy by similar groups of college experts every fall since 1942. The feed survey committee has seldom been off more than a few percentage points in any of its forecasts. Committee reports serve as a helpful guide in planning the nation's agricultural production programs, and requests from agricultural teachers and leaders for the reports have been increasing each year. AFMA expects to distribute about 50,000 copies of its report in 1954.

Farmers Are Excellent Credit Risks

Farmers are excellent credit risks. If there are any doubts about it, their 20-year record with Production Credit Assns., should quickly dispel them, according to the lead editorial in National Live Stock Producer, America's largest live stock publication.

During the past 20 years, farmers borrowed $12.4 billion in 4,830,000 loans through PCA. Losses, including a set aside for reserves, have been less than 1/6th of 1%.

THE PCA SYSTEM was created in 1934 with $90 million in federal funds and authority to borrow 10 times that amount. The purpose was to loan money to farmers for short term needs such as feed, seed, fertilizer, live stock and machinery.

Borrowers became members of PCA and invested 5% of the amount of their loans in stocks leading to eventual farmer ownership of the entire system.

THIS ARRANGEMENT has proven to be profitable for both the government and the taxpayers. To date, all but $4,610,500 of the original $90 million has been repaid with interest. Only 2.7% of the original capitalization has not been amortized. In addition, local PCA's have built up over $85.7 million in reserves with a total borrowing power of $1.7 billion.

American farmers can be proud of their record of paying for self-help in production financing. The PCA story, asserts the magazine, proves that farmers are not only good credit risks but also responsible members of the national economy.

Mundelein Cow Named National Champion

The champion cow is five years old and has a production record of 15,123 pounds of milk and 800 pounds of butterfat, made as a junior three-year-old. She was judged the show's best mature cow and senior champion female.

North Cook Rural Youth To Meet At Arlington Wednesday

North Cook Rural Youth will hold their regular meeting Wednesday, November 10, at 8:30 p. m. in the basement of the farm bureau building 201 N. Dunton avenue, Arlington Heights.

HOME OWNERS' QUESTION BOX

Q—Patches of mildew have formed on my basement wall. What's the best way to get them off?

A—Scrub the affected areas with a commercial mildew retardant or a solution of half an ounce of bichloride of mercury to a gallon of water. Bichloride is a deadly poison, so handle it carefully.

Q—My neighbor speaks of roofing his house with "210-pound asphalt shingles." What does he mean?

A—He's referring to three-tab square-butt asphalt strip shingles, which customarily weigh 210 pounds per square when 5 inches of each shingle tab is exposed as the shingles are laid on the roof deck. A square of roofing is the amount needed to cover 100 square feet of roof area. When three-tab square-butt asphalt strip shingles are applied in this way, 98 percent of the roof area is protected by two or more thicknesses of the tough, long-lived material.

Q—I want to re-stain a wooden cabinet, but sanding does not remove the old stain. What should I do?

A—Apply a commercial wood bleach or oxalic acid. To complete preparation for the new stain, give the wood a fine sanding.

Q—Is there any way to make a table top heat-resistant?

A—Yes. After removing the old finish, apply a mixture of one-third turpentine and two-thirds linseed oil. Use a soft, clean cloth. Rub the surface dry

TAX FACTS

By George Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

It has been calculated by the tax foundation, a private research organization, that every billion dollars cut from the Federal budget means $25 the average American family of four can keep for its own purposes.

Using this arithmetic, the $10 billion cut in federal spending in the past two years adds up to a saving of $250 for the average family — the cost of a good washing machine, or about half the price of that new color television set everybody will be talking about next year.

IF WE WANT tax cuts to give us more of those $25's to spend in our own way, instead of having the government take and spend them for us, the best chance to get them is through federal expenditure reductions. For example, Uncle Sam in recent years seems to have nudged into a lot of business-type ventures he never was in before. Few people realize that the government now does all these things (as reported by a committee of the last U. S. Congress.

Lends money; builds houses; stores agricultural commodities; insures lives, crops and cargoes; installs power lines and markets electricity; runs railroads; owns and manages hotels; prints and publishes magazines and other periodicals; rents buildings; operates stores and commissaries, communications services, terminal facilities, warehouses, bakeries, banks, fish hatcheries, laundries, and dry-cleaning plants; roasts coffee, manufactures fertilizer, clothing, helium, ice cream, tin, nickel, rope, rum and paint; and sells furs.

CERTAINLY, all these things have to be done by somebody. But some of these at least don't seem the kind of thing most people expect government to be doing, especially since they cost tax money. This might be one good place to make further spending cuts to put more of those $25's back in our own pockets.

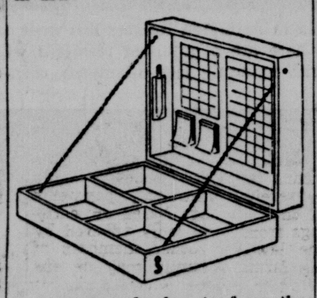
Wall Desk for Farmer

AS A businessman, the farmer will find it convenient to keep some of his records, such as milk and egg production, right at the scene — in the barn or poultry house. The barn wall desk, as illustrated, is a convenient one, since it folds out of the way when not in use.



Use scrap lumber to form the framework of the two sections. For the top and bottom, use Masonite Presdwood. Dividers may be the same material. A hook and eye keep the business portion of the desk fastened to the wall section when folded.

A piece of ¼" Presdwood inserted between the two sections will provide a convenient writing surface and serve also to keep the contents of the lower half from spilling when the desk is in its closed position.

Deadline November 20 For Navy College Setup

High school seniors and graduates have only until November 20 to apply for the navy's college training program. Candidates who apply for the NROTC will take the qualifying mental examination December 11 as the first step in the competitive cycle leading to an appointment as midshipman.

Successful candidates will start their naval careers in colleges and universities across the country in 1955, with substantial financial assistance from the government. After a normal college education, graduates will be commissioned in the regular navy or marine corps, for active duty with the fleet throughout the world.

Applicants in this area can obtain the necessary forms from the nearest high school or Navy Recruiting station, or by writing direct to the Chief of Naval Personnel, Washington 25, D.C.

Rare Books Exhibition

A collection of rare and significant first editions and manuscrips dating from medieval times to the present are on display in the lobby of Northwestern university's Deering library, on the Evanston campus.

The "Famous First Editions" exhibit, free and open to the public, will run until Friday, November 12.

North Western RR May Merge With Milwaukee

Two major railroads operating through Cook county may be merged in a move aimed at increasing the efficiency of both, according to speculation in financial circles.

The two roads are the North Western railroad, which operates two lines through the county and the Milwaukee road, with its lines paralleling those of the North Western.

Rumors of a pending merger between the companies was reported by Business Week magazine. They are based on an announcement that the two railroads soon will name a joint committee of directors to study economies of operation.

Arithmetic Can Help Save Lives

Arithmetic — if you'll apply what you learn—can save you from a corn picker accident this fall, says a University of Illinois agricultural engineer.

Wendell Bowers says two facts make it dangerous to ty to clean stalks out of a picker when it's running: First, it takes you nearly half a second to let go of a stalk after you see it's going through the snapping rolls.

And when you multiply that time by the speed of the rolls—they'll pull in seven feet of stalks per second — you have a result that can spell injury or death. Even if you grab the stalk at the end, says Bowers, you're still taking a big chance.

The solution is to shut off the picker. If the picker clogs so often that this isn't practical, better find out whether the picker's to blame.

Roselle Cow Moves

Northern Ohio breeders cooperative, Tiffin, Ohio, has just purchased the young Guernsey sire, Rosewood Royal Commander, according to the American Guernsey cattle club, from W. H. Odlum, Roselle.

This richly bred young bull is out of the well-bred cow, Clearland Butterfat Flash, that has once been classified very good, and has two production records of 9,576 pounds of milk and 462 pounds of fat, made on two times daily milking for 365 days as a junior two year-old in the herd improvement register, and 13,988 pounds of milk and 775 pounds of fat, made on two times daily milking for 365 days as a junior four-year-old in the Herd improvement Register. He is sired by Foremost Quantity's Royal.

Corn: Prices will probably average a little better than last year. There is a somewhat smaller corn crop due to losses in the drouth area, but the reduction is partially offset by higher production of oats and other feed grains.

SOYBEANS: A somewhat larger soybean crop will be likely to sell at a lower average price than the 1953 crop.

Cattle: The remainder of the fed cattle crop bought in 1953-54 is apparently going to sell well. There should be a rather steady level of cattle prices, with usual seasonal variations. But feeders are costing more than they did a year ago, so cattle-feeding profits may not turn out to be so favorable as they have been in the past 12 months.

MILK: Prices until April 1955 will average lower than those of this past year but probably will go higher after that date. The volume of milk sold will be down a little.

Eggs: The volume of eggs marketed has been up, and prices have averaged lower. This situation is likely to continue until farm flocks are reduced, and at prevailing poultry prices this will be a slow process.

Salisbury And Norton On Feed Committee

G. W. Salisbury, head of the department of dairy science, and L. J. Norton, department of agricultural economics, both of the University of Illinois, have been selected to serve on the feed survey committee of the American feed manufacturers association. Salisbury and Norton are two of 23 outstanding college men who were carefully chosen geographically to section of the United States.

The committee met in Chicago October 28-29, and undertook an intensive and critical study of the national feed supply and general economic outlook. After two days of closed sessions, the group issued a forecast of the numbers of each type of livestock and poultry to be raised during the next twelve months, the amount of feed each animal and bird will eat, total feed consumption and the balance that will be likely to exist between feed supplies and use.

These difficult tasks have been handled with remarkable accuracy by similar groups of college experts every fall since 1942. The feed survey committee has seldom been off more than a few percentage points in any of its forecasts. Committee reports serve as a helpful guide in planning the nation's agricultural production programs, and requests from agricultural teachers and leaders for the reports have been increasing each year. AFMA expects to distribute about 50,000 copies of its report in 1954.

Farmers Are Excellent Credit Risks

Farmers are excellent credit risks. If there are any doubts about it, their 20-year record with Production Credit Assns., should quickly dispel them, according to the lead editorial in National Live Stock Producer, America's largest live stock publication.

During the past 20 years, farmers borrowed $12.4 billion in 4,830,000 loans through PCA. Losses, including a set aside for reserves, have been less than 1/6th of 1%.

THE PCA SYSTEM was created in 1934 with $90 million in federal funds and authority to borrow 10 times that amount. The purpose was to loan money to farmers for short term needs such as feed, seed, fertilizer, live stock and machinery.

Borrowers became members of PCA and invested 5% of the amount of their loans in stocks leading to eventual farmer ownership of the entire system.

THIS ARRANGEMENT has proven to be profitable for both the government and the taxpayers. To date, all but $4,610,500 of the original $90 million has been repaid with interest. Only 2.7% of the original capitalization has not been amortized. In addition, local PCA's have built up over $85.7 million in reserves with a total borrowing power of $1.7 billion.

American farmers can be proud of their record of paying for self-help in production financing. The PCA story, asserts the magazine, proves that farmers are not only good credit risks but also responsible members of the national economy.

Mundelein Cow Named National Champion

The champion cow is five years old and has a production record of 15,123 pounds of milk and 800 pounds of butterfat, made as a junior three-year-old. She was judged the show's best mature cow and senior champion female.

Probably one of the gayest Halloween parties held in Arlington Heights last week was the one sponsored by the residents of the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged. Pictured here are a group of residents who "dressed up" for the occasion. The party was held in the recreation hall which was bedecked with haunting jack-o-lanterns, corn shocks, witches and bats for the occasion.

Two Sisters Spend 5 Weeks in Europe

Irene and I left on the Queen Elizabeth at 12 o'clock Aug. 4, 1954, impressed with the hundreds of people on the dock waving goodbye to anyone who cared to wave back. As the ship carried us down the Hudson river, we stayed on deck to watch the New York skyline and wave to the incoming steamships. Very interesting river, the Hudson.

Our main purpose, and that of all the others on deck, was to wait for the Statue of Liberty and like everyone else we crowded to the rail to take her picture and after watching her fade into the distance we went below to start life on board ship with the noon meal.

Substantial English food, nourishing but a little flat tasting. Irene and I were, like the majority of the passengers, in the tourist class. That means there were 3 decks below our cabin on D deck—and the tourist sun and sports deck was the very top of the ship—by the time we got to the top, the rare times we walked, we felt worn out for the rest of the day.

We had excellent service on the Queen; we won't forget the courteous, efficient people who helped make our life pleasant on board ship. There was an orchestra for dancing every night. Beef tea was served in all the public rooms and the sports deck every morning at 11 o'clock, and tea and crumpets every afternoon at four. On the third day out we met two of the ship's officers (engineers) and they showed us parts of the ship not normally seen by passengers.

ALL IN ALL, life on board ship was very pleasant and we hated to leave—but we said goodbye to our friends and left on the tender for Cherbourg. After going through customs we caught a boat train to Paris. We had our dinner on the train.

To this day we don't know if the food was so excellent because of the French methods of preparing or from the contrast from the English food. We had difficulty adjusting to the fact that the people around us didn't understand English. It's a shock not being able to make yourself understood. The Paris station was all bustle and confusion to us foreigners.

We were met by representatives of our tour and taken to another depot where we caught a train for Brussels to join the others on our tour.

We arrived at 6 in the morning. The Continental breakfast consisted of tea and rolls. It was tea because we had already had a sample of what Europeans consider coffee. It differs remarkably from what we consider coffee in America.

Part of the continental hotel service consists of giving guests breakfast in their rooms. Our tour comprised 14 including ourselves. We left by special coach for Cologne, Germany. All of the Belgian countryside is very neat and well maintained. It looked to us like suburban homes and gardens more than farm lands.

WE HAD OUR FIRST experience with hotels in Cologne. You feel as though you are drowning when you sink so deep into the huge feather beds. Needing a bath we rang for the maid. She was a little German and after a lot of sign language we conveyed our desires and she ran off to draw the water. She then reappeared and conducted us down the corridor to the bathroom. All the hotels except Italian have bath rooms apart from the bedrooms. The hotel provides hot water and towels; you provide soap and wash clothes.

We were so emboldened by our first attempt in Germany arranging for baths that we felt confident in Baden-Baden as we rang for the maid and said in excellent German that we desired a bath. She courtsied and left. Half an hour passed and she didn't appear to notify us the baths were ready. We rang again and explained again. This time she indicated we were to follow her. We went through countless miles of hotel corridors. The hotel where we stayed was built on two sides of the street with corridors above the street connecting the two parts.

We ended up on the other side of the street from our rooms to find ourselves taking a Thermal bath. Baden-Baden is a health as well as a pleasure resort. We paid $2.50 each for the baths.

We emerged healthy and crestfallen, especially when we found that two of our friends on the tour, not knowing German, had asked for a bath in English and had gotten the regular kind free. That ended our attempts at the German language.

We stayed in Cologne overnight, sufficient time for our tour to go to a wine cellar. On our way to Coblentz we passed through Bonn and the birthplace of Beethoven. At Coblentz we boarded a Rhine steamer for a trip down that river. The Rhine wines come from the vineyards planted alongside. How the people manage to cultivate them without falling down into the river is a real feat.

We were very enthusiastic about Heidelberg although we stayed only long enough for lunch and to explore the castle before returning to Baden-Baden, our stop-over before the Black Forest.

That night we went to a Casino where we saw a quiet little man win approximately $5,000 in American money. We lost four marks.

THE BLACK FOREST is a very beautiful drive. We stayed several days in Lucerne, Switzerland, enjoying every minute of it. The Swiss people are friendly and hospitable and most of them speak English. We went for a Swiss "night out" while in Lucerne, which consisted in going high up in the mountains to a jolly Swiss tavern where you dip pieces of bread into melted cheese, listen to Swiss yodelers, and dance the Swiss polka. We entertained them by singing American songs.

While in Switzerland we also went to Interlocken and through the Grimsel pass to the Rhone Glacier. Here we met with treacherous mountain roads as it was snowing. It was with some feeling of relief that we found ourselves back in lower altitudes and Geneva. After visiting the League of Nations, we went to Montreaux and the castle of Chillon.

AUGUST 20 we were in Venice. This city has to be seen to be appreciated. The main routes of transportation are its famous canals; if you're not in a hurry you go by water, if you are in a hurry you walk. Excellent place for tourists.

Florence is a beautiful city in a beautiful setting. It is also a very hospitable city. We felt more at home there than in any other city in Italy.

We made Naples our headquarters to visit Pompei, Capri and the Amali drive. Pompei was extremely interesting. Capri was an anti-climax after the wonderful views of the Blue Mediterrean and the white fishing villages on the coast as seen from the Amalfi drive except for a visit inside the famous Blue Grotto.

August 27th we were in Rome. We, too, toured the Vatican and were impressed with the size of St. Peters. We were also taken to see the ancient Roman ruins. We went to Tivoli, outside of Rome, but saw only a fraction of the 700 odd fountains to be seen

From Rome we went driving down the Italian Riviera to the French Riviera and enjoyed ourselves very much in Nice. We would have liked to stayed there longer. They told us there that they have outlawed Bikinis in Nice. They are still legal in Cannes.

In Paris we were fortunate enough to have a friend to show us the city and the Left Bank—apart from the tour; so we went where the French people were accustomed to going and had a wonderful time. We were quite proud of ourselves as we were taught how to use their subway system. We can now find our way around Paris better than around Chicago.

On Sept. 8 we left for Austria where we spent four days with relatives in Salsburg and Innsbruch. In Innsbruch we went to the top of the mountain Hafelekar, 7400 feet high, by the cable railway.

Betty Jost.

We Pay Our Way

Several times in the past we have been tempted to write to The Fence Post concerning the attitude of the people of Arlington Heights toward the people living at Arlington Airport. The letter written by Mrs. Robert Hutchins in the Fence Post October 21, was the straw that broke the camel's back. We feel it's about time someone heard our side of the story.

It seems her main gripe is the cost of "allowing" our children to attend a branch of the Fairview school. We wish the people of Arlington Heights would pay a visit to our school. The management of Arlington Airport donated two large rooms in the barracks to accommodate the children. They do not attend the school on South State road. Our rent was raised two dollars a month to help pay for the cost of maintaining this so-called school.

WE HAVE NO NEW equipment. It is all old and very much used. There are no sanitary facilities for the children and no playground equipment at all. We pay rental for the books just as at other schools. Last year we had to buy them. I have totaled the estimated cost of maintaining this school given by Mrs. Hutchins. It is at the least $29,500. If this amount is correct, something should be investigated. The money certainly hasn't been put into this poor excuse for a school with two rooms and two teachers.

Two years ago when we were told our children could no longer attend the public grade schools in Arlington Heights, an offer was made by the management of the airport property to pay a fee so they could attend. It was turned down on the basis government property cannot be taxed. Then some of us offered to pay tuition and were told that wouldn't be accepted either. In other words, "We just don't want your children. It's your tough luck for having them."

WE HAVE LIVED in Arlington Heights for twenty years and there are many others out here who have called Arlington Heights home all their lives. Our parents have paid school taxes many years after their children's schooling was finished.

Yet the townspeople have set themselves up in judgment and said the children of the "Trailer Trash" (and that's the name our children are called by the well-bred children of the people of Arlington Heights) will not be allowed to go to school with their children. Believe us, it makes us ashamed to admit we were raised in this town.

We'd say at least half of the residents here are not here by choice. They have tried finding apartments in Arlington or this vicinity. Mrs. Hutchins evidently has not. The rents range from $100 and up. Mostly up. If you happen to be unlucky enough to have children, you just don't find a place.

THAT'S THE SITUATION that has driven people to buy trailers. They thought at least then they had a place to have their children. We'll admit some of the conditions here were not the best, but then neither are they in some parts of town. We have lived in much better places, but have also seen much worse.

Most of us take a great deal of pride in our mobile homes. We have all the latest household equipment, plumbing and appliances. Evidently the majority of people who are doing the loudest complaining have never even been inside a trailer. Some trailers even have automatic washers, driers and garbage disposals. We definitely do not feel we're "camping out."

THE BUSINESSMEN of Arlington Heights have been happy to accept our patronage of their stores, but let us have a fire and we're charged $25, or need the inhalator and it's $44. We feel we pay our way. We don't get something for nothing.

Our children are unwanted, yet we've parked our cars in town only to come back in an hour or so to find the windows smashed and the police department apologizing for the teenage gangs that come from the "good homes" of Arlington Heights. Our cars have never received a scratch parked out here.

The people we've met in trailer parks are some of the nicest, friendliest we've ever met and have learned to live together in a small area and respect others privacy and property.

ASIDE FROM TAXES, we pay more for electricity, telephones and anything else the town might supply. They made a handsome profit from us, yet we're dirt because we don't own a piece of ground with a 25 year mortgage.

The townspeople think they're fed up. Well, frankly, so are we. Simply because we asked for help in getting a delay on eviction. It isn't easy for 160 families to get relocated. Some of us already have, but the majority are finding no children are admitted, the rent way out of line, or you have to give someone $100 under the table.

This used to be a small town with a big heart. It's gotten to be a big town with a small heart. We love our children and want them to have a good education, too.

In The Future

A plastic hobby kit offers four historic locomotives in numbered pieces, which can be put together to run on O-gauge track ... Weatherproof imprint tape (for names or initials) sticks without glue or cement to golf clubs, fishing equipment and umbrellas ... An eight-record course in voice instruction, in case you want to speak or sing better, comes in a single $36 package ... A self-wringing mop operates by means of a plastic sleeve which folds the cellulose head to squeeze out moisture.

Lecture At N.U.

A leading Brazilian scholar and political figure will discuss Portugal's African colonies in a lecture, free and open to the public, at 8 p.m. Thursday, November 4, on Northwestern University's Evanston campus.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

FROM PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

We just got back from our school's Halloween party and costume contest and guess what —we won first prize in the kindergarten class! Because of the size of our kindergarten (83), three prizes were given and two white "bunnies" by the names of Megan and Bridget won the very first one. If you want to be really technical about it, I suppose it was a little unfair for Bridget to be in the contest, too. However, Megan wanted her to, Bridget wanted to and teacher had said that little brothers and sisters could come to the party.

Picture these two tiny things dressed identically in soft, white, cotton flannel suits, which covered them completely from their finger tips to the soles of their feet. Covering their heads entirely were white hoods, lined with pink flannel, from which two pink-lined rabbit ears stood straight up in the air. A rear view of the "bunnies" revealed a saucy little cotton tail and a huge pink satin bow, perkily tied at the nape of the neck. Each carried a large carrot, top and all.

BEFORE I GO ON, Peg dear, let me warn you right now that you may get slightly nauseated as you continue to read about our darling children (that is, if you're still with me), but I'm going to tell you all about them anyway. You see, that's what's nice about letter writing—I can just sit here and tell you through my typewriter all about ourselves (anyone's favorite subject) and since I can't really see or hear you, I can pretend that you're positively fascinated with each one of us, and can hardly wait to hear about our family's experiences.

Be that as it may, we shall now go back to the school gymnasium where Megan and Bridget have just been awarded the first prize and are being led up the steps to the stage. There they are seated while the other grades are judged. I thought surely Bridget would get bored before all this was over, but not at all.

SHE SAT CROSS-LEGGED at the edge of the stage, watching the parade and chomping on her carrot. When the judging was over, a photographer took pictures, having nicely arranged all the winners in a group around the two "bunnies." That's not all—he then followed the "bunnies" into the cafeteria, where Halloween refreshments were served, and took individual shots of them.

Before we left for home, many mothers came up to congratulate the girls and ask me if I made the costumes. I said that I had and that they were quite simple to make. 'Simple' ha! Being a raw beginner at sewing, it took me three days and two nights of interrupted concentration to whip up these two little costumes.

Oops! My "bunnies" just came into the living room and are crawling around on their hands and knees. This will never do, as they must wear those white suits tomorrow night. We are having a few friends and their children in for treats around eight o'clock.

My love,
Patty.

Thank You Palatine

On the front page of this paper will be a report of last Saturday's swimming pool election in Palatine. That sweeping 6 to 1 vote in favor of a pool by nearly 1100 voters was a real tribute to our Park Board for its thoroughness and vision.

Thanks to them for giving us the opportunity to ask for a pool in such a landslide of opinion.

And thanks to a lot of others — to those who inspired the Board and your Citizens' Committee by their attendance at Park Board meetings; to those who took time to write to this column urging a "Yes" vote; to the six area chairmen who spent so much time and effort on getting out the vote; to the 50 or more workers who helped the area chairmen so well; to the others who worked behind the scenes to get out their friends and neighbors; to community and school leaders who came out with their endorsements of the swimming pool plan; to all the enthusiastic advocates of a swimming pool for all their help; to Stuart Paddock for his invaluable assistance.

And thanks most of all to the voters who turned out so well to make it a really memorable election day.

Barrington Polio Fund

In the Thursday, October 21 issue of the Palatine Enterprise, the Editor's column included a paragraph in reference to the recent emergency polio drive. In it, Barrington was credited with contributing only $12.00 to this drive, and you "wondered what kind of blood is in the veins of your neighbors."

Barrington's contribution to this emergency drive actually totaled $1,034.24, and because of our location in both Cook and Lake counties, we were directed by the fund authorities to turn over the entire proceeds to the Lake county headquarters of the fund in order to simplify the administrative work. Including the $12.00 with which you have credited us as coming from Cook county, Barrington's contribution to this effort reaches the imposing total of $1,046.24.

Our community has contributed so generously not only to this emergency drive, for it is a matter of record that Barrington's donations to the January, 1954 March of Dimes amounted to $7,973.57, a total of $9019.81 for 1954 alone.

I would appreciate it if you will publish this letter in your forthcoming issue, not alone to answer your question, but to correct a grave injustice which has been done to the many contributors in the area served by your newspaper.

Promise Support

Many citizens of Mount Prospect have written letters to our 3 representatives and senator from the 7th district asking their feeling and intention toward State Aid for schools.

The questions asked were in effect—If elected, will you support a bill providing for a Deficit Appropriation for Education to give the equalization aid promised by the 68th General Assembly? Secondly, will you support legislation in the next legislature to provide an equalization level of at least $180 as recommended by the School Problems Commission?

Their replies are quoted below.

BERNICE T. VANDER VRIES — "I assure you that I shall do everything for the schools of Illinois in the 1955 session of the General Assembly."

ARTHUR J. BIDWELL — "I am in receipt of your card and as I have long been an advocate of progressive school legislation, you may be sure that I will continue to do all in my power for the best interests of our schools."

ARTHUR W. SPRAGUE — "I feel as you do about the hours of schooling for your daughters. The problems of financing are complicated but such complexity should not be allowed to prevent a reasonable financial program for our schools.

"As far as I am concerned I feel that each district should receive in full the aid that the 68th General Assembly intended to provide. Just how this should be worked out or what equalization level should be adopted in the next session of the Legislature are matters with respect to which I prefer to make no specific commitment at this time. I'm sure that if you were in my position you would want an opportunity to study the facts as well as the specific legislation which is proposed.

"Please be assured I'll continue my friendly interest in school matters and will endeavor to assist in the solution of the many pressing problems."

JOSEPH J. LELIVELT —"Received your letter with reference to supporting certain bills in the next session of the legislature on education and beg to state that during the last session I was a member of the Education Committee and have tried to follow the suggestions of the School Problems Commission because I feel that they have investigated thoroughly the needs of the various schools and districts.

Your suggestions have been favored by me in the past and at present I feel that they will be favored by the School Problems Commission at the time of the next session of the Legislature."

Who Knows

It amuses me that Mr. Stuart Paddock in his editorial says, "It is very comforting to KNOW we do not have to think about retiring or dying for a few more years."

Isn't it somewhat anomalous, Stuart, to judge your lifeline by the other fellow's? One similitude—Not all the blossoms drop off the plant at the same time and your philosophy is somewhat hypothetical, to say the least.

While we are concerned about how to live it would seem advisable also to plan on "how to die," according to "Thanatopsis.,"

The basis of age alone, seems definitely thaumaturgical and comforting to Stuart Paddock but I can't quite figure out (pardon the caustic remark) how he is going to decide just when to begin his complacent and leisurely preparation to answer the final summons.

There is often no advance warning, Stuart.

While I am no oracle, if I should be correct in my hypothesis I would not even have the satisfaction of the customary "I told you so."

Railroad Parking

On October 1 our family moved to Arlington Heights and I became a commuter.

I always had a wee bit of envy for those who drove or were driven to the station—got their newspapers or met their card-playing friends and settled down to a relaxing 30 minutes ride and were able to meet their work day without the problem of nerves which were harassed by the early morning traffic. Now, after four weeks of this commutation, I have reached the careful decision that the "grass is not much greener" on the other side.

To begin with, I must leave home a full thirty minutes earlier in order to try to find a parking place within walking distance of the depot. The typical situation upon arriving at the parking lot of the Northwestern station is that it is filled with cars parked in a very unorderly fashion. Most of the cars—whether they are early arrivals or overnight parkers I cannot distinguish—are occupying enough space for one and a half cars. There are also some people who do not park diagonal—but prefer to have their car in a position where it takes two parking spaces. (The owner of the dilapidated Mercury station wagon with the 1953 license is a perfect example of this). I suppose there are several others who live within a nominal walking distance of the station who prefer to drive and park all day. Under normal circumstances where there would be an abundance of facilities this would not be disputed—but don't you think that these persons could arrange to ride together or walk? (I know if the train stopped at Arlington Park, I would walk the half-mile to the station.)

This situation may be the result of growing pains—but I certainly think that something should be done before there is a permanent lameness evident.

I am unaware as to the sponsors of the parking facilities—however, I am assuming that they are not aware of the misuse of the privilege.

SPRED SATIN

FOR WALLS • CEILINGS • WOODWORK

For the first time, you can paint rooms in winter and know that they will still have "freshly painted" beauty next summer. Spred SATIN'S smooth film has less porosity to absorb and hold household dirt. It stays clean longer and when necessary, mild soap and water washes it clean again in a jiffy.

- Goes on in half the time.
- No laps or brushmarks.
- No offensive or painty odor.
- Use room right away.
- No messy brush clean-up ... just soap and water.

You could even pour harsh lye on it ... not that you'll want to — but it indicates the ability of Spred SATIN to withstand all kinds of abuse in your home.

Two Sisters Spend 5 Weeks in Europe

Irene and I left on the Queen Elizabeth at 12 o'clock Aug. 4, 1954, impressed with the hundreds of people on the dock waving goodbye to anyone who cared to wave back. As the ship carried us down the Hudson river, we stayed on deck to watch the New York skyline and wave to the incoming steamships. Very interesting river, the Hudson.

Our main purpose, and that of all the others on deck, was to wait for the Statue of Liberty and like everyone else we crowded to the rail to take her picture and after watching her fade into the distance we went below to start life on board ship with the noon meal.

Substantial English food, nourishing but a little flat tasting. Irene and I were, like the majority of the passengers, in the tourist class. That means there were 3 decks below our cabin on D deck—and the tourist sun and sports deck was the very top of the ship—by the time we got to the top, the rare times we walked, we felt worn out for the rest of the day.

We had excellent service on the Queen; we won't forget the courteous, efficient people who helped make our life pleasant on board ship. There was an orchestra for dancing every night. Beef tea was served in all the public rooms and the sports deck every morning at 11 o'clock, and tea and crumpets every afternoon at four. On the third day out we met two of the ship's officers (engineers) and they showed us parts of the ship not normally seen by passengers.

ALL IN ALL, life on board ship was very pleasant and we hated to leave—but we said goodbye to our friends and left on the tender for Cherbourg. After going through customs we caught a boat train to Paris. We had our dinner on the train.

To this day we don't know if the food was so excellent because of the French methods of preparing or from the contrast from the English food. We had difficulty adjusting to the fact that the people around us didn't understand English. It's a shock not being able to make yourself understood. The Paris station was all bustle and confusion to us foreigners.

We were met by representatives of our tour and taken to another depot where we caught a train for Brussels to join the others on our tour.

We arrived at 6 in the morning. The Continental breakfast consisted of tea and rolls. It was tea because we had already had a sample of what Europeans consider coffee. It differs remarkably from what we consider coffee in America.

Part of the continental hotel service consists of giving guests breakfast in their rooms. Our tour comprised 14 including ourselves. We left by special coach for Cologne, Germany. All of the Belgian countryside is very neat and well maintained. It looked to us like suburban homes and gardens more than farm lands.

WE HAD OUR FIRST experience with hotels in Cologne. You feel as though you are drowning when you sink so deep into the huge feather beds. Needing a bath we rang for the maid. She was a little German and after a lot of sign language we conveyed our desires and she ran off to draw the water. She then reappeared and conducted us down the corridor to the bathroom. All the hotels except Italian have bath rooms apart from the bedrooms. The hotel provides hot water and towels; you provide soap and wash clothes.

We were so emboldened by our first attempt in Germany arranging for baths that we felt confident in Baden-Baden as we rang for the maid and said in excellent German that we desired a bath. She courtsied and left. Half an hour passed and she didn't appear to notify us the baths were ready. We rang again and explained again. This time she indicated we were to follow her. We went through countless miles of hotel corridors. The hotel where we stayed was built on two sides of the street with corridors above the street connecting the two parts.

We ended up on the other side of the street from our rooms to find ourselves taking a Thermal bath. Baden-Baden is a health as well as a pleasure resort. We paid $2.50 each for the baths.

We emerged healthy and crestfallen, especially when we found that two of our friends on the tour, not knowing German, had asked for a bath in English and had gotten the regular kind free. That ended our attempts at the German language.

We stayed in Cologne overnight, sufficient time for our tour to go to a wine cellar. On our way to Coblentz we passed through Bonn and the birthplace of Beethoven. At Coblentz we boarded a Rhine steamer for a trip down that river. The Rhine wines come from the vineyards planted alongside. How the people manage to cultivate them without falling down into the river is a real feat.

We were very enthusiastic about Heidelberg although we stayed only long enough for lunch and to explore the castle before returning to Baden-Baden, our stop-over before the Black Forest.

That night we went to a Casino where we saw a quiet little man win approximately $5,000 in American money. We lost four marks.

THE BLACK FOREST is a very beautiful drive. We stayed several days in Lucerne, Switzerland, enjoying every minute of it. The Swiss people are friendly and hospitable and most of them speak English. We went for a Swiss "night out" while in Lucerne, which consisted in going high up in the mountains to a jolly Swiss tavern where you dip pieces of bread into melted cheese, listen to Swiss yodelers, and dance the Swiss polka. We entertained them by singing American songs.

While in Switzerland we also went to Interlocken and through the Grimsel pass to the Rhone Glacier. Here we met with treacherous mountain roads as it was snowing. It was with some feeling of relief that we found ourselves back in lower altitudes and Geneva. After visiting the League of Nations, we went to Montreaux and the castle of Chillon.

After two quiet days we left for Stressa, Italy, and the first really sunny day of our tour. Stressa is on Lake Maggiore in the lake country of Italy, a really nice resort area.

AUGUST 20 we were in Venice. This city has to be seen to be appreciated. The main routes of transportation are its famous canals; if you're not in a hurry you go by water, if you are in a hurry you walk. Excellent place for tourists.

Florence is a beautiful city in a beautiful setting. It is also a very hospitable city. We felt more at home there than in any other city in Italy.

We made Naples our headquarters to visit Pompei, Capri and the Amali drive. Pompei was extremely interesting. Capri was an anti-climax after the wonderful views of the Blue Mediterrean and the white fishing villages on the coast as seen from the Amalfi drive except for a visit inside the famous Blue Grotto.

August 27th we were in Rome. We, too, toured the Vatican and were impressed with the size of St. Peters. We were also taken to see the ancient Roman ruins. We went to Tivoli, outside of Rome, but saw only a fraction of the 700 odd fountains to be seen.

From Rome we went driving down the Italian Riviera to the French Riviera and enjoyed ourselves very much in Nice. We would have liked to stayed there longer. They told us there that they have outlawed Bikinis in Nice. They are still legal in Cannes.

In Paris we were fortunate enough to have a friend to show us the city and the Left Bank—apart from the tour; so we went where the French people were accustomed to going and had a wonderful time. We were quite proud of ourselves as we were taught how to use their subway system. We can now find our way around Paris better than around Chicago.

On Sept. 8 we left for Austria where we spent four days with relatives in Salsburg and Innsbruch. In Innsbruch we went to the top of the mountain Hafelekar, 7400 feet high, by the cable railway.

Betty Jost.

We Pay Our Way

Several times in the past we have been tempted to write to The Fence Post concerning the attitude of the people of Arlington Heights toward the people living at Arlington Airport. The letter written by Mrs. Robert Hutchins in the Fence Post October 21, was the straw that broke the camel's back. We feel it's about time someone heard our side of the story.

It seems her main gripe is the cost of "allowing" our children to attend a branch of the Fairview school. We wish the people of Arlington Heights would pay a visit to our school. The management of Arlington Airport donated two large rooms in the barracks to accommodate the children. They do not attend the school on South State road. Our rent was raised two dollars a month to help pay for the cost of maintaining this so-called school.

WE HAVE NO NEW equipment. It is all old and very much used. There are no sanitary facilities for the children and no playground equipment at all. We pay rental for the books just as at other schools. Last year we had to buy them. I have totaled the estimated cost of maintaining this school given by Mrs. Hutchins. It is at the least $29,500. If this amount is correct, something should be investigated. The money certainly hasn't been put into this poor excuse for a school with two rooms and two teachers.

Two years ago when we were told our children could no longer attend the public grade schools in Arlington Heights, an offer was made by the management of the airport property to pay a fee so they could attend. It was turned down on the basis government property cannot be taxed. Then some of us offered to pay tuition and were told that wouldn't be accepted either. In other words, "We just don't want your children. It's your tough luck for having them."

WE HAVE LIVED in Arlington Heights for twenty years and there are many others out here who have called Arlington Heights home all their lives. Our parents have paid school taxes many years after their children's schooling was finished.

Yet the townspeople have set themselves up in judgment and said the children of the "Trailer Trash" (and that's the name our children are called by the well-bred children of the people of Arlington Heights) will not be allowed to go to school with their children. Believe us, it makes us ashamed to admit we were raised in this town.

We'd say at least half of the residents here are not here by choice. They have tried finding apartments in Arlington or this vicinity. Mrs. Hutchins evidently has not. The rents range from $100 and up. Mostly up. If you happen to be unlucky enough to have children, you just don't find a place.

THAT'S THE SITUATION that has driven people to buy trailers. They thought at least then they had a place to have their children. We'll admit some of the conditions here were not the best, but then neither are they in some parts of town. We have lived in much better places, but have also seen much worse.

Most of us take a great deal of pride in our mobile homes. We have all the latest household equipment, plumbing and appliances. Evidently the majority of people who are doing the loudest complaining have never even been inside a trailer. Some trailers even have automatic washers, driers and garbage disposals. We definitely do not feel we're "camping out."

THE BUSINESSMEN of Arlington Heights have been happy to accept our patronage of their stores, but let us have a fire and we're charged $25, or need the inhalator and it's $44. We feel we pay our way. We don't get something for nothing.

Our children are unwanted, yet we've parked our cars in town only to come back in an hour or so to find the windows smashed and the police department apologizing for the teenage gangs that come from the "good homes" of Arlington Heights. Our cars have never received a scratch parked out here.

The people we've met in trailer parks are some of the nicest, friendliest we've ever met and have learned to live together in a small area and respect others privacy and property.

ASIDE FROM TAXES, we pay more for electricity, telephones and anything else the town might supply. They made a handsome profit from us, yet we're dirt because we don't own a piece of ground with a 25 year mortgage.

The townspeople think they're fed up. Well, frankly, so are we. Simply because we asked for help in getting a delay on eviction. It isn't easy for 160 families to get relocated. Some of us already have, but the majority are finding no children are admitted, the rent way out of line, or you have to give someone $100 under the table.

This used to be a small town with a big heart. It's gotten to be a big town with a small heart. We love our children and want them to have a good education, too.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

FROM PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

We just got back from our school's Halloween party and costume contest and guess what—we won first prize in the kindergarten class! Because of the size of our kindergarten (83), three prizes were given and two white "bunnies" by the names of Megan and Bridget won the very first one. If you want to be really technical about it, I suppose it was a little unfair for Bridget to be in the contest, too. However, Megan wanted her to, Bridget wanted to and teacher had said that little brothers and sisters could come to the party.

Picture these two tiny things dressed identically in soft, white, cotton flannel suits, which covered them completely from their finger tips to the soles of their feet. Covering their heads entirely were white hoods, lined with pink flannel, from which two pink-lined rabbit ears stood straight up in the air. A rear view of the "bunnies" revealed a saucy little cotton tail and a huge pink satin bow, perkily tied at the nape of the neck. Each carried a large carrot, top and all.

BEFORE I GO ON, Peg dear, let me warn you right now that you may get slightly nauseated as you continue to read about our darling children (that is, if you're still with me), but I'm going to tell you all about them anyway. You see, that's what's nice about letter writing—I can just sit here and tell you through my typewriter all about ourselves (anyone's favorite subject) and since I can't really see or hear you, I can pretend that you're positively fascinated with each one of us, and can hardly wait to hear about our family's experiences.

Be that as it may, we shall now go back to the school gymnasium where Megan and Bridget have just been awarded the first prize and are being led up the steps to the stage. There they are seated while the other grades are judged. I thought surely Bridget would get bored before all this was over, but not at all.

SHE SAT CROSS-LEGGED at the edge of the stage, watching the parade and chomping on her carrot. When the judging was over, a photographer took pictures, having nicely arranged all the winners in a group around the two "bunnies." That's not all—he then followed the "bunnies" into the cafeteria, where Halloween refreshments were served, and took individual shots of them.

Before we left for home, many mothers came up to congratulate the girls and ask me if I made the costumes. I said that I had and that they were quite simple to make. 'Simple' ha! Being a raw beginner at sewing, it took me three days and two nights of interrupted concentration to whip up these two little costumes.

Oops! My "bunnies" just came into the living room and are crawling around on their hands and knees. This will never do, as they must wear those white suits tomorrow night. We are having a few friends and their children in for treats around eight o'clock.

My love,
Patty.

THE FENCE POST

Letters to the Fence Post should be short and concise. All letters must be signed, though name will be withheld if desired. Address Fence Post, Paddock Publications, Inc., Arlington Heights, Ill.

Thank You Palatine

On the front page of this paper will be a report of last Saturday's swimming pool election in Palatine. That sweeping 6 to 1 vote in favor of a pool by nearly 1100 voters was a real tribute to our Park Board for its thoroughness and vision.

Thanks to them for giving us the opportunity to ask for a pool in such a landslide of opinion.

And thanks to a lot of others — to those who inspired the Board and your Citizens' Committee by their attendance at Park Board meetings; to those who took time to write to this column urging a "Yes" vote; to the six area chairmen who spent so much time and effort on getting out the vote; to the 50 or more workers who helped the area chairmen so well; to the others who worked behind the scenes to get out their friends and neighbors; to community and school leaders who came out with their endorsements of the swimming pool plan; to all the enthusiastic advocates of a swimming pool for all their help; to Stuart Paddock for his invaluable assistance.

And thanks most of all to the voters who turned out so well to make it a really memorable election day.

Barrington Polio Fund

In the Thursday, October 21 issue of the Palatine Enterprise, the Editor's column included a paragraph in reference to the recent emergency polio drive. In it, Barrington was credited with contributing only $12.00 to this drive, and you "wondered what kind of blood is in the veins of your neighbors."

As the chairman of the Barrington chapter of the March of Dimes, I would like to correct the erroneous figure which appeared in this item.

Barrington's contribution to this emergency drive actually totaled $1,034.24, and because of our location in both Cook and Lake counties, we were directed by the fund authorities to turn over the entire proceeds to the Lake county headquarters of the fund in order to simplify the administrative work. Including the $12.00 with which you have credited us as coming from Cook county, Barrington's contribution to this effort reaches the imposing total of $1,046.24.

Our community has contributed so generously not only to this emergency drive, for it is a matter of record that Barrington's donations to the January, 1954 March of Dimes amounted to $7,973.57, a total of $9019.81 for 1954 alone.

I would appreciate it if you will publish this letter in your forthcoming issue, not alone to answer your question, but to correct a grave injustice which has been done to the many contributors in the area served by your newspaper.

Promise Support

Many citizens of Mount Prospect have written letters to our 3 representatives and senator from the 7th district asking their feeling and intention toward State Aid for schools.

The questions asked were in effect—If elected, will you support a bill providing for a Deficit Appropriation for Education to give the equalization aid promised by the 68th General Assembly? Secondly, will you support legislation in the next legislature to provide an equalization level of at least $180 as recommended by the School Problems Commission?

Their replies are quoted below.

BERNICE T. VANDER VRIES — "I assure you that I shall do everything for the schools of Illinois in the 1955 session of the General Assembly."

ARTHUR J. BIDWELL — "I am in receipt of your card and as I have long been an advocate of progressive school legislation, you may be sure that I will continue to do all in my power for the best interests of our schools."

ARTHUR W. SPRAGUE — "I feel as you do about the hours of schooling for your daughters. The problems of financing are complicated but such complexity should not be allowed to prevent a reasonable financial program for our schools.

"As far as I am concerned I feel that each district should receive in full the aid that the 68th General Assembly intended to provide. Just how this should be worked out or what equalization level should be adopted in the next session of the Legislature are matters with respect to which I prefer to make no specific commitment at this time. I'm sure that if you were in my position you would want an opportunity to study the facts as well as the specific legislation which is proposed.

"Please be assured I'll continue my friendly interest in school matters and will endeavor to assist in the solution of the many pressing problems."

JOSEPH J. LELIVELT —"Received your letter with reference to supporting certain bills in the next session of the legislature on education and beg to state that during the last session I was a member of the Education Committee and have tried to follow the suggestions of the School Problems Commission because I feel that they have investigated thoroughly the needs of the various schools and districts.

Your suggestions have been favored by me in the past and at present I feel that they will be favored by the School Problems Commission at the time of the next session of the Legislature."

Who Knows

It amuses me that Mr. Stuart Paddock in his editorial says, "It is very comforting to KNOW we do not have to think about retiring or dying for a few more years."

Isn't it somewhat anomalous, Stuart, to judge your lifeline by the other fellow's? One similitude—Not all the blossoms drop off the plant at the same time and your philosophy is somewhat hypothetical, to say the least.

"So far and no farther" is the Divine Design. Here today and gone tomorrow.

While we are concerned about how to live it would seem advisable also to plan on "how to die," according to "Thanatopsis.,"

The basis of age alone, seems definitely thaumaturgical and comforting to Stuart Paddock but I can't quite figure out (pardon the caustic remark) how he is going to decide just when to begin his complacent and leisurely preparation to answer the final summons.

There is often no advance warning, Stuart.

While I am no oracle, if I should be correct in my hypothesis I would not even have the satisfaction of the customary "I told you so."

Railroad Parking

On October 1 our family moved to Arlington Heights and I became a commuter.

I always had a wee bit of envy for those who drove or were driven to the station—got their newspapers or met their card-playing friends and settled down to a relaxing 30 minutes ride and were able to meet their work day without the problem of nerves which were harassed by the early morning traffic. Now, after four weeks of this commutation, I have reached the careful decision that the "grass is not much greener" on the other side.

To begin with, I must leave home a full thirty minutes earlier in order to try to find a parking place within walking distance of the depot. The typical situation upon arriving at the parking lot of the Northwestern station is that it is filled with cars parked in a very unorderly fashion. Most of the cars—whether they are early arrivals or overnight parkers I cannot distinguish—are occupying enough space for one and a half cars. There are also some people who do not park diagonal—but prefer to have their car in a position where it takes two parking spaces. (The owner of the dilapidated Mercury station wagon with the 1953 license is a perfect example of this). I suppose there are several others who live within a nominal walking distance of the station who prefer to drive and park all day. Under normal circumstances where there would be an abundance of facilities this would not be disputed—but don't you think that these persons could arrange to ride together or walk? (I know if the train stopped at Arlington Park, I would walk the half-mile to the station.)

This situation may be the result of growing pains—but I certainly think that something should be done before there is a permanent lameness evident.

I am unaware as to the sponsors of the parking facilities—however, I am assuming that they are not aware of the misuse of the privilege.

SPRED SATIN

FOR WALLS • CEILINGS • WOODWORK

For the first time, you can paint rooms in winter and know that they will still have "freshly painted" beauty next summer. Spred SATIN'S smooth film has less porosity to absorb and hold household dirt. It stays clean longer and when necessary, mild soap and water washes it clean again in a jiffy.

- Goes on in half the time.
- Dries in 20 minutes.
- No laps or brushmarks.
- No offensive or painty odor.
- Use room right away.
- No messy brush clean-up ... just soap and water.

You could even pour harsh lye on it ... not that you'll want to — but it indicates the ability of Spred SATIN to withstand all kinds of abuse in your home!

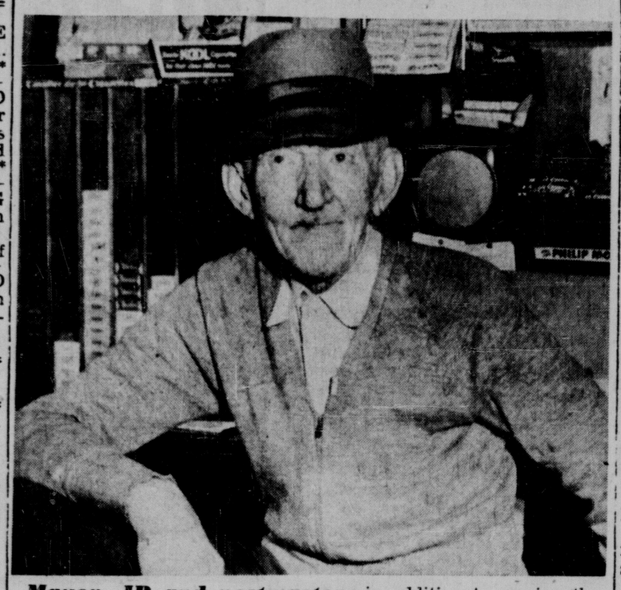
Newsstand Of The Week



Mayor, JP and postmaster, in addition to serving the public in his combination pharmacy, newsstand and post office is the job of John Hjelte of Bloomingdale. John operates one of the 60 newsstands selling more than 8,000 copies of Paddock Publications weekly.

John's mother was postmaster in Longborn, Sweden, before John arrived in this country at the age of four. During World War I John worked in drug stores in Oak Park, River Forest, Wheaton and Elgin, eventually settling in Lombard where he was the only pharmacist for seven years, as well as serving the town as postmaster 2½ years.

John has been operating his present business on Lake street, east of Bloomingdale road, 29 years, has been JP the past 26 years, and served the community of Bloomingdale as mayor 14 years. His wife just recently retired as postmaster 18 years. John's married daughter and her three children live in the family home west of the store. —Staff Photo.

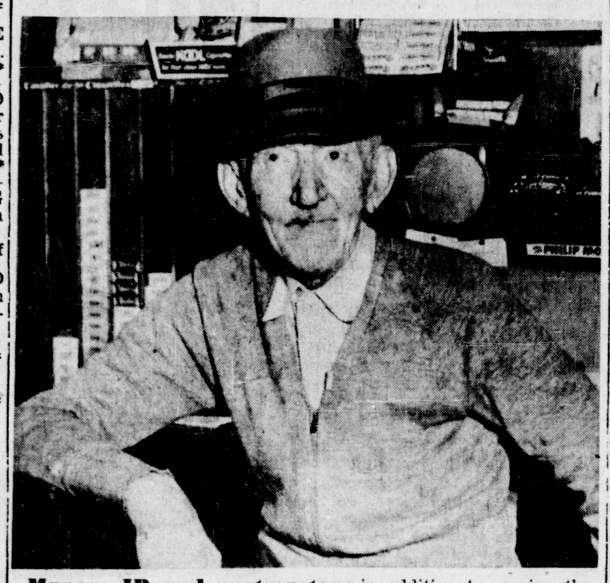
Newsstand Of The Week



Mayor, JP and postmaster, in addition to serving the public in his combination pharmacy, newsstand and post office is the job of John Hjelte of Bloomingdale. John operates one of the 60 newsstands selling more than 8,000 copies of Paddock Publications weekly.

John's mother was postmaster in Longborn, Sweden, before John arrived in this country at the age of four. During World War I John worked in drug stores in Oak Park, River Forest, Wheaton and Elgin, eventually settling in Lombard where he was the only pharmacist for seven years, as well as serving the town as postmaster 2½ years.

John has been operating his present business on Lake street, east of Bloomingdale road, 29 years, has been JP the past 26 years, and served the community of Bloomingdale as mayor 14 years. His wife just recently retired as postmaster 18 years. John's married daughter and her three children live in the family home west of the store. —Staff Photo.

Prank Backfires; 14 Boys Arrested

An episode — intended for a prank—backfired and resulted in the booking of 14 York high school students by Elmhurst police. Two of the youngsters were charged with petty larceny, and the others with disorderly conduct.

Involved was the theft of a tombstone which the boys managed to place on the school campus last week after defacing it. The students have been released in custody of their parents and are scheduled to appear before police magistrate for a hearing.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. Martha Holste, who passed away one year ago.
Home is not home for mother's not there,
God has taken her out of our care.
Dark is her room and empty her chair;
She's gone to that land so peaceful and fair.
God, hold your loving arms about her,
And keep her in your tender care.
Please make up all she had to suffer,
For everything that was so unfair.

DESIGN FOR LIVING
Building - Remodeling - Improving

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

In the little Spanish-American village of the Southwest, he was one of the stupidest of village half-wits. A great hulk of a boy, he had difficulty in making himself understood when he spoke. He had difficulty walking or doing any other normal activities.

His own family had virtually turned him out. They were poor and there were other children who needed food and shelter and clothing. This one could do no work and could make no contribution to family life.

ONE DAY as he stood on the street, a man got off his horse and called to the boy to hold him. As he watched the awkward way in which the boy went about seeking for the reins, he had a sudden thought.

Going closer, he looked more carefully at the lad. He made some gestures in front of him. When he left town he took the boy along. Nobody cared.

The man on the horse was a missionary to the Spanish-speaking Americans. He took the lad to a mission school. They made a routine examination of the boy's eyes — he was extremely near-sighted. When next the mission doctor came round, they obtained glasses for the boy.

A whole new world opened before him. James Thurber may write of the wonderful world of blurred outlines which is before him when he takes off his glasses—but Thurber is a humorist and has had the benefit of glasses all his life. For this boy the process worked in reverse.

THEY FOUND that he was teachable as soon as he was able to recognize objects and people. They found that he had a great fund of native intelligence as soon as he was able to express it.

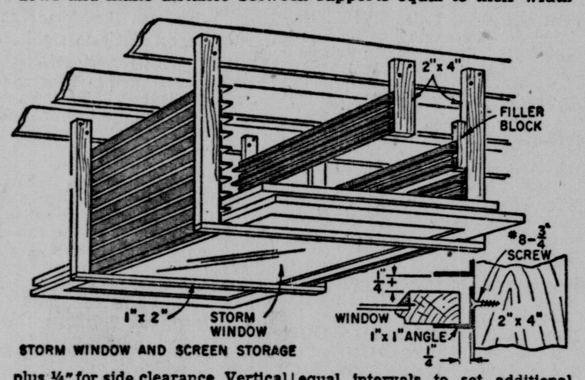
At eighteen he started to school. Before he was thirty, he had finished college and seminary and was going back to the Southwest as the first native Spanish-speaking missionary of his church.

In dozens of sleepy adobe villages, he has told the story of the wonderful grace of God which led a missionary to see that the village half-wit had possibilities for increasing his share of wits.

Somewhere there were local churches which had a concern. They were supporting the missionary who was led to see the possibility. They wanted to reclaim the lost and the wandering. Some of them never knew just which persons or how many persons they helped the missionary and the Lord to recover. We never know how far a deed of love and goodness spreads — the man of faith is satisfied to act in hope.

Compact Storm Window Storage Built In Garage or Basement

Storm windows and screens are pesky to store between seasons. There's probably room overhead in your basement or garage for a compact storage rack you can build yourself using 1"x1" do-it-yourself aluminum angle. Measure screens or windows and make distance between supports equal to their width



STORM WINDOW AND SCREEN STORAGE

Nail 1x2 across bottom ends of vertical supports to keep them from spreading. Drill 5/32" hole in angle slides and countersink so #8x¾" aluminum screws will seat flush. Measure up vertical supports equal intervals to set additional angle slides. Check occasionally with storm window to make sure slides are being installed level.

Nurses To Meet In Chicago Wednesday

Hospital nurses from throughout the state will meet at the Morrison hotel on Wednesday, November 10, to discuss ways of keeping up to date on new nursing techniques. The meeting will be sponsored by the general duty nurses' section of the Illinois state nurses' association as a part of the association's program to improve nursing care.

Registration for the workshop will begin at 8:30 a.m., sessions will continue from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Two Skokie Women Robbed Of Cash, Jewels

In a daring daylight holdup in front of her home, Mrs. Eleanor Bark, Skokie, gave up $690 in jewelry and $54 cash to two masked bandits one day last week. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Shirley Bark, was forced to hand over jewelry valued at $2000 and $41 cash. The men, carrying a .45 caliber automatic, escaped.

No Two Alike

No two oil refineries are exactly the same. They vary in nature, depending on the types of crude oil they process and the end results in which they specialize.

DESIGN FOR LIVING

by William O. McGill

In the little Spanish-American village of the Southwest, he was one of the stupidest of village half-wits. A great hulk of a boy, he had difficulty in making himself understood when he spoke. He had difficulty walking or doing any other normal activities.

His own family had virtually turned him out. They were poor and there were other children who needed food and shelter and clothing. This one could do no work and could make no contribution to family life.

ONE DAY as he stood on the street, a man got off his horse and called to the boy to hold him. As he watched the awkward way in which the boy went about seeking for the reins, he had a sudden thought.

Going closer, he looked more carefully at the lad. He made some gestures in front of him. When he left town he took the boy along. Nobody cared.

The man on the horse was a missionary to the Spanish-speaking Americans. He took the lad to a mission school. They made a routine examination of the boy's eyes — he was extremely near-sighted. When next the mission doctor came round, they obtained glasses for the boy.

A whole new world opened before him. James Thurber may write of the wonderful world of blurred outlines which is before him when he takes off his glasses—but Thurber is a humorist and has had the benefit of glasses all his life. For this boy the process worked in reverse.

THEY FOUND that he was teachable as soon as he was able to recognize objects and people. They found that he had a great fund of native intelligence as soon as he was able to express it.

At eighteen he started to school. Before he was thirty, he had finished college and seminary and was going back to the Southwest as the first native Spanish-speaking missionary of his church.

In dozens of sleepy adobe villages, he has told the story of the wonderful grace of God which led a missionary to see that the village half-wit had possibilities for increasing his share of wits.

Somewhere there were local churches which had a concern. They were supporting the missionary who was led to see the possibility. They wanted to reclaim the lost and the wandering. Some of them never knew just which persons or how many persons they helped the missionary and the Lord to recover. We never know how far a deed of love and goodness spreads — the man of faith is satisfied to act in hope.

Two Skokie Women Robbed Of Cash, Jewels

In a daring daylight holdup in front of her home, Mrs. Eleanor Bark, Skokie, gave up $690 in jewelry and $54 cash to two masked bandits one day last week. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Shirley Bark, was forced to hand over jewelry valued at $2000 and $41 cash. The men, carrying a .45 caliber automatic, escaped.

Compact Storm Window Storage Built In Garage or Basement

Storm windows and screens are pesky to store between seasons. There's probably room overhead in your basement or garage for a compact storage rack you can build yourself using 1"x1" do-it-yourself aluminum angle. Measure screens or windows and make distance between supports equal to their width plus ¼" for side clearance. Vertical supports can be equal length 2x4's nailed to ceiling joists in garage or underside of floor joists in basement.

Nail 1x2 across bottom ends of vertical supports to keep them from spreading. Drill 5/32" hole in angle slides and countersink so #8x¾" aluminum screws will seat flush. Measure up vertical supports equal intervals to set additional angle slides. Check occasionally with storm window to make sure slides are being installed level.

To Help First Aid Red Cross Program

Thomas Gordon, 166 S. Fremont ave., Palatine, is one of three volunteer Red Cross first aid instructors recently appointed to the first aid committee of the Chicago Red Cross chapter. Roy D. Day, committee chairman, reported to Mrs. Don M. Foster, 18 N. Bothwell, public information representative for Palatine.

Gordon, safety director of Teletype corporation, will coordinate the activities of all chapter first aid representatives in the suburbs of Chicago. Besides having trained an outstanding volunteer Red Cross first aid detachment among employees of Teletype corporation, he has trained and certificated several large first aid classes of suburban school bus drivers who are required by law to have a Red Cross first aid certificate. He has long served as the chapter's first aid representative in Palatine.

Knowing how to give emergency aid to victims of accidents or sudden illness in those precious moments before professional medical help arrives, often means the difference between life and death, temporary and permanent disability, or long hospitalization and rapid recovery, Day stated. He reported that last year Red Cross first aid instructors passed their knowledge and skills along to 25,982 persons in 873 classes.

Aids Fund Drive

Arthur H. Bothen, 450 Bryn Mawr avenue, Roselle, has been named chairman of the north side banks division of the Community Fund drive of Chicago, and is serving as co-chairman of the Lincoln-Belmont YMCA $30,000 financial campaign which began October 29. Mr. Bothen is assistant vice president of the Lincoln National bank of Chicago.

Elizabeth Tonne Honored For 30 Years With Illinois Bell Telephone

ELIZABETH TONNE

Miss Elizabeth Tonne, Arlington Heights, was honored last Thursday for 30 years service with the Illinois Bell Telephone company, as an operator at the Arlington Heights exchange.

She was the guest at a luncheon held at the Paul Peterson Supper club in Palatine, which was attended by James Young, district traffic superintendent, and his two assistants, Harry Van Tassel and William Hogan; the chief operator, Miss Mary O'Malley, assistant chief operator, Miss Ruth Stelling, and Miss LaDema Russell of the Upstate division training department.

At the luncheon she was presented with a 30 year diamond service pin and an orchid corsage, with Mr. Young making the presentations. Following the luncheon they returned to the office where an open house tea was held in Miss Tonne's honor, which was attended by all operators and other employees in the building.

Climax of the event came when her co-workers presented her with a Lady Elgin wristwatch and a pearl necklace and earrings. Centerpiece for the refreshment table was a huge anniversary cake.

Miss Tonne started working for Bell Telephone in Arlington Heights August 1, 1924. Prior to that she worked in Lake Zurich, her home town, and in New Baltmore, Mich., for a total period of five years.

National Tea Pays Extra Dividend

H. V. McNamara, president of National Tea Co., with headquarters in Chicago, has reported that in view of increased earnings for the year to date, plus anticipated continued favorable earnings for the balance of the year, the board of directors, at a special meeting Wednesday, October 27, voted a 2% stock dividend payable on all common shares of the company to stockholders on record as of November 16, 1954. The stock dividend has been declared in addition to the regular 40 cent cash dividend payable December 1 for the quarter ending October 9, 1954.

The net profit of National Tea Co. for the 40 weeks ended October 9, 1954, amounted to $4,447,224.00 after making provision for Federal income taxes amounting to $4,625,000.00. This result compares with a profit of $3,593,502.00 after making provision for federal income and excess profits taxes of $3,720,000.00 for the corresponding period of 1953.

After deducting preferred dividends, the above results are equivalent to $2.27 per common share in 1954 and $1.94 per common share in 1953.

Urbana Speaker

John R. Crowley, 123 North Bothwell, Palatine, systems and procedures manager for Hotpoint company, will deliver the keynote address at the 3rd annual Office Management conference, sponsored by the University of Illinois, November 9 and 10, at Urbana.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Paraplegics Firm Enters High Fidelity Market In Country

The Paraplegics Manufacturing company of Franklin Park recently announced the development of their first consumer product. This announcement was issued less than four years after the organization of this unique company. Activities in the past few years have been principally as sub-contractors in the field of electronics.

PAMCO, the trade name of the company, currently employs some fifty people with various disabilities including paraplegics, amputees, cardiacs and others with minor deformities that limit their employment opportunities, and offers a complete line of high fidelity systems for the home in various package forms.

Dwight D. Guilfoil, executive vice president of Arlington Heights announced that distribution of the "duofonic" will be through local music and department stores for the complete package sets, and components will be sold by electronics distributors. He also stated that public acceptance of this product will enable the Paraplegics Manufacturing Co. to at least double their present number of employees and provide many other opportunities for the physically handicapped.

Lee Johnson attended Keokuk high school and Northwestern university. He is a former member of the Toastmasters club, and is an active member of the Presbyterian church. He lives at 116 S. Louis street, in Mount Prospect.

Invited To Speak At Purdue University

Mrs. Betty Bilbrey, one of the speech correctionists in the Arlington Heights public elementary schools, will deliver a leture November 9 at Purdue university, West Lafayette, Ind.

She will disuss speech correction work with members of the Associated Women Students, who are sponsoring an "All Women's Day" to help make women more aware of the scope of vocational opportunities.

Mrs. Bilbrey will tell of recent research and developments in the field of speech correction and the opportunities open for women.

Is Your child creative?

Are you giving him (or her) a chance to be creative?

. . . Mary is a tom-boy . . . Jack is out of this world with records . . . Johnny likes to draw . . . Jane spends time and effort, making doll clothes . . . Catherine "collects" - stones, stamps—or what have you . . . Usually, beginning at the ages of nine or ten, these personality traits slowly emerge in the young individual . . . and these preoccupations are meaningful to both parent and teacher . . . These definite interests — in athletics, in any of the hand-crafts or arts — or perhaps in some school subject or project — should be encouraged and promoted; this is probably the best and simplest means available to combat juvenile delinquency . . . Keep the youngsters busy with things they like to do!

If your child likes to "make things" — likes to draw or paint —or work with his hands—we think you may be interested in our Saturday Art-Craft classes . . . . Here is an introduction to varied crafts, giving the child a chance to choose from different mediums—how can he know what he likes unless he has at least some small experience in variety? . . . If he wants to draw or paint, he may do so; if he wants to work with "3rd dimensional" clay, styrofoam or papier mache, that too, is available . . . At the same time he is learning different techniques and learning to work with basic art principles that will be useful throughout his life . . . This will not be "theory" alone for he will be actually making take-home items that will be decorative or useful—or both. "Make It Yourself" becomes a class slogan!

We feel that this sort of instruction—for a child in this age bracket—serves to "open doors"—to gain wider perspective in some indicated direction of personal preference. It encourages constructive growth at a time when the mind is plastic—and groping for stimulating new experiences and interests . . . Nobody should try to "push" Johnny into anything; it is simply a matter of taking note of developing tastes—and then being able to offer encouragement and helpful know-how at the right time and place . . . We have already had a number of inquiries and hope to start these classes on November 6 — morning and afternoon.

Something new for the gals — particularly those who like feather-weight earrings— are hand-molded flowers that can be painted the exact shade that will do the most good for some particular costume! In keeping with trends in new hair and hat styles, they are large and important-looking —and actually light as a feather . . . At $1.25 a pair they make a nice gift for yourself — or a friend — and they are ours, exclusively.

Seventh annual exhibit of the Western Electric company's Hawthorne club, named "Hobbies on Parade," will open at noon Thursday, November 4, for a two-day display of employees' hobbies, handicrafts and leisure time activities in the Albright gymnasium, 49th avenue and Cermak road, Cicero. Admission to the exposition, which will be open both Thursday and Friday until 10 p.m., will be free and without ticket.

In addition to collections, displays and demonstrations, a considerable number of the exhibits will feature audience participation. The Hawthorne science club, for example, will invite spectators to hear themselves talk on high-fidelity tape-recording equipment. The Hawthorne chess and checker club will have experts on hand to stand all comers in the two games.

DESIGN C-302. Here is a plan that deserves attention from anyone who needs three bedrooms on one floor in a small house. In addition to this feature, there is a combination kitchen-dinette, living room, bath and full basement. An interesting possibility would be the substitution of a folding door for the partition between living room and front bedroom and the use of this bedroom as a study or den.

The bedrooms are all above minimum size, considering the area of the plan, with generous wardrobe closets more than satisfying normal needs. The kitchen is large with well placed cabinets, a compact step-saving work area and a large dining space. The floor area is 948 sq. ft. with a cubage of 18,486 cu. ft.

Election day never fails to fill us with a feeling of pending excitement. We have even gone so far as to put off voting until the last minute to savor our power over the nation and state. Never fear, if indeed you were, we always manage to get to the polls.

Today was a picnic for us. Long ago when we lived in Michigan we had the dubious pleasure of voting for Dewey on a voting machine. It was so long ago that we had forgotten how to use it. We have almost forgotten Dewey. Today we took all the instruction offered plus reading all the rules available on the use of the machine.

So we entered the booth, fearfully pulled the large lever to the right, jumped and trembled as the curtains snapped shut and we were left alone with millions of little levers, several larger levers, and a handful of newspaper clippings advising us as to the best way to vote.

We stood there pondering the board before us and wondering what to do if we wanted to split our ballot. Which we did want to. We just hated to disturb the little levers we had been told to disturb in such a contingency. After all the build up we had given ourselves, we certainly had no intention of cancelling out our vote. Finally we timidly did as we were bid and would have done more fiddling with the fascinating gadgets if we could have coordinated all the newspaper clippings with the board in front of us. We are ashamed to admit that after our one change in our vote, we decided to let well enough alone. We admit that we are easily intimidated by machines. And we would have voted the way we did anyway. We just wish we could have messed with the mess more.

Of course, our decisions were further handicapped by our smallest fry crawling in and out under the curtains. It seemed that a very dear friend of ours had given her a package of raisins and just where they would be safest worried her considerably. With the clippings and the raisins and the machine we were glad to escape with our life and sanity. We hope our vote registered. At the moment, according to the television, it didn't do too much good.

Man has always been fair prey to women; but it took a British parliament back in 1774 to do something about it. Aroused by the determination and great lengths to which their women folks went to entice the innocent male away from the sweet freedom of bachelorhood, they acted much as we moderns do—they passed a law. It reads:

"All women of whatever age, rank or degree, maids or widows that shall from and after this act impose upon and betray into matrimony any of His Majesty's subjects by the use of scents, paints, cosmetics, artificial hair, Spanish wool (a kind of rouge), iron stays, hoops, high heeled shoes or bolstered hips, shall incur the penalty of the law now in force against witchcraft and like misdemeanors, and that the marriage, upon conviction, shall stand null and void."

WONDER WHAT the British parliament would say about the modern "witchcraft" which, in addition to most of the above items, has produced the most heinous of them all—falsies!

Women do probably small better than the gals of those days because they bathe oftener and have learned what is most effective in perfumes; but today the gals go farther than their British cousins in enticement by sex appeal. They display everything except a small area around the upper hips and across the chest. The exposing of these areas is restricted by law.

Every once in a while a fellow sees a woman who has something more to offer and she generally gets the cream of the male crop. She is the woman who has learned the rare art of being genuinely feminine, yet has the stamina and ability to compete in the business world and help her boyfriend or husband to lay away a nest egg large enough to make the down payment on a home and furniture.

SHE HAS LEARNED to be a real woman, a good pal, the kind of wife a man can depend on when he gets a tough break. Generally she can cook and keep house, big items for the young fellow starting up.

But believe me, young fellow, such women are scarce and it takes a pretty good man to land one. They don't always ask that a man be rich, but they do want kindness, honesty, ambition and guts.

New Do-It-Yourself Center At Gray's

A Do-It-Yourself center was opened in the Charles B. Gray Sales & Service store on U.S. 12 (Rand road), one block east of Rt. 83 (Elmhurst road), Mount Prospect, Saturday, October 30.

The new department will serve as headquarters for homecraftsmen where the latest materials, portable electric tools, and information on home improvements can be obtained.

Charles B. Gray, owner, stated that "the men and women of this area, and even the children, are showing a widespread interest in home building, repairing, decorating, making furniture and other articles. There are four good reasons for this. It's creative fun, it saves a lot of money, folks have more time than in years past, and many wonderful new electric tools enable them to do almost any job expertly and quickly."

To celebrate the introduction of the new center, a free exhibit and demonstration will be open to the public Saturday, November 20 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. One of the highlights of the show will be an expert from the Porter-Cable machine company who will teach visitors numerous new tricks with portable electric saws, sanders, drills, grinders, routers, shapers, planes, combo-tools and scores of accessories for special jobs.

A choice of three valuable prizes will be given away free to every person who purchases a Porter-Cable tool at the demonstration. These consist of a 210 page book entitled "How to Use Portable Power Tools" that sells regularly for $2.95, a full length carpenter's apron with pockets for supplies, and an amazing stud finder that locates upright timbers inside walls.

According to Charles B. Gray, Mr. Fixit helped to build one out of every four new homes last year, and now buys 30% of all building supplies sold. He is spending more than $3 billion on tools and materials for use in eleven million home workshops.

Zurich Heights To Vote On Sanitary District

Residents of Zurich Heights will go to the polls Saturday, Nov. 27, to vote on establishment of the Zurich Heights sanitary district, a proposal that originated with the Zurich Heights community association in August.

Voters will cast their ballots on the referendum between 6 a.m. and 5 p.m. at the Zurich Heights real estate office at Winnetka and Rand roads.

No objectors to the petition for a referendum appeared when the matter came up for hearing before circuit judges Bernard M. Decker of Waukegan and William M. Carroll of Woodstock. Both were named by county judge Minard E. Hulse to serve with him as a board of commissioners hearing petitioners.

Bits O' Business

Housing starts in September, at 114,000, were 12.4 per cent above the year-before figure . . . Steel production will reach for the 75 per cent mark this week; auto makers have begun to order steel for 1955 models . . . Cocoa, coffee and crude rubber led a general decline in prices of imported commodities in New York last week . . . Dealers' auto stocks as of September 30 were down to 440,000 compared with 538,000 a year earlier.

But believe me, young fellow, such women are scarce and it takes a pretty good man to land one. They don't always ask that a man be rich, but they do want kindness, honesty, ambition and guts.

New Do-It-Yourself Center At Gray's

A Do-It-Yourself center was opened in the Charles B. Gray Sales & Service store on U.S. 12 (Rand road), one block east of Rt. 83 (Elmhurst road), Mount Prospect, Saturday, October 30.

The new department will serve as headquarters for homecraftsmen where the latest materials, portable electric tools, and information on home improvements can be obtained.

Charles B. Gray, owner, stated that "the men and women of this area, and even the children, are showing a widespread interest in home building, repairing, decorating, making furniture and other articles. There are four good reasons for this. It's creative fun, it saves a lot of money, folks have more time than in years past, and many wonderful new electric tools enable them to do almost any job expertly and quickly."

To celebrate the introduction of the new center, a free exhibit and demonstration will be open to the public Saturday, November 20 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. One of the highlights of the show will be an expert from the Porter-Cable machine company who will teach visitors numerous new tricks with portable electric saws, sanders, drills, grinders, routers, shapers, planes, combo-tools and scores of accessories for special jobs.

A choice of three valuable prizes will be given away free to every person who purchases a Porter-Cable tool at the demonstration. These consist of a 210 page book entitled "How to Use Portable Power Tools" that sells regularly for $2.95, a full length carpenter's apron with pockets for supplies, and an amazing stud finder that locates upright timbers inside walls.

According to Charles B. Gray, Mr. Fixit helped to build one out of every four new homes last year, and now buys 30% of all building supplies sold. He is spending more than $3 billion on tools and materials for use in eleven million home workshops.

Zurich Heights To Vote On Sanitary District

Residents of Zurich Heights will go to the polls Saturday, Nov. 27, to vote on establishment of the Zurich Heights sanitary district, a proposal that originated with the Zurich Heights community association in August.

Voters will cast their ballots on the referendum between 6 a.m. and 5 p.m. at the Zurich Heights real estate office at Winnetka and Rand roads.

No objectors to the petition for a referendum appeared when the matter came up for hearing before circuit judges Bernard M. Decker of Waukegan and William M. Carroll of Woodstock. Both were named by county judge Minard E. Hulse to serve with him as a board of commissioners hearing petitioners.
